SEPTEMBER 11, 2022 TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

We continue the work of Jesus Christ, to Unleash the Gospel and help everyone seek and experience the love and mercy of God.

Father Bogdan's Corner

I hope that you had a safe and relaxing Labor Day. Today we observe the 21st anniversary of the brutal attack on America that took place in New York, Washington D.C. & Pennsylvania. I hope it will never happen again.

After summer vacations, welcome back to the Church for our Masses and Services. Jesus one day said to the apostles give what is right to God and what is right to man. Here in our Church we do what is right to God: worship Him, praise Him, give Him thanks and we seek, we ask, and we knock. By doing this, we immerse ourselves in God's love. Besides having flesh, we have spirit that is nourished by God's love. Believe me my friends, if you will immerse yourself in God's love, you will have more confidence to do the right things in life, you will get strength and motivation to live and serve family and friends. Make decisions this fall to pray faithfully and deeply: (Prayer of Adoration, Prayer of Contrition, Prayer of Thanksgiving, Prayer of Petition) and definitely attend Sunday Mass. On my behalf, invite your family members, neighbors, co-workers to Church. Let us build God's Church in our hearts, our homes our country and in the world. The foundation of our Church is Jesus Christ. Knowledge about Him and His presence in our souls are important to us.

Responsible parents, for the growth of your children and teens, please sign them up for our Religious Education Program. If you do not do it now—they will lack the full knowledge of Jesus Christ for the rest of their lives. If a child does not learn now, when they become an adult they will not know. We are opening the doors of our Religious Program for students, teens and Adults. I am inviting all people of different ages, gender, social status, people of different occupations to join our parish or any parish in the area so that through the parishes ministry we take care of our spiritual life. We are also taking registrations for our parish. Please sign up with St. Faustina Parish. With a strong spiritual life, you can handle politics, economical and ethical difficulties. I wish that people from the great institutions in our area: GM, Macomb College, Ascension Hospital and many others would rediscover and encounter Jesus, with whose birth also Western Civilization was born.

Next weekend we welcome Fr. Andrew Mlele from the Archdiocese of Tabora for the annual Missionary appeal. He will be staying at the rectory. A second collection will be taken up for the mission. Please be hospitable and generous.

At the 11 a.m. Mass today we will bless the students and their school supplies for a successful school year.

May God Bless you all,

Fr. Bogdan

Prayer for Vocations

Heavenly Father, Lord of the Harvest, call forth vocations to the priesthood from our archdiocese and families.

Jesus, Eternal High Priest, give us men willing to sacrifice and serve.

Make their hearts after your own Sacred Heart.

*Holy Spirit, Everlasting Love between Father and Son, strengthen, inspire, and set men on fire with divine charity.
Grant them the courage to say yes to their vocation.*

*Holy Mary, Mother of God, Mother of priests, comfort and protect your sons as they discern their call.
With Saint Joseph, may they know your love and companionship as they deepen their relationship with Jesus.*

*Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us.
St. Anne, pray for us.
St. John Vianney, patron saint of priests, pray for us.*

Amen

ST. FAUSTINA RELIGIOUS EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

Dear Parents and Guardians,

We are approaching another school year for Faith Formation Classes. Our 1st – 8th grade student classes begin Monday, September 26, 2022, from 6:00-7:15PM. Our 9th grade students preparing for Sacrament of Confirmation will meet from 7:30-8:45. The first evening of class we like to have all students and at least one parent to welcome everyone with a short informational meeting. Students will then be dismissed to meet their teacher. We welcome children from families of other surrounding parishes, Children are our future in Christ.

Please find other information in the Church bulletins, and our website: stfaustinawarren.org.

You may schedule an appointment to register your child(ren). I am flexible. Realizing most parent's work, I am open to meeting in the evening and or a time and date that works for you. I am not available on Fridays; my goal is to make it easier for you.

