Year of St. Joseph

My dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

Greetings of peace as we enter the summer season.

I really enjoy the summer months and always had a great time when I was out of school and doing “summer stuff.” It seems so strange that those memories have endured over the years, nevertheless, so much remains clear and vivid in my mind.

I begin by saying “thank you” to all of you who, as parents of our school-aged children spent some serious time these past months truly working with your children and helping them in academic and developmental areas. Your precious time was certainly not lost as they learned from you and experienced with you the joy and perfect responsibility of parenting—being the first educators of your children in all of the important areas of life.

Now, I am taking the opportunity to let you know that our wonderful Catholic Schools are preparing to partner up with you once again as I announce the news that our Catholic schools will be opening for our Fall schedule according to our regular schedule and policies, in conjunction with State and local policies as they affect us. The COVID pandemic has hit us all very hard and has almost recreated society and social constructs in some serious new ways. We, Catholic school educators, are taking all of this “new information” very seriously and are planning for its impact on our schools and the lives of our children. We are all looking to the new academic year as one of challenging growth and direction. Thus, it will require the best from all of us.

As you should well know by now, I am an avid supporter of Catholic education and see its greatest articulation for the future in Catholic schools. The fullness of teaching a personal relationship with Jesus Christ is our first and most successful lesson in the Catholic school. You may send your sons or daughters to so many different schools—good schools—in the area encompassed by our Diocese. None of them, however, will create and sustain an environment where your children will first learn the life of grace that is the truth of Jesus’ gift to them as it is offered in our Catholic schools. That, my dear parents, is the first tenet of Catholic school policy. As we look forward to challenging the hearts and souls of your children—to claim them for Christ; we look forward to the exciting varieties of appropriate vistas of thought, verbal and physical expression, expansive brain games and emotional achievement, the very best in Catholic learning, the fullness of faith and reason.

Finally, dear brothers and sisters—mothers and fathers—this future will be offered to your children by our administrators, teachers, and professional staffs, all of whom share enthusiasm for the education of your children. You may rest assured that your children will return to our schools—the large and the small—with our promise to offer them what you want for them, an extension of your willingness to prepare them for the world ahead of them with a solid education, positive value, and purposeful virtue supported by the advantage of the Catholic Tradition.

Be assured of my support for you as parents and my prayers for you as families—domestic churches—where Jesus dwells and the Truth is taught. God be with you.

Sincerely, in Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, the Holy Family, I am

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,

O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

First Reading Jeremiah 20:10-13

Jeremiah said:

“I hear the whisperings of many:

‘Terror on every side!

Denounce! let us denounce him!’

All those who were my friends are on the watch for any misstep of mine.

‘Perhaps he will be trapped; then we can prevail,
and take our vengeance on him.’

But the LORD is with me, like a mighty champion:
my persecutors will stumble, they will not triumph.

In their failure they will be put to utter shame,
to lasting, unforgettable confusion.
O LORD of hosts, you who test the just,
who probe mind and heart,
let me witness the vengeance you take on them,
for to you I have entrusted my cause.
Sing to the LORD,
praise the LORD,
for he has rescued the life of the poor
from the power of the wicked!”

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm Psalm 69:8-10, 14,17,33-35

R. Lord, in your great love, answer me.

For your sake I bear insult,
and shame covers my face.

I have become an outcast to my brothers,
a stranger to my mother’s children,
Because zeal for your house consumes me,
and the insults of those who blaspheme you fall upon me.

R. Lord, in your great love, answer me.

I pray to you, O LORD,
for the time of your favor, O God!
In your great kindness answer me
with your constant help.

Answer me, O LORD, for bounteous is your kindness;
in your great mercy turn toward me.

R. Lord, in your great love, answer me.

“See, you lowly ones, and be glad;
you who seek God, may your hearts revive!
For the LORD hears the poor,
and his own who are in bonds he spurns not.
Let the heavens and the earth praise him,
the seas and whatever moves in them!”

R. Lord, in your great love, answer me.

Second Reading . Romans 5:12-15

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

Brothers and sisters: Through one man sin entered the world, and through sin, death, and thus death came to all men, inasmuch as all sinned—for up to the time of the law, sin was in the world, though sin is not accounted when there is no law. But death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those who did not sin after the pattern of the trespass of Adam, who is the type of the one who was to come. But the gift is not like the transgression. For if by the transgression of the one the many died, how much more did the grace of God and the gracious gift of the one man Jesus Christ overflow for the many.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Gospel Matthew 10:26-33

Jesus said to the Twelve: “Fear no one. Nothing is concealed that will not be revealed, nor secret that will not be known. What I say to you in the darkness, speak in the light; what you hear whispered, proclaim on the housetops. And do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather, be afraid of the one who can destroy both soul and body in Gehenna. Are not two sparrows sold for a small coin? Yet not one of them falls to the ground without your Father’s knowledge. Even all the hairs of your head are counted. So do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows. Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father. But whoever denies me before others, I will deny before my heavenly Father.”

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,

and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins

A: Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

The Mystery of faith.

C: We proclaim your Death, O Lord,
and profess your Resurrection
until you come again.

Breaking of the Bread

A: Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world,
grant us peace.
