TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Many Catholics who are not active in the Church will still seek out ashes this Wednesday. Likewise, many Jews who are not otherwise observant will follow the Day of Atonement, Yom Kippur, with great exactness, fasting and refraining from work and entertainment. People customarily dress in white as a symbol of purity and a reminder of God's promise that our sins will be made white as snow. While the overture to Ash Wednesday for Christians may be a festive Mardi Gras celebration, for Jews it is the New Year feast of Rosh Hashanah. Ten days before the Day of Atonement to God, people are expected to repair breaks in human life. These are days for offering forgiveness and seeking to repair harmed relationships with family, friends, or coworkers. Everyone is expected to seek out someone and "clear the air" by asking for understanding for any mean words or thoughtless deeds in the past year.

Perhaps the ashes you receive will be invested with deeper meaning if you follow a similar plan. This year, Rosh Hashanah will be September 29, and Yom Kippur October 8. A conversation with some Jewish friends or neighbors about their experience of a season of repentance may be a blessing on your Lent. —James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

¿CÓMO PUEDO VIVIR MEJOR LA CUARESMA?

La Cuaresma, es el tiempo de preparación para la celebración de la muerte y resucción de Nuestro Señor Jesucristo, y seguir su ejemplo, y por lo mismo, quiero ofrecerles algunos medios que nos ayudarán en la Cuaresma y prepararnos mejor para la Semana Santa.

1. Dedicar más tiempo a la oración: Esforzarnos durante este tiempo a volver la mirada a Dios de forma consciente y continua:
   a. Buscar leer diariamente el evangelio,
   b. confesarnos,
   c. participar más activamente de la misa dominical y si puedo, también participar más frecuentemente.
   d. Ser Misionero Eucaristíco durante la Cuaresma, haciendo el compromiso de ir a visitar a Jesucristo Eucaristía diaria o semanalmente para pedir por la conversión de mi corazón, así como por las misiones.

2. Ayunar y sacrificarme en mi desierto: ¿Cuál puede ser el mejor sacrificio que yo debo hacer? Además del ayuno y la abstinencia de no comer carne, estos les podrián ayudar también:
   a. Ayuno de toda critica: No criticar a la gente en lo más mínimo.
   b. Ayuno de la musica, Tele o películas: Dedicar más tiempo al silencio interior, que me ayudara a la oración.
   c. Ayuno de las redes sociales, como el facebook, whatsapp, etc. Además de distrae mi oración, también me distancia de mi propia familia y amigos.
   d. Ayuno del celular: Usarlo solo para lo indispensable.

3. Crecer en el amor a Jesucristo y a nuestros hermanos: Jesús en el desierto se preparaba para su vida publica, prepararse a amar a todos los hombres. Para ello, nos pueden servir estos pequeños medios:
   a. Rezar por todos los miembros de mi familia.
   b. Hacer un sacrificio por aquella persona que simplemente no me cae bien o me cuesta mucho tratar con ella.
   c. Dedicar un día en familia, para rezar juntos y también hacer un pequeño sacrificio en familia.
   d. Esforzarme por hablar solo bien de los demás.

Espero que estas pequeños medios prácticos nos puedan ayudar a vivir mejor ésta Cuaresma, y prepararnos mejor para la Semana Santa.

ON MISSION FOR THE CHURCH ALIVE!

Every Tree Is Known By Its Own Fruit – In grade school catechism class you may have been asked to learn and memorize the Fruits of the Holy Spirit: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control, long-suffering, modesty and chastity. These 12 attributes are the means by which we come to understand how an individual is living in accord with the Holy Spirit. They are the work of God's grace in our lives and the result of us tending to our hearts, making them fertile soil for the love of God to take root so that only good fruit can grow. Like any agricultural image that we use for faith, the Fruit of the Spirit requires both hard work and trust. A farmer works hard to till, plant, weed out and tend to his crops in order to reap a bountiful harvest. Yet, he also has to trust that the sun and rain will come in the necessary proportions to nourish what he has worked so hard to plant. For us, we have to work hard to weed out anything which seeks to harden our hearts or set up resistance to the work of the Spirit. Then, we must trust the ways in which the Spirit is at work to bear abundant good fruit in and through us. Nurturing the Fruit of the Spirit works for our good, the good of others and the good of the Church as we journey On Mission for The Church Alive! Visit onmissionchurchalive.org to learn more and to stay informed.