The cost this year will stay the same as last year. Tuition is as follows:

$80.00 for 1 child $100.00 for 2 children or more $75.00 (Confirmation)
$15.00 Fee for Sacraments

We will be welcoming our students for face-to-face learning with continued safety protocol in place. We will issue individual supplies again this year that will be used only by your child. As of right now masks will not be required and the decision will be the choice of the parents. Also, if your child is ill, please keep them home. If a family member has Covid or if exposed to the COVID virus please report it to the Religious Education office, stfaustinadre@comcast.net or call Lynn McKnight, DRE 586-773-9220 ext. 111. We will collaborate with you during this time that your child will be out of class, to get their work to you. Please know that confidentiality is important to us, and we will not disclose any information about you, your child or family. We will be following the guidelines put forth by the Archdiocese of Detroit and the CDC, and we will make any changes necessary as the year progresses.

We will be locking the doors promptly at 6:05 p.m. the evenings of classes, they will remain locked until the end of class. If you are running late please ring the doorbell and we will come let you in.

The teaching staff and I are excited to work with your children. Enjoy the rest of your summer and stay safe.

God's Blessings,
Lynn McKnight, DRE

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

First Reading: Ex 32:7-11, 13-14

The LORD said to Moses,
"Go down at once to your people,
whom you brought out of the land of Egypt,
for they have become depraved.
They have soon turned aside from the way I pointed out to them,
making for themselves a molten calf and worshiping it, sacrificing to it and crying out,
"This is your God, O Israel, who brought you out of the land of Egypt!"
"I see how stiff-necked this people is," continued
the LORD to Moses.
Let me alone, then, that my wrath may blaze up against them to consume them.
Then I will make of you a great nation."

But Moses implored the LORD, his God, saying,
"Why, O LORD, should your wrath blaze up against your own people, whom you brought out of the land of Egypt with such great power and with so strong a hand?"

First Reading (Cont'd)

Remember your servants Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, and how you swore to them by your own self, saying,
'I will make your descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky; and all this land that I promised,
I will give your descendants as their perpetual heritage.'
So the LORD relented in the punishment
he had threatened to inflict on his people.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 51:3-4, 12-13, 17, 19

R. (Lk 15:18) I will rise and go to my father.

Second Reading: 1 Tm 1:12-17

Beloved:
I am grateful to him who has strengthened me, Christ Jesus our Lord,
because he considered me trustworthy
in appointing me to the ministry.
I was once a blasphemer and a persecutor and arrogant, but I have been mercifully treated because I acted out of ignorance in my unbelief.
Indeed, the grace of our Lord has been abundant, along with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus.
This saying is trustworthy and deserves full acceptance:
Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners.
Of these I am the foremost.
But for that reason I was mercifully treated, so that in me, as the foremost, Christ Jesus might display all his patience as an example for those who would come to believe in him for everlasting life. To the king of ages, incorruptible, invisible, the only God, honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

Gospel Lk 15:1-32

Tax collectors and sinners were all drawing near to listen to Jesus,
but the Pharisees and scribes began to complain, saying,
"This man welcomes sinners and eats with them."
So to them he addressed this parable.
"What man among you having a hundred sheep and losing one of them would not leave the ninety-nine in the desert and go after the lost one until he finds it?
And when he does find it,
he sets it on his shoulders with great joy
and, upon his arrival home, he calls together his friends and neighbors and says to them,
'Rejoice with me because I have found my lost sheep.'

'I tell you, in just the same way there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people who have no need of repentance.

"Or what woman having ten coins and losing one would not light a lamp and sweep the house, searching carefully until she finds it? And when she does find it, she calls together her friends and neighbors and says to them, 'Rejoice with me because I have found the coin that I lost.' In just the same way, I tell you, there will be rejoicing among the angels of God over one sinner who repents."

Then he said, "A man had two sons, and the younger son said to his father, 'Father give me the share of your estate that should come to me.'

So the father divided the property between them. After a few days, the younger son collected all his belongings and set off to a distant country where he squandered his inheritance on a life of dissipation. When he had freely spent everything, a severe famine struck that country, and he found himself in dire need.

