JUNE 21, 2020 TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

We continue the work of Jesus Christ, to Unleash the Gospel and help everyone seek and experience the love and mercy of God.

Father Bogdan's Corner

Today we observe Father's Day. Along with his wife, the father is forming the family by giving offspring to the world. Their children from the moment of birth need shelter, food, love and authoritative assistance in their physical, psychological, and intellectual growth. If the father does not have authority, he cannot fulfill his role well.

Authority in the family or in the community is something that must be real, acknowledged and communicated, otherwise we will experience anarchy. The person with authority is the one who has knowledge and is in full disposition of teaching. Authority of the father or any person who is in a position like teaching, leading and guiding asks for submission. When the police sirens and blue lights flash in your rearview mirror, you pull over. That is because the policeman has authority and you recognize it. If you neglect, you are in trouble. Fathers must check their sons and daughters to see that everything is going well in their lives. It is the father's responsibility to raise a child that will become a good citizen and a good Catholic. I wish to all Fathers a lot of respect and love from your children.

Besides replacing the roof on our church that is very costly, it is time for our annual CSA collection. This year you will receive the information through the Archdiocese of Detroit, and they will be handling the donations. St. Faustina will receive credit for your donation. We all know how difficult it is for you to pay all the bills, but I am asking you to support our church on a diocesan level and parochial level. Keep donating online or through the envelope system to our parish and in this season to CSA. CSA Sunday will be September 13, 2020. I am very thankful to three people from outside of our parish who made generous donations to our parish. Your names will be recorded in our parish records for historians to study the history of Warren and our parish. Thank you for your generosity. If you would like to join our parish, please contact me or our parish office. Many thanks to all those who sent me Anniversary and Birthday wishes. Your cards and gifts are showing us that we believe and support solidarity of people with their priests. It means a lot to me and the parish.

Congratulations to the students on their First Holy Communion in such an unusual Coronavirus time. You, your parents, and teacher, Mrs. Lena Kraft, survived and accomplished a great task. Jesus is with you. God Bless you.

Fr. Bogdan

PANTRY UPDATE

We hope and pray that all parishioners are staying safe and healthy during this pandemic. While our office has been closed during this pandemic, St. Vincent de Paul has been delivering food along with gas cards to families in need. As we look forward to starting up shortly, we need the following: canned tuna, canned chicken, canned soups, peanut butter- 16 oz. (please no large ones), jam, rice sides, toothpaste, laundry detergent, hand soap, deodorant, and toilet tissue. When we are able to reopen our office, food distribution will be by appointment only. Also, the St. Vincent de Paul Thrift stores are now open. Thank you for your continued support and pray for peace in our country

Gospel Reflection on the Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

(Adapted from Celebrating Sunday for Catholic Families by Karen O'Malley)

Hearing the Word (Matthew 10:26-33):

Jesus said to the Twelve: "Fear no one. Nothing is concealed that will not be revealed, nor secret that will not be known. What I say to you in the darkness, speak in the light; what you hear whispered, proclaim on the housetops. And do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather, be afraid of the one who can destroy both soul and body in Gehenna. Are not two sparrows sold for a small coin? Yet not one of them falls to the ground without your Father's knowledge. Even all the hairs of your head are counted. So do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows. Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father. But whoever denies me before others, I will deny before my heavenly Father."

Reflecting on the Word:

Emphasizing God's wisdom, Jesus instructs his Apostles on how to live openly in God's love. If God cares for the tiny sparrows, he would care for us even more. No matter is too small for God. We only have to trust in him.

We all need reassurance about God's love and care. It is important to demonstrate your belief that your family is precious and cared for by God in your prayer and your actions. If there are particular problems or anxieties that you are struggling with, bring them to God in prayer. Trust in God's care.

How has God been with you in times of fear, grief or pain? What about the happy, joyful times?

How does it make you feel to know that God knows everything about you, even the number of hairs on your head?

Since today is Father's Day, think about one thing for which you are or were grateful about your earthly father or your Father in heaven.

Congratulations to all of the second grade students who celebrated their First Holy Communion. I am very proud of them for all of their hard work in preparing for this special Sacrament. I hope they will continue their enthusiasm to learn more about the Catholic faith, to keep God in their lives, and to continue their faith journey. May they always know the peace of Jesus, the light of His love, and the joy of His life within them. Thank you to their parents for being good role models and for continuing their religious education at home when we weren't able to hold classes. Keep up the good work! Thank you to Lena Kraft, the second grade catechist, who did a great job preparing the students!

A Communion Blessing

*May Jesus, who loves all children, keep you near today.
As you receive His blessings, may He hear the prayers you say.
And in the years that lie ahead, may He be close beside you
To love you and watch over you,
To comfort you and guide you,
And to be in your heart
now and forever.*

God Bless,
Sandy Acord

Growing Faith ...Engaging Hearts

Father's Day Prayer

Most gracious Heavenly Father,

We thank you for our earthly fathers, those to whom you have entrusted the responsibility to provide loving protection of their families and guidance of their children. We thank you, also, for our priests and bishops, whose spiritual fatherhood is so vital to the faith of your people.

