ON MISSION FOR THE CHURCH ALIVE!

As I Have Loved You, So You Also Should Love One Another – When Jesus is asked what the greatest commandment is, his response is to love God above all and to love our neighbor as our self. As Christians, this is what we strive for every day. We work to have our hearts formed so that in all things, at all times and in all circumstances we can show love for God and love for others. This commandment to love, however, is not something we have to learn on our own. In today's Gospel, Jesus invites us to love others as he has loved us. This invitation offers a beautiful moment of reflection to recognize how he has loved us. He has given us life, gifts and talents, family and friends to love us, and faith that ... we may realize with trust that we are never alone. The love of Jesus for us is unconditional and sacrificial and the more we reflect on this love the more we realize how we are called to love one another. While this call of Jesus should inspire us to open our eyes and ears to see and hear the needs of others and to respond in love, it also should lead us to love others even when there is no particular reason to, simply because they are our sisters and brothers. As the On Mission for The Church Alive! initiative calls us to building God's Kingdom, may it be rooted in the opportunities we have to love others as God loves us. Visit onmissionchurchalive.org to stay informed.

DISCUSSIONS ON FAITH & SCIENCE

On Wednesday June 5th and Monday June 17th at 7:00 PM in the OLMM Church Hall, Deacon Tony Mobley will be leading discussions on Faith and Science.

Can Science disprove the existence of God? Of course not. Can Science prove the existence of God? Of course not. Today many claim Science can do one or the other. In these discussions, we will talk about what Science is and what it is not and what Faith is and what it is not.

Another purpose of these discussions is to find out what questions the faithful are encountering from their relatives, friends, and children about these issues. Resources will then be found to assist the faithful in responding in kindness to the questioners. Please join us for a couple of evenings that promise to raise some interesting issues. If you have any questions, please contact Deacon Tony at amobley@hrmmsp.org or at 724-746-3788.

COMBINED SAFETY MINISTRY

The Combined Safety Ministry of OLMM, St. Patrick's and Holy Rosary is looking for volunteers for a specialized committee to assemble, propose and initiate new safety measures for St. Patrick's and Holy Rosary Churches. We are looking for people that have either attended the ALICE training class, have law enforcement background, or are just interested in protecting church parishioners. These committee members will meet separate from the Safety Ministry meetings so that their only agenda will be ale to report their findings to the Combined Safety Ministry to propose the final solution for each individual church. The structure of the committee is to be decided by its members, whether there will be a committee per church or one committee to work on both churches simultaneously. If you feel this is important to you and you would like to be a member of the solution team please call or email the Combined Safety Ministry Chairperson. Questions, please contact Scott A. Moore - Chairperson at 304.670.6369 or sco1chief@yahoo.com.

2.- DIFICULTADES PARA VIVIR LA COHERENCIA CRISTIANA

Llamados a ser santos, experimentamos múltiples dificultades para realizar esta vocación. Estas dificultades para vivir la coherencia las encontramos dentro de nosotros mismos, en nuestra fragilidad o en nuestra débil voluntad ante nuestra inclinación al mal, ante los malos hábitos o vicios de los que, a veces, es difícil despojarse. No es raro experimentar que, aunque me haya propuesto firmemente ser cada día más santo, haga el mal que no quiero y que deje de hacer el bien que me había propuesto hacer. El apóstol Pablo reconoce en sí mismo esta incoherencia que agobia su espíritu, cuyo origen atribuye «al pecado que habita en mí». En efecto, el pecado y su huella en nosotros nos llevan a experimentar y sufrir tantas veces esta división dentro de nosotros mismos, división que constituye la principal dificultad para vivir la coherencia entre la fe que profesamos y nuestra vida.

También encontramos esa dificultad por la oposición a la vida cristiana de no pocos rasgos de la cultura en que vivimos. O porque esa cultura, desde una pretendida "madurez", lo relativice todo y considere a la fe y sus consecuencias como un asunto limitado a las opciones y preferencias personales. Este influjo ambiental negativo se nos presenta como un reto.

Incluso en nuestros días se persigue, a veces con intensidad, abierta o muy sutilmente, a quienes aspiran a vivir con coherencia la vida cristiana. Ante esta situación muchos bautizados, por miedo a "ser distintos", prefieren pasar desapercibidos, actuar "como los demás" para no mostrar que son cristianos, y así -aunque digan "creer"- terminan asimilando los criterios antievangélicos y viviendo de acuerdo a ellos.

OBRA DEL ESPÍRITU
Lo que falta al espíritu humano, lo completa el Espíritu Santo.
—Anónimo

God's Promise
Oh Dios, que te alaben los pueblos, que todos los pueblos te alaben.
— Salmo 67 (66):6
