SEPTEMBER 28 2025 TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIMES

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

We continue the work of Jesus Christ, to Unleash the Gospel and help everyone seek and experience the love and mercy of God.

Father Bogdan's Corner

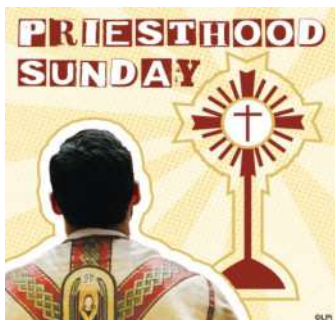

It is the last weekend of September and on Saturday it was the memorial of St. Vincent de Paul. He is the patron of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul Society that is preventing homelessness, fighting hunger and changing lives of many people. Thank you to all volunteers and donors to their society.

Since this is the last Sunday of September we will observe First Friday and First Saturday of October this week. Traditionally the month of October is dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary and we say the rosary. There are four mysteries of the Rosary: Glorious, Joyful, Luminous and Sorrowful. I am very glad that our prayer group is saying the Rosary before each Mass, and having a special devotion on Thursdays.

October 4th is the Memorial of St. Francis of Assisi and at 1 p.m. we will have the blessing of animals who today are considered "good companions" for many people.

Next Sunday, October 5th is the Feast Day dedicated to St. Faustina, the patroness of our parish that was established on July 1, 2013. The First Class Relic of St. Faustina will be exposed to all parishioners for public veneration. I am encouraging our parishioners and guests to participate at the Masses and service at our church. Please find interested Quotes of St. Faustina:

- ♦ "Proclaim that mercy is the greatest attribute of God. All the works of My hands are crowned with mercy."
- ♦ "I realize more and more how much every soul needs God's mercy throughout life and particularly at the hour of death. The chaplet (of Divine Mercy) mitigates God's anger, as He Himself told me."
- ♦ "Suffering is the greatest treasure on earth; it purifies the soul. In suffering, we learn who our true friend is."
- ♦ "The past does not belong to me; the future is not mine; with all my soul I try to make use of the present moment."

*May God Bless You,
Fr. Bogdan*

I would like to thank our wonderful and dedicated teaching staff, Mary Mataczynski, Barbara Houbeck, Tom & Sharon Udvare, Debbie Carlisi, Lisa Cracchiolo, Gregory Redman, Gary Zilli, and we welcome Theresa (Tess) Ploshehanski who is joining our teaching staff this year. Without all of you we couldn't nurture the spiritual growth of our students and the future of our Church.

Our teachers were blessed at the Catechetical Sunday Mass on Sunday, September 21, 2025, at the 11:00 a.m. Mass. Catechetical Sunday is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the role that each person plays, by virtue of Baptism in nurturing our youth spiritually and being a witness to the Gospel. We thank them and pray for their dedicated commission to our youth.

It is always wonderful to see our students in Church, thank you parents for bringing them to church. We will be rewarding students for the most attended Mass's again this year.

We are looking forward to another year of Spiritual growth with our students.

God Bless

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Responsorial Psalm Psalm 146:7, 8-9, 9-10

R. (1b) Praise the Lord, my soul!

Blessed is he who keeps faith forever,
secures justice for the oppressed,
gives food to the hungry.
The LORD sets captives free.

R. Praise the Lord, my soul!

The LORD gives sight to the blind;
the LORD raises up those who were bowed down.
The LORD loves the just;
the LORD protects strangers.

R. Praise the Lord, my soul!

The fatherless and the widow he sustains,
but the way of the wicked he thwarts.
The LORD shall reign forever;
your God, O Zion, through all generations. Alleluia.

R. Praise the Lord, my soul!

Second Reading: 1 Timothy 6:11-16

But you, man of God, pursue righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness.
Compete well for the faith.
Lay hold of eternal life, to which you were called when you made the noble confession in the presence of many witnesses.
I charge you before God, who gives life to all things,
and before Christ Jesus,
who gave testimony under Pontius Pilate for the noble confession,
to keep the commandment without stain or reproach
until the appearance of our Lord Jesus Christ
that the blessed and only ruler
will make manifest at the proper time,
the King of kings and Lord of lords,
who alone has immortality, who dwells in unapproachable
light,
and whom no human being has seen or can see.
To him be honor and eternal power. Amen.

Alleluia Cf. 2 Corinthians 8:9

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Though our Lord Jesus Christ was rich, he became poor,
so that by his poverty you might become rich.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

First Reading: Amos 6:1a, 4-7

Thus says the LORD the God of hosts:
Woe to the complacent in Zion!
Lying upon beds of ivory,
stretched comfortably on their couches,
they eat lambs taken from the flock,
and calves from the stall!
Improvising to the music of the harp,
like David, they devise their own accompaniment.
They drink wine from bowls
and anoint themselves with the best oils;
yet they are not made ill by the collapse of Joseph!
Therefore, now they shall be the first to go into exile,
and their wanton revelry shall be done away with.

GospelLuke 16:19-31

Jesus said to the Pharisees:

"There was a rich man who dressed in purple garments and fine linen and dined sumptuously each day.

And lying at his door was a poor man named Lazarus, covered with sores, who would gladly have eaten his fill of the scraps that fell from the rich man's table.

Dogs even used to come and lick his sores.

When the poor man died,

he was carried away by angels to the bosom of Abraham.

The rich man also died and was buried,

and from the netherworld, where he was in torment,

he raised his eyes and saw Abraham far off

and Lazarus at his side.

And he cried out, 'Father Abraham, have pity on me.

Send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue,

for I am suffering torment in these flames.'

Abraham replied,

'My child, remember that you received

what was good during your lifetime

while Lazarus likewise received what was bad;

but now he is comforted here, whereas you are tormented.

Moreover, between us and you a great chasm is established to prevent anyone from crossing who might wish to go from our side to yours or from your side to ours.'

He said, 'Then I beg you, father, send him to my father's house, for I have five brothers,

so that he may warn them,

lest they too come to this place of torment.'

But Abraham replied, 'They have Moses and the prophets.

Let them listen to them.'

He said, 'Oh no, father Abraham,

but if someone from the dead goes to them, they will repent.'

Then Abraham said, 'If they will not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if someone should rise from the dead.'"

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,

the Father almighty,

maker of heaven and earth,

of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,

the Only Begotten Son of God,

born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light,

true God from true God,

begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;

through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation

he came down from heaven,

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,

he suffered death and was buried,

and rose again on the third day

in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory

to judge the living and the dead

and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,

who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

Communion Antiphon

By this we came to know the love of God: that Christ laid down his life for us; so we ought to lay down our lives for one another.

It's that time of the year again! Halloween is just around the corner, and Sacred Heart Major Seminary needs your help. Each year the seminary community opens their doors and their hearts to over 2000 children from the surrounding Detroit neighborhood so that the kids can have a fun and safe place to play games and trick-or-treat. But they need your help to make this year a success! They are asking for donations of Halloween candy that will then be passed out to the many kids. If you are willing to participate in this important ministry by donating bags of candy please bring them to the vestibule in the Church or the parish office by October 26th.
Thank you!