MY SACRIFICIAL LENTEN GIVING

40 cans of food for 40 days of Lent

Help fight hunger by planning to give at least 40 cans of food during this coming Lent season. We, the St. Patrick's Knights of Columbus, Council 3291 and the St. Patrick's Christian Mothers, are asking that parishioners and members of the parish community contribute at least one can of food for each of the 40 days of Lent. Beginning on March 6, 2019, Ash Wednesday and continuing until Monday, April 22nd, cans of food are to be deposited at the main entrance of St. Patrick Church (off of Pike Street) and at the entrance off of the school parking lot. Each Sunday after the 4:00 PM Mass, the canned goods will be gathered and stored for later distribution to Canonsburg Food Pantry Program. Our goal this Lenten Season is to collect at least 3,000 cans of food. We must caution each of you that the cans of food must be useable, meaning that the expiration date must be in the year 2019 or later. Anything that is not current will be discarded. Any questions may be directed to Albert Dascenzo, K of C Chairperson, at 724-745-1445.

The Christian Mothers will resume their Canned Goods & Non-perishable Food Drive on May 18/19th the third Sunday of May.

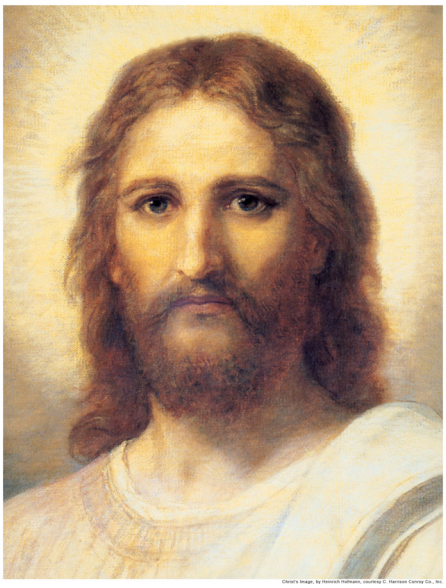
Becoming The Person God Made Through Friendship With Jesus Christ



Do your coworkers, those with whom you daily share life, and those you just happen to meet, see the whole person God intends for you to be?
Or are you living two lives — one at times with the Lord, and another with a worldly response?

Often we relegate our spiritual life to prayers said, rituals performed, and acts of kindness that non-spiritual persons also do. If these form the foundation for your personal relationship with Jesus Christ, a more secure base may be needed.
A personal relationship with Jesus Christ reveals who you are and called to become, and then affects what you do.
During these evenings we will explore the many issues concerning our prayer life and our growth in spiritual oneness with our God.

DEVELOPING A PERSONAL RELATIONSHIP WITH JESUS CHRIST

Tuesday evenings 7:00-8:30PM

March 5, 12, 19, 26, 2019

St. Patrick Parish Center, Canonsburg

Reservations are encouraged — but not required — for the sake of having materials prepared. Suggested material to bring are a bible and notebook.
Those attending this workshop are encouraged to also purchase ($2.00) a copy of Sacrifice and Embrace: Baptized To Love, available at all parish offices.
Call 724-745-6560 to reserve your spot.

Presenter: Fr. Tom Galvin is currently the Parish Chaplain of the grouping of Holy Rosary, Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal and St. Patrick Parishes. He is the Spiritual Advisor for the Diocese of Pittsburgh Cursillo Movement as well as the Region III National Cursillo Spiritual Advisor; coordinator for the Diocese of Pittsburgh-Greensburg Fraternity of Priests, and speaks frequently on the power, gifts and fruits of the Holy Spirit.