So he hired himself out to one of the local citizens who sent him to his farm to tend the swine. And he longed to eat his fill of the pods on which the swine fed, but nobody gave him any.

Coming to his senses he thought, 'How many of my father's hired workers have more than enough food to eat, but here am I, dying from hunger. I shall get up and go to my father and I shall say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. I no longer deserve to be called your son; treat me as you would treat one of your hired workers."' So he got up and went back to his father.

While he was still a long way off, his father caught sight of him, and was filled with compassion.

He ran to his son, embraced him and kissed him. His son said to him,

'Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you; I no longer deserve to be called your son.'

But his father ordered his servants, 'Quickly bring the finest robe and put it on him; put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. Take the fattened calf and slaughter it.

Then let us celebrate with a feast, because this son of mine was dead, and has come to life again; he was lost, and has been found.'

Then the celebration began.

Now the older son had been out in the field and, on his way back, as he neared the house, he heard the sound of music and dancing. He called one of the servants and asked what this might mean. The servant said to him, 'Your brother has returned and your father has slaughtered the fattened calf because he has him back safe and sound.'

He became angry, and when he refused to enter the house, his father came out and pleaded with him.

He said to his father in reply,

GOSPEL (Cont'd)

'Look, all these years I served you and not once did I disobey your orders; yet you never gave me even a young goat to feast on with my friends. But when your son returns, who swallowed up your property with prostitutes, for him you slaughter the fattened calf.'

He said to him,

'My son, you are here with me always; everything I have is yours.

But now we must celebrate and rejoice, because your brother was dead and has come to life again; he was lost and has been found.'"

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

St. Vincent de Paul PANTRY UPATE

Thank you to all who keep our pantry stocked with all of your donations. This month our needs are hearty soups, Manwich, and jam/jellies/preserves, (we are always low on jam and jellies). Thank you for your continued support. God Bless St. Faustina Parish-ioners.

Fall is fast approaching and it's time to clean out your closet, so please consider donating to St. Vincent de Paul. The St. Vincent de Paul truck will be in the parking lot on September 10 & 11 to accept your clothing and household items that you no longer need. Times are Saturday 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon, and 3:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. Sunday 9:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. Thank you for your donations as you are helping us to help our "Neighbors in Need".

MISSION SUNDAY—September 18, 2022

Next weekend we welcome Father Andrew Mlele (pronounced, ma-lay-lee) to visit our parish and make an appeal. Father Andrew is an ordained priest from the Archdiocese of Tabora, Their Mission is to preach the Good News to all people, to enhance evangelization through a participatory approach. To empower the Tabora community by involving the faithful in the identification of issues and helping them solve their own social problems. To make this mission possible they focus on widespread evangelization, furthering social-economic development, provision of health services for all, notably HIV/AIDS Victims, education of orphans/vulnerable children, building small Christian Communities and supporting the poor and the marginalized. In summary, the Archdiocese of Tabora carries out its mission under two major sections: pastoral and development offices. This year the Archdiocese of Tabora focuses on education and protection of albinos, orphans and children from poor families and improvements of water and sanitation.

Mark your calendars for October 16, 2022 for our Heart & Soul II Event. More information will be coming soon.

Order of Carmelites, Province of the Most Pure Heart of Mary welcomes you to join the formation of a new 3rd order Carmelite group. Meetings will be held the 3rd Saturday of every Month after the 8am holy mass at San Francesco Catholic Church . Our first meeting will be held September 17, 2022. Our group is currently considered a spiritual Carmelite group with the hopes of forming a new community. In this group you will learn about lectio Devina, the Divine office and how to recite it, and also deepen your faith life learning about all Saints of carmel. Men and women who are 18 years and older and who are single, married, widowed or divorced are welcome to join us. Questions call Amy Perugi TOC 734-674-4772 Carol McConnell TOC 1-248-408-3192
