AUGUST 31, 2025 TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIMES

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

We continue the work of Jesus Christ, to Unleash the Gospel and help everyone seek and experience the love and mercy of God.

Father Bogdan's Corner

After my vacation, I am back to my articles in the bulletin to share my thoughts and inform you what is going on in the parish, Family of Parishes and the Church.

On this weekend, including Monday, we observe Labor Day weekend. Through this weekend we honor the contributions and achievements of our workers to the nation's economy and social progress. The parish community is a part of the society and we are able to have church and religious communities because of all workers. On this occasion, I am very thankful to all who support the parish. I wish to all of you a happy and safe Labor Day Weekend.

I noticed that the list of CSA contributors is growing. Thank you for having a broader vision of thinking and supporting not only the local church of St. Faustina but also the Archdiocese where we belong and now have a new Archbishop Edward Weisenburger for whom we pray at every Mass. I hope that during these few months you came to know him better.

I was surprised with your generosity for Goza last weekend. That is a horrible war where many people are losing their life. Besides our prayers, we offered financial support to the people of Gaza. Jesus would do the same.

I am very thankful for our volunteers, for those who are donating to the rummage sale and I encourage all of you to participate in our Rummage Sale on September 18 & 19.

May God Bless You,

Fr. Bogdan

Brown Scapular Devotion after First Saturday Mass on September 6th

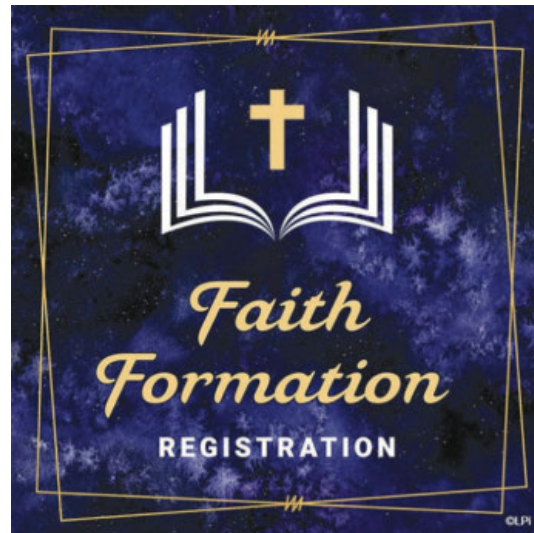

The word scapular comes from the Latin word scapula, meaning shoulder. There are many scapular devotions, of these, the Scapular of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, also known as the Brown Scapular, is the best known and most widespread. According to tradition, the Blessed Virgin Mary is said to have appeared to the Carmelite Hermit St Simon Stock on July 16, 1251, in answer to his appeal for help for his oppressed order.

The Blessed Virgin of Mount Carmel has promised to save those who wear the scapular from the fires of hell; She will also shorten their stay in purgatory if they should pass from this world still owing some debt of punishment.

The Blessed Virgin assigned certain conditions which must be fulfilled:

1. Wear the Brown Scapular continuously.
2. Observe chastity according to one's state in life (married/single).
3. Recite daily the Little Office of the Blessed Virgin, OR Observe the fasts of the Church together with abstaining from meat on Wednesdays and Saturdays, OR Recite the Rosary daily, OR With permission of a priest, substitute some other good work.

To receive the scapular promise you must be enrolled. For those not enrolled in the devotion, St Faustina is having Brown Scapular enrollment after First Saturday Mass on September 6th. Scapulars will be available.

Calling all that want to grow in Christ. We at St. Faustina are a dedicated community that want to strengthen the Spiritual knowledge of our Catholic Faith.

Our Faith Formation group 1-8th grade meets on Monday evenings from 6:00-7:15 PM. We will begin classes on Monday, September 22, 2025. Confirmation 9th grade meet on Sunday mornings at 9:30 a.m. Our calendar is based on the school district calendar, and we try to base our class schedule to accommodate all. Therefore, all dates are subject to change.

