The online application for TEFA opened on February 4, 2026 and will close on March 17, 2026

If I apply for Hope for the Future, does it affect TEFA?

No. Applying for Hope for the Future (HFF) does not affect your eligibility for TEFA. These are separate programs and HFF is committed to assist qualifying families who are not chosen through the TEFA program. Families are encouraged to stay engaged with both timelines.

Wondering how TEFA selections work?

Here's the simple version: TEFA applications are reviewed by state-established priority groups. If applications exceed available funding within a group, a state-run lottery is used.

Families not selected right away may be placed on a waitlist. If awarded families do not complete enrollment by the required deadline, those funds may be offered to the next eligible family.

Even waitlisted or prorated awards can provide meaningful support — which is why families are encouraged to apply.

Not selected for TEFA right away?

You still have options. Hope for the Future is a long-standing tuition assistance program that continues to support families pursuing a Catholic education. As TEFA is implemented, Hope for the Future is intentionally focused on assisting families who are not selected for TEFA funding.

Applications for Hope for the Future are open and remain an important resource. For these reasons, all eligible families are encouraged to apply.
