NOVEMBER 19, 2023 THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

We continue the work of Jesus Christ, to Unleash the Gospel and help everyone seek and experience the love and mercy of God.

Father Bogdan's Corner

For the last few weekends your sacrificial giving—such as your monetary gift to the parish has been increased. Thanksgiving is coming. On this occasion, I want to thank my parishioners and generous visitors for your love that you have for St. Faustina Parish by supporting her financially. I am also appealing to those who have not donated to CSA to please help us reach our goal.

Some day we will be gone from this world, but what we built and maintain now, will be the gift to the generation that will come after us. It is important to have this spirit of sharing heart and soul.

With the observance of Thanksgiving, we are entering the seasons of “giving and thanksgiving”. You will receive many requests for donations from different organizations. Keep your parish on top of your gift recipients. I wish to all of you a Happy and Prayerful Thanksgiving Day.

Next Sunday will be the Feast of Jesus, King of the Universe. It will be the last Sunday of the Liturgical Year Cycle A. On that Sunday, we will honor Jesus's leadership and appreciate Him for His Commandments of Love and Salvation.

Many thanks to the Veterans who represented the VFW last weekend at the Masses. May God continue to bless you.

*May God Bless You,
Fr. Bogdan*

As we approach Thanksgiving, I would like to thank our Religious Education staff Mary Mataczynski, Lena Kraft, Tom Udvare, Sharon Udvare, Christie Habel, Debbie Carlisi, Lisa Cracchiolo, Gregory Redman and Gary Zilli for your ongoing support and dedication to our students. Your enthusiasm is contagious and reflects in our students. Their spiritual learning is very gratifying and uplifting. As I walk through the learning center each week and see the lessons being delivered, the engagement of our students is very heartwarming.

Our OCIA program leaders Wayne Cupolo and Richard Rosati for your knowledge, guidance and support you deliver to the program and your candidates.

I would also like to thank Father Bogdan for coming and greeting the students as they arrive. You can see their eyes light up when he greets and speaks to each of them as they arrive.

All the work and effort that our Custodial Staff, Ken and Bill, have done and continue to do to make the Learning Center and entire campus a clean and safe environment to learn in.

I would personally like to thank Linda Reiterman, Parish Office Manager/Secretary for all her help and support.

Last but certainly not least I would like to thank the parents for letting the Religious Education staff teach and enrich their children's Spiritual Growth.

I am truly grateful!

Happy Thanksgiving to you and your families.

God Bless
Lynn McKnight, DRE St. Faustina Church

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

First Reading: Prv 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31

When one finds a worthy wife, her value is far beyond pearls.
Her husband, entrusting his heart to her,
has an unfailing prize.
She brings him good, and not evil,
all the days of her life.
She obtains wool and flax and works with loving hands.
She puts her hands to the distaff, and her fingers ply the spindle.
She reaches out her hands to the poor, and extends her arms to the needy.
Charm is deceptive and beauty fleeting;
the woman who fears the LORD is to be praised.
Give her a reward for her labors, and let her works praise her at the city gates.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 128:1-2, 3, 4-5

R. (cf. 1a) Blessed are those who fear the Lord.

Blessed are you who fear the LORD, who walk in his ways!
For you shall eat the fruit of your handiwork;
blessed shall you be, and favored.

R. Blessed are those who fear the Lord.

Your wife shall be like a fruitful vine in the recesses of your home;
Your children like olive plants around your table.

R. Blessed are those who fear the Lord.

Behold, thus is the man blessed who fears the LORD.
The LORD bless you from Zion:
may you see the prosperity of Jerusalem
all the days of your life.

R. Blessed are those who fear the Lord.

Second Reading:

1 Thes 5:1-6

Concerning times and seasons, brothers and sisters, you have no need for anything to be written to you.
For you yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief at night.
When people are saying, "Peace and security, "
then sudden disaster comes upon them, like labor pains upon a pregnant woman,
and they will not escape.

But you, brothers and sisters, are not in darkness, for that day to overtake you like a thief.
For all of you are children of the light and children of the day.
We are not of the night or of darkness.
Therefore, let us not sleep as the rest do, but let us stay alert and sober.

