5th Sunday of Lent: Lent continues with the ongoing challenge to make time for daily prayer, choosing to share our life with Jesus. We give thanks for His blessings, and we depend on Him whenever we endure difficulties. When our life is centered on Jesus, we become sensitive to the needs of others. Jesus felt the pain of Lazarus' death. He wept. He prayed and then raised His friend from the dead - a beautiful sign of hope that we who live for Jesus are promised eternal life.

Prenons du temps pour la prière quotidienne afin de partager notre vie avec Jésus. Rendons grâces pour ses bénédictions et dépendons de Lui chaque fois que nous rencontrons des difficultés. Une vie centrée sur Jésus nous rends sensibles aux besoins des autres. Jésus a pleuré la mort de Lazare, Il a prié et l'a ressuscité - un beau signe que nous qui vivons pour Jésus sommes promis à la vie éternelle.

Feast of St Joseph Dinner: Thank you to all who came out to help celebrate the St Joseph Feast Day dinner this past weekend. Our gratitude and appreciation to the organizing committee and the parish volunteers who made this a fun, successful evening of good food, wine, dancing and laughter. A special thank you to Johnny Brunetto for his musical talent, Pronto Catering for the wonderful meal and to the following businesses and parish groups who generously donated raffle prizes: Dr. Domenic Aversa, Advanced Security, Crunch Fitness, Just Cork It (Amherstburg), Pet Valu, River Canard Art & Woodworking, Knight's of Columbus Council #5642, Chummettes, Food Prep, Ushers, Dave & Alice Beneteau and Tony, Rose, Diana Scipione & Amanda Adair and families.

It's a great way for our youth to strengthen their faith and build a deeper relationship with Jesus.

Felipe will be hosting an information night at St. Paul on March 30th at 7pm to answer any questions that you might have. There are a limited number of spots available so, if you are interested in going, please sign up early. A deposit of $70 is required to secure your spot.

Readings for Next Week (April 2nd): Palm Sunday

1st Reading - Isaiah 50.4-7

The servant of the Lord said: "The Lord God has given me the tongue of a teacher, that I may know how to sustain the weary with a word. Morning by morning he awakens — awakens my ear to listen as those who are taught. "The Lord God has opened my ear, and I was not rebellious, I did not turn backward. "I gave my back to those who struck me, and my cheeks to those who pulled out the beard; I did not hide my face from insult and spitting. "The Lord God helps me; therefore I have not been disgraced; therefore I have set my face like flint, and I know that I shall not be put to shame."

2nd Reading - Philippians 2.6-11

Christ Jesus, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness. And being found in human form, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death — even death on a cross. Therefore God highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Gospel - Matthew 27.11-15

Now Jesus stood before the governor; and the governor asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" Jesus said, "You say so." But when he was accused by the chief priests and elders, he did not answer.

Then Pilate said to him, "Do you not hear how many accusations they make against you?" But he gave him no answer, not even to a single charge, so that the governor was greatly amazed.

Now at the festival the governor was accustomed to release a prisoner for the crowd, anyone they wanted. At that time they had a notorious prisoner, called Barabbas. So after they had gathered, Pilate said to them, "Whom do you want me to release for you, Barabbas or Jesus who is called the Christ?" For he realized that it was out of jealousy that they had handed him over.

While he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent word to him, "Have nothing to do with that innocent man, for today I have suffered a great deal because of a dream about him."

Now the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowds to ask for Barabbas and to have Jesus killed.

The governor again said to them, "Which of the two do you want me to release for you?" And they said, "Barabbas."

Pilate said to them, "Then what should I do with Jesus who is called the Christ?" All of them said, "Let him be crucified!"

Then he asked, "Why, what evil has he done?" But they shouted all the more, "Let him be crucified!"

So when Pilate saw that he could do nothing, but rather that a riot was beginning, he took some water and washed his hands before the crowd, saying, "I am innocent of this man's blood; see to it yourselves." Then the people as a whole answered, "His blood be on us and on our children!" So he released Barabbas for them; and after flogging Jesus, he handed him over to be crucified.

Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the governor's headquarters, and they gathered the whole cohort around him. They stripped him and put a scarlet robe on him, and after twisting some thorns into a crown, they put it on his head. They put a reed in his right hand and knelt before him and mocked him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" They spat on him, and took the reed and struck him on the head. After mocking him, they stripped him of the robe and put his own clothes on him. Then they led him away to crucify him.

As they went out, they came upon a man from Cyrene named Simon; they compelled this man to carry his Cross. And when they came to a place called Golgotha (which means Place of a Skull), they offered him wine to drink, mixed with gall; but when he tasted it, he would not drink it. And when they had crucified him, they divided his clothes among themselves by casting lots; then they sat down there and kept watch over him. Over his head they put the charge against him, which read, "This is Jesus, the King of the Jews." Then two bandits were crucified with him, one on his right and one on his left.

Those who passed by derided him, shaking their heads and saying, "You who would destroy the temple and build it in three days, save yourself! If you are the Son of God, come down from the Cross." In the same way the chief priests also, along with the scribes and elders were mocking him, saying, "He saved others; he cannot save himself. He is the King of Israel; let him come down from the Cross now, and we will believe in him. He trusts in God; let God deliver him now, if he wants to; for he said, 'I am God's Son.'" The bandits who were crucified with him also taunted him in the same way.

From noon on, darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon. And about three o'clock Jesus cried with a loud voice, "Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani?" that is, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" When some of the bystanders heard it, they said, "This man is calling for Elijah." At once one of them ran and got a sponge, filled it with sour wine, put it on a stick, and gave it to him to drink. But the others said, "Wait, let us see whether Elijah will come to save him." Then Jesus cried again with a loud voice and breathed his last.

At that moment the curtain of the temple was torn in two, from top to bottom. The earth shook, and the rocks were split. The tombs also were opened, and many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised. After his resurrection they came out of the tombs and entered the holy city and appeared to many.

Now when the centurion and those with him, who were keeping watch over Jesus, saw the earthquake and what took place, they were terrified and said, "Truly this man was God's Son!"