We have a clean, safe, inviting atmosphere. We work around as many school functions as possible such as sports, band, plays etc.

Haven't been to Catechism in a few years due to COVID or other reasons need not worry. We base all educational needs according to the student's Spiritual growth.

We know that family life is busy so trust in us to strengthen and enrich your child's Spiritual Growth. Jesus teaches us to spread the word, faith, and love that His Father taught us.

You can enroll now for the Fall or wait until September. I like to meet when registering so I can get to know our families. Knowing you have a very busy life we can schedule a time that is good for you to come in and register, therefore you can call for an appointment 586-773-9220 ext. 111 or email stfaustinadre@comcast.net.

We look forward to meeting you and Growing in Faith with and through our children. May God Bless you and your family.

Lynn McKnight Director of Religious Education, St. Faustina

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Responsorial Psalm Psalm 68:4-5, 6-7, 10-11

R. (cf. 11b) God, in your goodness, you have made a home for the poor.

The just rejoice and exult before God;
they are glad and rejoice.
Sing to God, chant praise to his name;
whose name is the LORD.

R. God, in your goodness, you have made a home for the poor.

The father of orphans and the defender of widows is God in his holy dwelling.
God gives a home to the forsaken;
he leads forth prisoners to prosperity.

R. God, in your goodness, you have made a home for the poor.

A bountiful rain you showered down, O God, upon your inheritance;
you restored the land when it languished;
your flock settled in it;
in your goodness, O God, you provided it for the needy.

R. God, in your goodness, you have made a home for the poor.

First Reading: Sirach 3:17-18, 20, 28-29

My child, conduct your affairs with humility, and you will be loved more than a giver of gifts.
Humble yourself the more, the greater you are,
and you will find favor with God.
What is too sublime for you, seek not,
into things beyond your strength search not.
The mind of a sage appreciates proverbs,
and an attentive ear is the joy of the wise.
Water quenches a flaming fire,
and alms atone for sins.

Second Reading: Hebrews 12:18-19, 22-24a

Brothers and sisters:

You have not approached that which could be touched and a blazing fire and gloomy darkness and storm and a trumpet blast and a voice speaking words such that those who heard begged that no message be further addressed to them.
No, you have approached Mount Zion
and the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem,
and countless angels in festal gathering,
and the assembly of the firstborn enrolled in heaven,
and God the judge of all,
and the spirits of the just made perfect,
and Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and the sprinkled blood that speaks more eloquently than that of Abel.

AlleluiaMatthew 11:29ab

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Take my yoke upon you, says the Lord, and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

GospelLuke 14:1, 7-14

On a sabbath Jesus went to dine at the home of one of the leading Pharisees,
and the people there were observing him carefully.

He told a parable to those who had been invited, noticing how they were choosing the places of honor at the table.

"When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet,

do not recline at table in the place of honor.

A more distinguished guest than you may have been invited by him,

and the host who invited both of you may approach
you and say,

'Give your place to this man,'

and then you would proceed with embarrassment
to take the lowest place.

Rather, when you are invited,

go and take the lowest place

so that when the host comes to you he may say,

'My friend, move up to a higher position.'

Then you will enjoy the esteem of your companions at
the table.

For every one who exalts himself will be humbled,
but the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

Then he said to the host who invited him,

"When you hold a lunch or a dinner,

do not invite your friends or your brothers

or your relatives or your wealthy neighbors,

in case they may invite you back and you have repayment.

Rather, when you hold a banquet,

invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind;

blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you.

For you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,

the Father almighty,

maker of heaven and earth,

of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,

the Only Begotten Son of God,

born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light,

true God from true God,

begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;

through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation

he came down from heaven,

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,

he suffered death and was buried,

and rose again on the third day

in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory

to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,

who proceeds from the Father and the Son,

who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic

Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins

and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

Communion Antiphon

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called children of God. Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