Alleluia

Jn 15:4a, 5b

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Remain in me as I remain in you, says the Lord.
Whoever remains in me bears much fruit.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel

Mt 25:14-30

Jesus told his disciples this parable:
"A man going on a journey called in his servants and entrusted his possessions to them.
To one he gave five talents; to another, two; to a third, one-to each according to his ability.
Then he went away.

Gospel (Cont'd)

Immediately the one who received five talents went and traded with them, and made another five. Likewise, the one who received two made another two. But the man who received one went off and dug a hole in the ground and buried his master's money.

"After a long time the master of those servants came back and settled accounts with them. The one who had received five talents came forward bringing the additional five. He said, 'Master, you gave me five talents. See, I have made five more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy.' Then the one who had received two talents also came forward and said, 'Master, you gave me two talents. See, I have made two more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy.' Then the one who had received the one talent came forward and said, 'Master, I knew you were a demanding person, harvesting where you did not plant and gathering where you did not scatter; so out of fear I went off and buried your talent in the ground. Here it is back.' His master said to him in reply, 'You wicked, lazy servant! So you knew that I harvest where I did not plant and gather where I did not scatter? Should you not then have put my money in the bank so that I could have got it back with interest on my return? Now then! Take the talent from him and give it to the one with ten. For to everyone who has, more will be given and he will grow rich; but from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away. And throw this useless servant into the darkness outside, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth'"

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

We want to encourage everyone to participate in the Giving Tree again this year. It is one way of remembering and living out what Jesus came to show us – that we are brothers and sisters and are called to love one another.

Each sticky note will have the name of a gift that is needed. Many of the requests continue to be gift cards. Allowing individuals to shop for their family's needs. This year we are supporting the following organizations:

Families of St. Faustina Church
Nativity of Our Lord Church – Detroit
St. Dominic Outreach Center – Detroit

St. Pio Baby Closet – Macomb County
St. Raymond – Detroit
St. Faustina St. Vincent de Paul

To participate simply follow these directions:

Select a sticky note from one of the boards.

Purchase the item.

DO NOT wrap or place gifts in any type of bag. Place the purchased item along the wall under the boards.

All gift cards should be put in an envelope, attach the sticky note and put in the designated box.

Bring the gift back to the church by Sunday, December 3, 2023.

Pickup and/or delivery will be the following day. The reason why we deliver these gifts so early is because the organizations need enough time to unpack, organize and to distribute them before Christmas.

Thank you,
Christian Service Commission

Events within our Family

Taizé is a form a Christian prayer originating from the ecumenical Christian community of Taizé in France. One is invited to rest in God through the singing of psalm verses and other simple chants, alternating with periods of silent reflection. It is a time to "come away and rest for awhile" through experience of the simplicity and depth of the Word of God.

Report Abuse

The Archdiocese of Detroit encourages individuals to report clergy sexual abuse of minors and others - no matter when the abuse occurred. Individuals may contact local law enforcement authorities and/or they may report to the Archdiocese of Detroit by calling the Victim Assistance Coordinator at (866) 343-8055 or by emailing vac@aod.org. In addition, the Michigan Attorney General's Office can be contacted at its toll-free reporting hotline at (844) 324-3374 or by email at aginvestigations@michigan.gov.

More information about the Archdiocese's efforts to address abuse may be found at protect.aod.org.

Registration

Parishioners may register in person, by phone, or online.

Baptism

At least one parent needs to be registered, active and a practicing Catholic for at least six months. A Baptismal Preparation Class is required for both parents and godparents. The church requires that at least one of the godparents be an active and practicing Catholic. For more information call the Parish Office.

Marriages

Arrange at least six months in advance.

Communion Calls

Pastoral Staff members visit the sick in the hospital when possible and take Communion to the sick and homebound regularly. Names of the sick should be reported to the Parish Office.

If you or someone you know is interested in becoming Catholic, please contact the Parish Office or send an email to stfaustina@comcast.net

St. Faustina is extending a personal invitation to you so that we can help with your spiritual needs.

If you have been baptized and have made your First Holy Communion, please contact Fr. Bogdan to inquire about Confirmation.
