HAPPY THANKSGIVING 2023

My family has a Thanksgiving tradition, and you may have it as well: we go around the table and each person says one thing that they're thankful for. Like you, our family is thankful for spouses and kids, for jobs and for health; we're thankful for new babies celebrating their first Thanksgiving, and we're thankful for another year with an aging family member; we're thankful for a Country with freedoms and we're thankful for a Church that feels like family. Wishing each and every one of your families a Blessed & Happy Thanksgiving.

On Thanksgiving Day, Monday, October 9th, we will be celebrating 2 Thanksgiving Masses.

11:00 a.m. Mass at Most Precious Blood. (Soup will follow in the parish hall courtesy of St. Vincent DePaul.)

11:00 a.m. Mass at Our Lady of Guadalupe.

Everyone is welcome to come out and give thanks at the Holy Eucharist.

Thank you to all who were able to give to this Year's Thanksgiving Appeal.

I believe my letter in last week's bulletin explained the purpose of this Annual Appeal. Your generosity is greatly appreciated!

Thank you to all who signed up at last week's Sign Up Sunday.

Our Business Manager, Donna Marcotte takes care of all our volunteers. She will be gathering all the sheets from the 4 Churches and our new volunteers will be contacted.

A very special welcome to all our new volunteers!

Please patronize our bulletin advertisers (on the back of the bulletin). It is these individual businesses that make it possible to have our weekly bulletin published. A special thank you to all our advertisers.

Thank you to Lou Laplante for installing our new railings at Most Precious Blood and St. Theresa's Church. Installing these handrails provides walking assistance to and from the sanctuary. Your safety is just one more way we can serve you better.

Have a Blessed Week Everyone!
