THE DEDICATION OF THE LATERAN BASILICA

His disciples recalled the words of Scripture,
Zeal for your house will consume me. - Jn 2:17

LA DEDICACIÓN A LA BASÍLICA DE LETRÁN

En ese momento, sus discípulos se acordaron de lo que estaba escrito: El celo de tu casa me devora. - Jn 2, 17

St. John the Evangelist Mission Statement

We, the people of Saint John the Evangelist, are a Catholic community. Mindful of our ethnic diversity, and as stewards of God's gifts, we dedicate our lives to God. Following the example of our patron saint, John, in the sharing of God's word and love, we serve others. Using our individual gifts, we are called to grow in love, spirituality and unity. Through God's grace and the effort of all, we accomplish this mission.

Misión Pastoral de San Juan el Evangelista

Nosotros, las personas de San Juan Evangelista, somos una comunidad católica. Orgullosos de nuestra diversidad étnica, y como buenos administradores de los dones que Dios nos ha dado, nosotros dedicamos nuestras vidas a Dios. Siguiendo el ejemplo de San Juan, nuestro patrón, servimos a los demás compartiendo la palabra y el amor de Dios. Estamos llamados a crecer espiritualmente en el amor y en la unidad usando nuestros dones individuales. Cumplimos esta misión a través de la gracia divina y del esfuerzo de todos.

Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica

The Lateran Basilica in Rome, the only church building whose dedication is celebrated as a feast, is an enduring symbol of the universal church. Inscribed on its façade is “omnium urbis et orbis ecclesiarum mater et caput,” meaning, “mother and head of all the churches of the city and of the world.” Originally completed in 324 CE, soon after Emperor Constantine legalized Christianity, the Lateran Basilica is a sign of the triumph of the faithful who survived underground for generations when Christians were persecuted. Although we likely are gathered in a much humbler setting today, we are nonetheless inextricably linked to this historic church—our mother church.

Fiesta de la Dedicación de Basílica de Letrán

La Basílica de Letrán en Roma, el único edificio de una iglesia que se celebra como una fiesta, es un símbolo imperecedero de la Iglesia universal. En su fachada está escrito “omnium urbis et orbis ecclesiarum mater et caput”, lo cual significa “madre y cabeza de todas las iglesias de la ciudad y del mundo”. La Basílica de Letrán original se terminó de construir en el año 324 d. C., poco después de que el emperador Constantino legalizara el cristianismo, y es un signo del triunfo de los creyentes que sobrevivieron el clandestinaje durante generaciones durante las cuales los cristianos eran perseguidos. Aunque probablemente estemos reunidos en un lugar mucho más humilde, no obstante, estamos vinculados inextricablemente a esa histórica iglesia—nuestra iglesia madre.

In today's Gospel, Jesus promises that if the temple is destroyed, He will raise it up again in three days. This is the true hope He offers. When you give the furniture, household items and clothing you no longer use to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, you give a sign of hope to your neighbors who have nothing.

Hoy en el evangelio, Jesús promete reconstruir el templo después de tres días si es destruido. Esta es la verdadera esperanza que Él nos ofrece. Al dar muebles, artículos del hogar, y ropa que ya no usa a la Sociedad de San Vicente de Paul, usted le da una señal de esperanza a sus vecinos que tienen muy poco.
