MAY 15, 2022 FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

We continue the work of Jesus Christ, to Unleash the Gospel and help everyone seek and experience the love and mercy of God.

Father Bogdan's Corner

Time goes fast. I am surprised that the days and weeks are passing by quickly and there are more things to manage. With Spring comes cleaning the property, repairing holes in the parking lot, and planting the flowers. We renewed our contract with Grasshopper to mow the grass. Like everything else, their price has increased this year. The sprinkler system needs to be tested and put to work. Hopefully, flowers will be brought by my parishioners and planted. I am asking for flower donations and volunteers to plant them.

The CSA Collection for 2021/22 is closed out and it is time to begin the new campaign for CSA 2022/23. I am very thankful to all parishioners who made donations last year for CSA. Unfortunately only 187 families participated last year and we fell short $14,266.47, which will have to be paid by the parish. I hope that those who did not contribute last year will prayerfully consider helping us this year. The money that we will collect over our target $45,730 will stay in the parish. We can use these funds to cover any expenses that we have. Can you be generous in this way to your parish? I am also encouraging those who donate $1.00 or $2.00 per weekend can you please double your generosity in your weekly envelope?

Last week the Religious Education Department had the last class for students attending public school. Our Director of Education and all the teacher/catechist did a great job and I am very thankful to them.

This year we hope to resume our dinner and raffle as we did in the past.

We are making an effort to recruit new altar servers: boys, girls and adults, lectors, ushers and Knights of Columbus members. Please consider to volunteer your time and talents with the rest of the parishioners.

May God Bless you all,

Fr. Bogdan

While every effort is made to ensure the accuracy of bulletin information, we offer apologies for any errors or omissions that might occur.

We would like to share exciting news! Two of our Religious Education students Sofia and Grace Cracchiolo are training to be Alter Servers. If you were at 11:00 a.m. Mass on Sunday, May 8th you could feel the excitement radiating from the girls. Their mother is also a teacher in our Religious Education Program for 3 years now. The girls had support from their family Mom, dad, and grandparents. Sofia and Grace's grandfather is going to join our Religious Education department next year.

Sofia and Grace have been part of St. Faustina Religious Education program since first grade. They attended Westwood Elementary School which is part of Warren Woods Public Schools. They moved a year ago to Macomb, MI and attend Fox Elementary School. Sofia and Grace will go to Iroquois Middle School in September. They will continue their Religious Education here at St. Faustina. We are very proud of Sofia and Grace

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.

Amen.

First Reading:

Acts 14:21-27

After Paul and Barnabas had proclaimed the good news to that city and made a considerable number of disciples,
they returned to Lystra and to Iconium and to Antioch.
They strengthened the spirits of the disciples
and exhorted them to persevere in the faith, saying, “It is necessary for us to undergo many hardships
to enter the kingdom of God.”
They appointed elders for them in each church and,
with prayer and fasting, commended them to the Lord
in whom they had put their faith.
Then they traveled through Pisidia and reached Pamphylia.
After proclaiming the word at Perga they went down to Attalia.
From there they sailed to Antioch,
where they had been commended to the grace of God
for the work they had now accomplished.
And when they arrived, they called the church together
and reported what God had done with them and how he had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 145:8-9, 10-11, 12-13

R (cf. 1) I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

The LORD is gracious and merciful,
slow to anger and of great kindness.
The LORD is good to all
and compassionate toward all his works.

R I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

Let all your works give you thanks, O LORD,
and let your faithful ones bless you.
Let them discourse of the glory of your kingdom
and speak of your might.

R I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

Let them make known your might to the children of Adam,
and the glorious splendor of your kingdom.
Your kingdom is a kingdom for all ages,
and your dominion endures through all generations.

R I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

Second Reading:

Rev 21:1-5a

Then I, John, saw a new heaven and a new earth.
The former heaven and the former earth had passed away,
and the sea was no more.
I also saw the holy city, a new Jerusalem,
coming down out of heaven from God,
prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.
I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, “Behold, God’s dwelling is with the human race.
He will dwell with them and they will be his people
and God himself will always be with them as their God.
He will wipe every tear from their eyes,
and there shall be no more death or mourning,
wailing or pain,
for the old order has passed away.”

The One who sat on the throne said, “Behold, I make all things new.”

AlleluiaJn 13:34*R. Alleluia, alleluia.

I give you a new commandment, says the Lord:
love one another as I have loved you.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.GOSPEL*Jn 13:31-33a, 34-35

When Judas had left them, Jesus said,
“Now is the Son of Man glorified, and God is glorified in him.
If God is glorified in him,
God will also glorify him in himself,
and God will glorify him at once.
My children, I will be with you only a little while longer.
I give you a new commandment: love one another.
As I have loved you, so you also should love one another.
This is how all will know that you are my disciples,
if you have love for one another.”

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

St. Vincent de Paul PANTRY UPDATE

Thank you to all who help stock our shelves, so we can help our neighbors in need. This month's needs are as follows, cereal, canned tuna, canned chicken, hamburger helper, rice sides, spaghetti, spaghetti sauce, canned fruit, peanut butter, jam/jellies/preserves, laundry detergent, toilet tissue, and dish soap. Parish Registration

Why is it important to be registered in a parish?

Registration is the official way we join a parish community. Many people think that because they attend a particular parish they automatically belong. At times young adults who have moved away for years think they are still registered under their parents. But membership requires signing up - formally enrolling yourself in a parish. Registration is a commitment to a community, a way to be included in the religious, social and ministerial activities of your parish. Your registration affects the parish in many ways. Census numbers can determine how many priests are assigned to a church, what benefits and obligations the community has to the diocese, and how Masses and programs are planned and scheduled. Registration shows you belong! It is also necessary for certain benefits, like scheduling sacraments, obtaining sponsor certificates, and getting donation statements for tax purposes. Most importantly, it lets the parish count on you, to call on you to assist in its mission. Registering in your parish is a statement of faith and confidence in the life and work of your parish.
