MARCH 23, 2025 THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

We continue the work of Jesus Christ, to Unleash the Gospel and help everyone seek and experience the love and mercy of God.

Father Bogdan's Corner

We are already in the middle of Lent and Lenten practices: prayers, fasting and almsgiving are not very hard on us. Some parishioners increased their Sunday offertory as a sign of almsgiving. Thank you to those who did it to support our parish. I am disappointed that only 133 parishioners have contributed to CSA. Our goal for 2024 was $42,386.00. Our shortfall is $12,135.00 which will have to come out of our savings. I hope we can do better in 2025. During this time new people have signed up with our parish and on behalf of all of us I welcome them to our family that is loved by many people and even by the geese who like our properties and make nests to give life to the next generation of these beautiful creatures. Last year an irresponsible driver, who was taking a shortcut thru our property, killed one of the geese. I do not understand why people are not driving on the street, only cutting through our parking lots. Besides almsgiving, we are encouraged to do penance or repentance. The Sacrament of Reconciliation is part of penance. I am available every Saturday of the month for the Sacrament of Reconciliation at 3 p.m. Use this opportunity and be reconciled with God, yourself and people. Easter Confession in our parish will be offered to the people on Divine Mercy Sunday April 27th at 1:00 p.m. On this Sunday, we host many pilgrims from the entire AoD. There will be 10 priests available for Confession and you can seek Reconciliation there.

The season of Lent will end with Palm Sunday, April 13th and on that Sunday we will serve for all parishioners and pilgrims a breakfast. The cost of the ticket is $10, much cheaper than at any restaurant. Remember we are not competing with any restaurant in our area and I like to see our parishioners eating at those restaurants, but once a year I would like to treat parishioners with a great breakfast and loving fellowship.

May God Bless You,

Fr. Bogdan

Our Lord's words to St. Faustina...

"I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My Mercy. (Diary 699)

The Soul that will go to confession and receive Holy Communion will obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment.
(Diary 699)

First Reading: Exodus 3:1-8a, 13-15

Moses was tending the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian.
Leading the flock across the desert, he came to Horeb,
the mountain of God.
There an angel of the LORD appeared to Moses in fire flaming out of a bush.
As he looked on, he was surprised to see that the bush,
though on fire, was not consumed.
So Moses decided,
“I must go over to look at this remarkable sight,
and see why the bush is not burned.”

When the LORD saw him coming over to look at it more closely, God called out to him from the bush, “Moses! Moses!”
He answered, “Here I am.”
God said, “Come no nearer!
Remove the sandals from your feet,
for the place where you stand is holy ground.
I am the God of your fathers,” he continued,
“the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, the God of Jacob.”
Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God.
But the LORD said,
“I have witnessed the affliction of my people in Egypt and have heard their cry of complaint against their slave drivers, so I know well what they are suffering.
Therefore I have come down to rescue them from the hands of the Egyptians and lead them out of that land into a good and spacious land, a land flowing with milk and honey.”

Moses said to God, “But when I go to the Israelites and say to them, ‘The God of your fathers has sent me to you,’ if they ask me, ‘What is his name?’ what am I to tell them?”
God replied, “I am who am.”
Then he added, “This is what you shall tell the Israelites:

First Reading (Cont’d)

I AM sent me to you.”

God spoke further to Moses, “Thus shall you say to the Israelites:
The LORD, the God of your fathers,
the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, the God of Jacob,
has sent me to you.

“This is my name forever;
thus am I to be remembered through all generations.”

Responsorial Psalm 103: 1-2, 3-4, 6-7, 8, 11.

R. (8a) The Lord is kind and merciful.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 10:1-6, 10-12

I do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, that our ancestors were all under the cloud and all passed through the sea, and all of them were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea.
All ate the same spiritual food,
and all drank the same spiritual drink,
for they drank from a spiritual rock that followed them,
and the rock was the Christ.
Yet God was not pleased with most of them,
for they were struck down in the desert.

These things happened as examples for us, so that we might not desire evil things, as they did.
Do not grumble as some of them did,
and suffered death by the destroyer.
These things happened to them as an example,
and they have been written down as a warning to us,
upon whom the end of the ages has come.
Therefore, whoever thinks he is standing secure should take care not to fall.

Gospel

Luke 13:1-9

Some people told Jesus about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with the blood of their sacrifices.

Jesus said to them in reply,

“Do you think that because these Galileans suffered in this way they were greater sinners than all other Galileans?

By no means!

But I tell you, if you do not repent, you will all perish as they did!

Or those eighteen people who were killed when the tower at Siloam fell on them—

do you think they were more guilty than everyone else who lived in Jerusalem?

By no means!

But I tell you, if you do not repent, you will all perish as they did!”

And he told them this parable:

“There once was a person who had a fig tree planted in his orchard, and when he came in search of fruit on it but found none,

he said to the gardener,

‘For three years now I have come in search of fruit on this fig tree but have found none.

So cut it down.

Why should it exhaust the soil?’

He said to him in reply,

‘Sir, leave it for this year also,

and I shall cultivate the ground around it and fertilize it;

it may bear fruit in the future.

If not you can cut it down.”

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,

the Father almighty,

maker of heaven and earth,

of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,

the Only Begotten Son of God,

born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light,

true God from true God,

begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;

through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation

he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,

he suffered death and was buried,

and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,

who proceeds from the Father and the Son,

who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

Communion Antiphon

The sparrow finds a home, and the swallow a nest for her young: by your altars,

O Lord of hosts, my King and my God

Blessed are they who dwell in your house,

For ever singing your praise.

Do you or someone you know want to convert to Catholicism?

The National level of those seeking the Lord and convert has gone up 38%. We would like to guide you on your journey. Come learn the faith

Our instructors for OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults) are extremely knowledgeable and their passion to pass on the faith is very inspiring. I have spoken to many of our Catechumens that completed the OCIA sessions and you can plainly see and hear the impact our instructors have had on them. We have those that have gone through the course and have returned to learning so they can go forth as a teacher and disciple for others.

Our OCIA instructors Wayne Cupolo, Richard Rosati and Carl are very important to our program. The ongoing dedication and devotion these gentlemen give our OCIA program is truly the meaning of discipleship. They are truly a model of Matthew 28:19

“GO THEREFORE AND MAKE DISCIPLES OF ALL NATIONS, BAPTIZING THEM IN THE NAME OF THE FATHER AND OF THE SON AND OF THE HOLY SPIRIT, AND TEACHING THEM TO OBEY EVERYTHING THAT I HAVE COMMANDED YOU. AND REMEMBER, I AM WITH YOU ALWAYS, TO THE END OF THE AGE.”

The Catholic Church is a church of converts, that is those who are new to the Catholic Church and those who embrace continual conversion as they deepen their love of Jesus Christ. Ever since Peter preached the first homily on Pentecost Sunday, through the Church, Jesus has been attracting persons to Catholicism from every race, language, nation, and culture. What started in Jerusalem over 2000 years ago, continues with us today, fulfilling Christ's Great Commission to go and make disciples of all nations (Mt 28:19).

Come and let their knowledge, excitement to teach and experiences touch your soul and enrich your Spiritual growth.

Gods Blessings
