JUNE 2, 2019 THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

We continue the work of Jesus Christ, to Unleash the Gospel and help everyone seek and experience the love and mercy of God.

Father Bogdan's Corner

I pray that reading my column finds you in good health after the Memorial Weekend. How nice it is that every few weeks there are days to remember special events that shape the history of America. The next holiday will be the 4th of July.

Here in the parish we ended the Religious Education Program for the summer, but you may register your children and teenagers for classes for next year. Mrs. Sandy Acord, Director of Religious Education, is in the office at the regular hours. I am encouraging you to promote our RCIA Program for those who would like to learn the Catholic way of life. This program will start in the fall and continue to the Easter Vigil 2020.

We still have a few months before the Parish Picnic, but it is time to plan and discuss. My Finance Council and I would like to propose a new way to enjoy fellowship instead of a traditional parish picnic. Our plan is to have a classy dinner with entertainment, drinks and the traditional parish raffle on one of the fall weekends (a Saturday or Sunday). Doing it this way, every parishioner will have the opportunity to enjoy the day with family and friends instead of working many hours to prepare the event. I hope that you will accept our proposal for this event. If you have some ideas to share, please let me know.

The Rummage Sale will be like previous years, but some policies will be changed, and offer new people to work and organize this event. Thank you and God bless you.

Love you all,

Fr. Bogdan

An Unleash the Gospel Pastoral Note (Continued from last week's bulletin)

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Sunday is a day to rest from work so that we have the time and leisure to pursue things that do not have worldly utility. Unless we take this regular time away from these matters, we will easily and quickly lose sight of our ultimate destiny. Our attention needs to be intentionally interrupted from our earthly work to call to mind the reality that we are joint heirs with Christ of the things of heaven.

For our local Church to be faithful to the graces of Synod 16, we also must commit to seeing Sunday as a day when families can be together. The vision for families laid out in Unleash the Gospel requires time set aside from many other good activities so that families can be together, free from other distractions. Some of the particular aspects of Sunday family time include family Scripture time, the family Rosary, making use of parish activities together as a family and “reclaiming Sunday” through Mass and a shared meal. For some families, this time together has been marked by “technology-free family time” on Sunday, when parents and children set aside their phones and other devices and commit to spending uninterrupted family time together.

Finally, Sunday is the day when the Holy Spirit was poured out in power upon the disciples of Jesus. In fact, John Paul II called Sunday a “weekly Pentecost.” Therefore, Sunday is a fitting day to grow in our faith. Catechesis for young people and for adults is not out of place on this day. It also is a day to witness to our faith. That first Pentecost saw the apostles boldly proclaiming Jesus as Lord. As we seek to live a new Pentecost, we should be witnesses to God’s mercy, particularly on the Lord’s Day. This means we should look for opportunities to share our faith with others on this day. We do this in our words of kindness, by sharing our faith with others and through works of charity, especially to the less fortunate.

In the Foundational Conviction section of Unleash the Gospel, I wrote that “this missionary conversion” calls for a “strikingly countercultural way of living.” Living Sunday more radically and intentionally as God’s people will help us do this. It will help us to root our lives in prayer and the sacraments. It will create the space for us to demonstrate unusually gracious hospitality and to include those on the margins. And it will remind us of God’s presence even in difficult and stressful times, so that we can be Jesus’ band of joyful missionary disciples in Southeast Michigan.

What follows here are details about one particular way we are committed to this “strikingly countercultural way of living.” After prayerful consultation of the presbyterate of Detroit and responding to what I believe is the call of the Holy Spirit through Synod 16, we in the Archdiocese of Detroit will cease sporting events on Sunday. This means that competitive athletic programs in the grade school and high school levels are called to no longer play games or conduct practices on the Lord’s Day. In the months ahead, we will offer a number of resources to assist families in their own practice of keeping holy the Lord’s Day.

In shifting away from the hustle of required sporting activities on Sunday, we will reclaim this holy day and create more time for families to choose activities that prioritize time spent with each other and our Lord. As the Catholic Church, our primary role is to form disciples. Informed by Synod 16 and inspired by the Holy Spirit, we look forward to abundant blessings as we seek to abide by our God’s teaching to keep Holy the Lord’s Day.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

ARCHBISHOP ALLEN H. VIGNERON

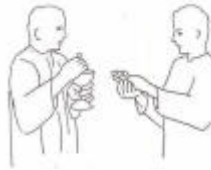

How to Receive Communion in the Hand

This is how St. Cyril of Jerusalem instructed the newly-baptized in his congregation during his Easter sermon in the year 348: "When you approach Holy Communion, make the left hand into a throne for the right, which will receive the King. With your hand hollowed, receive the Body of Christ and answer 'Amen'. Then consume it, taking care not to lose any of it." There is no "absolute" way of taking Communion. However, the following steps might be helpful, always remembering that the first rule is reverence.

1. Place one open palm on top of the other. (If you are right-handed, the right hand should be on the bottom; if left-handed, the left hand should be on the bottom.)
2. The minister says "Body of Christ", you reply "Amen". Bow your head slightly. The minister places the Host in your open palm.
3. Step aside to make room for the next communicant.
4. With your lower hand, take the Host and place it in your mouth. Only after this, return to your place.

1. Cupped position of hands.

2. Hands are held high enough to be seen by the minister distributing Communion.

3. The minister says "Body of Christ," you reply "Amen." Bow your head slightly. The minister places the Host in your open hand.

4. Take a step to the side; take the body of Christ from your cupped hands and place it in your mouth.

Stewardship Thoughts

In the Solemnity of the Ascension's Scripture passages, from the Acts of the Apostles and the Gospel of the evangelist St. Luke, the sacred writers profess the Ascension of our Lord. In both readings, Jesus offers a farewell to His disciples, but promises to send them His gift of the Holy Spirit - the Paraclete. In his Letter to the Ephesian community, St. Paul prays for God to give Christ's disciples the spirit of wisdom. This same Spirit today continues to inspire and move us as faithful disciples to action. Are we responding to Jesus' invitation to make Him personal in our lives? In a spirit of evangelization, do we in turn spread His joy and peace - His Good News - by using our God-given gifts of time, talent, and financial resources to proclaim His Kingdom to the parish and beyond?
