OCTOBER 30, 2022 THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

We continue the work of Jesus Christ, to Unleash the Gospel and help everyone seek and experience the love and mercy of God.

Father Bogdan's Corner

Last Monday I visited with the students of our religious program. It was nice to see happy and enthusiastic students eager to study. After spending some time with them and their teachers I went to the other group of parishioners—adults who every evening in October are saying the Rosary and Chaplet of Divine Mercy. It was very inspiring and meditative prayer. We have to be thankful to them for praying for our intentions, the Church, the world and for peace in Ukraine.

Now it is time to think and pray for our predecessors. They are our mothers, fathers, relatives and friends. November 1st and 2nd are a great occasion to be connected with them through prayer. November 1st is All Saints Day - a Holy Day of Obligation during which we commemorate people in heaven, who lived heroically virtuous lives, offered their life for others, or were martyred for faith, and are worthy of imitation. These are saints who are canonized and they have a special day of the year in the liturgical calendar. There are saints also who do not have the Church's public recognition but make up "Communion of Saints". They are ordinary people who were faithful to their role on earth. During their lives they placed their hope in Jesus and through Baptism, are his adopted sons and daughters. We remember them. There will be two Masses on that day at 9 a.m. and 7 p.m. Please join us.

On November 2nd during the Masses at 9 a.m. and 7 p.m. we will offer prayers of intercessions for the poor souls in purgatory who are waiting to join the Communion of Saints. These two days are an occasion for us to reflect on life after death. Please join us for the prayers on these days. I am asking all the altar servers to cover these Masses.

Please remember this week we also have First Friday Devotion and First Saturday Devotion. During these devotions, you can offer your prayers for the deceased members of your family.

Remember before all these dates we observe Halloween. There will be no Religious Education classes. I wish all of you a safe day.

May God Bless you All,

Fr. Bogdan

Our Religious Education students have been engaged and learning, our year is off to a great start. Our students are learning how they can have a relationship with Jesus and the sacrifice he made for us. Also learning in the lower grades, about their own Baptism and about the other Sacraments. The upper grades have been learning about sin and why it is harmful, how to share God's News, and how to encounter Jesus in the Mass? The Bible its structure, all of its parts, and about Conversion.

We had a visitor during the last session, and it helped the students to learn about sin and the Ten Commandments.

Thank you for being an awesome teacher Mrs. Lisa Cracchiolo

Have a Happy and Safe Halloween

The next KofC Meeting will be on November 8th at 7 p.m. New members welcome. Please join us.

Prayer for Vocations

Heavenly Father, Lord of the Harvest, call forth vocations to the priesthood from our archdiocese and families.

Jesus, Eternal High Priest, give us men willing to sacrifice and serve.

Make their hearts after your own Sacred Heart.

Holy Spirit, Everlasting Love between Father and Son, strengthen, inspire, and set men on fire with divine charity.

Grant them the courage to say yes to their vocation.

Holy Mary, Mother of God, Mother of priests, comfort and protect your sons as they discern their call.

With Saint Joseph, may they know your love and companionship as they deepen their relationship with Jesus.

*Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us.
St. Anne, pray for us.
St. John Vianney, patron saint of priests, pray for us.*

Amen

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.

Amen.

First Reading:

Wis 11:22-12:2

Before the LORD the whole universe is as a grain from a balance or a drop of morning dew come down upon the earth.

But you have mercy on all, because you can do all things; and you overlook people's sins that they may repent.

For you love all things that are
and loathe nothing that you have made;
for what you hated, you would not have fashioned.
And how could a thing remain, unless you willed it;
or be preserved, had it not been called forth by you?
But you spare all things, because they are yours,
O LORD and lover of souls,
for your imperishable spirit is in all things!
Therefore you rebuke offenders little by little, warn them and remind them of the sins they are committing,
that they may abandon their wickedness and believe in you, O LORD!

Responsorial Psalm Ps 145:1-2, 8-9, 10-11, 13, 14

R. (cf. 1) I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

I will extol you, O my God and King,
and I will bless your name forever and ever.
Every day will I bless you,
and I will praise your name forever and ever.

R. I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

The LORD is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and of great kindness.
The LORD is good to all and compassionate toward all his works.

R. I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

Let all your works give you thanks, O LORD,
and let your faithful ones bless you.
Let them discourse of the glory of your kingdom and speak of your might.

R. I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

The LORD is faithful in all his words and holy in all his works.
The LORD lifts up all who are falling and raises up all who are bowed down.

R. I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

Second Reading:

2 Thes 1:11-2:2

Brothers and sisters:

We always pray for you,
that our God may make you worthy of his calling and powerfully bring to fulfillment every good purpose and every effort of faith, that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you,
and you in him,
in accord with the grace of our God and Lord Jesus Christ.

We ask you, brothers and sisters,
with regard to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our assembling with him, not to be shaken out of your minds suddenly, or to be alarmed either by a "spirit," or by an oral statement, or by a letter allegedly from us to the effect that the day of the Lord is at hand.

Alleluia

Jn 3:16

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might have eternal life.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

GOSPEL

Lk 19:1-10

At that time, Jesus came to Jericho and intended to pass through the town.
Now a man there named Zacchaeus,
who was a chief tax collector and also a wealthy man,
was seeking to see who Jesus was;
but he could not see him because of the crowd,
for he was short in stature.
So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree in order to see Jesus,
who was about to pass that way.
When he reached the place, Jesus looked up and said,
"Zacchaeus, come down quickly,
for today I must stay at your house."
And he came down quickly and received him with joy.
When they all saw this, they began to grumble,
saying,
"He has gone to stay at the house of a sinner."
But Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord,
"Behold, half of my possessions, Lord, I shall give to the poor, and if I have extorted anything from anyone I shall repay it four times over."
And Jesus said to him,
"Today salvation has come to this house
because this man too is a descendant of Abraham.
For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save what was lost."

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

THE GIVING TREE

The Christian Service Commission is again sponsoring the Giving Tree this year. It is one way of remembering and living out what Jesus came to show us – that we are all brothers and sisters and are called to love one another. Make it a family activity or an individual means of entering into the Christmas spirit. Tags can be selected from the boards starting Saturday, November 19th.
