Jesus lives within us. We can change the world!
Jésus vit en nous. Nous pouvons changer le monde!

Palm Sunday, the final Sunday of Lent, and the beginning of Holy Week, commemorates the triumphant arrival of Christ in Jerusalem days before he was crucified. In the Gospels, Jesus entered Jerusalem riding a young donkey and to the praise of the townspeople who threw their cloaks and palms in front of him as a sign of homage. Palm branches are widely recognized symbol of peace and victory, hence their preferred use on Palm Sunday.

Thank you to all who attended the final Mass at St. Paul last weekend, especially to those who served in ministry. Your presence, your prayers, and your faithful service filled the church with a spirit of gratitude and thanksgiving. May we carry forward the memories, friendships, and blessings that have been nurtured within the walls of St. Paul into our Family of Parishes. *Reminder that all St. Paul Masses will be celebrated at Sacred Heart until the end of June.

Holy Week

Holy Thursday

Jesus shares the Last Supper with His disciples, washes their feet as a lesson of humility and establishes Communion. Later that evening, while praying in the Garden of Gethsemane, he is arrested.

6:30pm Mass (Bilingual) at St. Joseph
Adoration at 8pm and Benediction at 10pm

Good Friday

Jesus is tried, mocked and crucified by Roman authorities. He dies on the Cross as a sacrifice for our sins and is buried in a tomb.

3pm Service at Sacred Heart - English
3pm Service at St. Joseph - English

Easter Vigil

Jesus' body lays in rest in the tomb while His followers mourn and wait. It is a day of silence and anticipation of His resurrection.

8pm Mass at Sacred Heart
Reception to follow in the Community Center

Easter Sunday

This is the most important day in our faith. Fulfilling His promise of Salvation, Jesus rises from the dead. HE IS RISEN!

Easter Sunday - April 5th, 2026

Reading - Acts 10.34a, 37 - 43 - Peter began to speak to them: "I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every people anyone who fears him and practices righteousness is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ—he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree, but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name."

2nd Reading – Colossians 3.1 - 4 - Brothers and Sisters: If you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on the things that are above, not on the things that are on earth, for you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life is revealed, then you also will be revealed with him in glory.

Gospel - John 20. 1—18 - Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him." Then Peter and the other disciple set out and went toward the tomb. The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. He bent down to look in and saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he did not go in. Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen wrappings lying there, and the cloth that had been on Jesus's head, not lying with the linen wrappings but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed, for as yet they did not understand the scripture, that he must rise from the dead. Then the disciples returned to their homes. But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb. As she wept, she bent over to look^[a] into the tomb, and she saw two angels in white sitting where the body of Jesus had been lying, one at the head and the other at the feet. They said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She said to them, "They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him." When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you looking for?" Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away." Jesus said to her, "Mary!" She turned and said to him in Hebrew, "Rabbouni!" (which means Teacher). Jesus said to her, "Do not touch me, because I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers and say to them, 'I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.'" Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, "I have seen the Lord," and she told them that he had said these things to her.
