PANTRY UPDATE

Thanks to all who donated food or monetary gifts. We were able to feed 38 families, totaling 116 people at our April food pantry. We are now in need of canned corn, canned peas, peanut butter, jam, boxed potatoes, and rice sides. We are asking for small sizes or regular size (15 oz.) of peanut butter and jam. Many of our clients are singles and two-person households who would benefit from the smaller size. If anyone needs help with utilities or food, please contact our office at 586-773-9231.

LIVING ROSARY

Our next Living Rosary will be held on Wednesday, May 1st in the Family Center after the 9:00 a.m. Mass.

Since this is the beginning of Mary's month, it would be a great start to celebrate our Blessed Mother. See you then.

There will also be a great dessert to share.

Stewardship Thoughts

Today's Scripture readings narrate the Apostles' actions after Christ's Resurrection. In the Acts of the Apostles, Peter shows compassion when he heals the sick, which results in a number of conversions to Christ. In the Book of Revelation, John, detained on the island of Patmos for his witness to Jesus, describes to Christ's followers his heavenly vision, encouraging them to keep the faith. In St. John's Gospel, the evangelist retells of Jesus' appearances after His Resurrection to the Apostles on consecutive Sundays. They are jubilant; Thomas indicates he now believes in Christ risen by proclaiming: My Lord and my God! Jesus breathes the Holy Spirit upon them and gives them the authority to forgive sins.

Beginning with our Baptism, we, too, are called to discipleship in the Lord. As Christian stewards, we strive to express this discipleship through our sharing in prayer, service, and generosity with our parish and our brothers and sisters in need.

Today, on Divine Mercy Sunday, learn to pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet on your rosary.

Secular Order of Discalced Carmelites
An Invitation to Join Us!

Do you feel that you would like to strengthen your spiritual life? The Secular order of Discalced Carmelites may provide just what you are seeking. We are a community of practicing Roman Catholics, both men and women, married and single (as well as secular priests and deacons) who desire a more intimate relationship with God. We pray the Liturgy of the Hours, wear the brown scapular of Our Lady, spend time in mental prayer, and study the spiritual works of the Carmelite Saints. The spiritual benefits are very rewarding! We meet the fourth Sunday of each month at St. Hubert's in Harrison Township. "Come and See!"

Inquiry Meeting on May 19, 2019. Please call in advance. Contact Margaret at (586) 764-5128.

Guest Speaker, Fr. Michel Rodrigue will be here on May 15, 2019 at 6:30 p.m.

Fr. Rodrigue is a dynamic and inspirational speaker who is guided by the Holy Spirit during his conferences and presentations. He has the ability to stimulate, motivate and encourage those individuals who attend his talks. Fr. Rodrigue is also a theologian who helps us to understand the Divine nature and the religious truths of our Faith. He has the gift of healing in which he is able to minister various kinds of healings through the power of the Holy Spirit. He will be anointing all those who attend with St. Joseph's Holy Oil.

Conference topics: The greatness of God the Father, the mystery of the Holy Trinity, how the Holy Spirit works in our hearts, the need for the new evangelization, and the importance of having a personal relationship with Jesus.

Divine Mercy

The mission of St. Faustina was recorded in her Diary which she kept at the request of Jesus and her confessors. She faithfully recorded all of Jesus' wishes and described the encounters between her soul and Him. Jesus said to St. Faustina, "Secretary of My most profound mystery, know that your task is to write down everything that I make known to you about My mercy, for the benefit of those who by reading these things will be comforted in their souls and will have the courage to approach Me." (Diary 1693) Jesus wanted to remind the world of the truth of our faith which is revealed in the Holy Scripture about the merciful love of God toward every human being. In 1931 Jesus appeared to St. Faustina in a vision. She saw Jesus clothed in a white garment with His right hand raised in blessing. His left hand was touching His garment in the area of the Heart, from where two large rays came forth, one red and the other pale. She gazed intently at Jesus in silence, her soul filled with awe, but also with great joy. Jesus said to her: "Paint an image according to the pattern you see, with the signature: Jesus, I trust in You. I promise that the soul that will venerate this image will not perish. I also promise victory over [its] enemies already here on earth, especially at the hour of death. I Myself will defend it as My own glory (Diary, 47, 48). I am offering people a vessel with which they are to keep coming for graces to the fountain of mercy. That vessel is this image with the signature: Jesus, I trust in You (327). I desire that this image be venerated, first in your chapel, and [then] throughout the world" (47). When St. Faustina asked the Lord about the meaning of the rays in the image, she heard these words in reply: "The two rays denote Blood and Water. The pale ray stands for the Water which makes souls righteous. The red ray stands for the Blood which is the life of souls. These two rays issued forth from the depths of My tender mercy when My agonized Heart was opened by a lance on the Cross. Happy is the one who will dwell in their shelter, for the just hand of God shall not lay hold of him (299). By means of this image I shall grant many graces to souls. It is to be a reminder of the demands of My mercy, because even the strongest faith is of no avail without works" (742). These images represent the graces of Divine Mercy poured out upon the world. Especially through Baptism and the Eucharist.

God Bless,
Sandy Acord