Assist all fathers of families, all spiritual fathers, and all Christian men, that through your grace they may steadily grow in holiness and in knowledge and understanding of your Truth. May they generously impart this knowledge to those who rely on them.

As you, our Heavenly Father, so loved the world, sending your only Son to be our Savior and Redeemer, we ask you to help all men to imitate His fatherly gentleness and mercy. May their lives be examples to all of heroic faithfulness to you.

We ask your blessing on all those to whom you have entrusted fatherhood. May your Holy Spirit constantly inspire them with justice and mercy, wisdom and strength, and self-giving love. May they receive your grace abundantly in this earthly life, and may they look forward to eternal joy in your presence in the life to come.

We ask this through Jesus Christ, your Son and Our Lord. Amen.

Act of Spiritual Communion

It has long been a Catholic understanding that when circumstances prevent one from receiving Holy Communion, it is possible to make an Act of Spiritual Communion which is a source of grace. Spiritual Communion means uniting one's self in prayer with Christ's sacrifice and worshipping Him in His Body and Blood. The most common reason for making an Act of Spiritual Communion is when a person cannot attend Mass. Acts of Spiritual Communion increase our desire to receive sacramental Communion and help us avoid the sins that would make us unable to receive Holy Communion worthily.

My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You in my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen

Updating Parish Records

We have found, during this time of the pandemic, that our parish records need to be updated. Even though many of you may have belonged to St. Edmund or St. Sylvester for many years prior to the opening of St. Faustina your record may be missing vital information. Many calls were made during this time to update you with information. If you did not receive a phone call from a team of our parishioners or a robo call from Fr. Bogdan, then we do not have a current phone number for you. Many of you now only have cell phones and no longer have a home phone. Please take a few minutes and fill out the form below. We are also asking for an email address. We have no plans at this time to use it, however, we never know what tomorrow will bring. Our robo calls are sent out using the parish phone number. Hopefully, we will never encounter a situation like we have for the past 10 weeks again.

Thank you for your time.

Daily: 8:00AM – 8:00PM
This service is at no cost!

Outbreaks can be stressful- We are here to provide help and give hope!

The outbreak of coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19) may be stressful for people. Fear and anxiety about a disease can be overwhelming and cause strong emotions in adults and children. Coping with stress will make you, the people you care about, and your community stronger.

Stress during an infectious disease outbreak can include:

- Fear and worry about your own health and the health of your loved ones
- Changes in sleep or eating patterns
- Difficulty sleeping or concentrating
- Worsening of chronic health problems
- Worsening of mental health conditions
- Increased use of alcohol, tobacco, or other drugs

Everyone reacts differently to stressful situations

How you respond to the outbreak can depend on your background, the things that make you different from other people, and the community you live in.

People who may respond more strongly to the stress of a crisis include:

- Older people and people with chronic diseases who are at higher risk for severe illness from COVID-19
- Children and teens
- People who are helping with the response to COVID-19, like doctors, other health care providers, and first responders
- People who have mental health conditions including problems with substance use

Our qualified mental health professionals are here to listen! Call us at (888) 271-2350. Our FREE hot line is open from 8:00am to 8:00pm daily. For more info go to ccsem.org.

Report Abuse

The Archdiocese of Detroit encourages individuals to report clergy sexual abuse of minors and others - no matter when the abuse occurred. Individuals may contact local law enforcement authorities and/or they may report to the Archdiocese of Detroit by calling the Victim Assistance Coordinator at (866) 343-8055 or by emailing vac@aod.org. In addition, the Michigan Attorney General's Office can be contacted at its toll-free reporting hotline at (844) 324-3374 or by email at aginvestigations@michigan.gov.

More information about the Archdiocese's efforts to address abuse may be found at protect.aod.org.

Registration

Parishioners may register in person, by phone, or online.

Baptism

At least one parent needs to be registered, active and a practicing Catholic for at least six months. Baptisms are the second Sunday of the month. A Baptismal Preparation Class is required for both parents and godparents. The church requires that at least one of the godparents be an active and practicing Catholic. For more information call the Parish Office.

Marriages

Arrange at least six months in advance.

Communion Calls

Pastoral Staff members visit the sick in the hospital when possible and take Communion to the sick and homebound regularly. Names of the sick should be reported to the Parish Office.

If you or someone you know is interested in becoming Catholic, please contact Sandy Acord at (586) 773-9220 or send an email to sandyjacord@gmail.com.

St. Faustina is extending a personal invitation to you so that we can help with your spiritual needs.

If you have been baptized and have made your First Holy Communion, please contact Sandy to inquire about Confirmation.
