Entrance Hymn

CHANGE OUR HEARTS

Change our hearts this time,
your word says it can be.
Change our minds this time,
your life could make us free.
We are the people your call set apart,
Lord, this time change our hearts.

Brought by your hand to the edge of our dreams,
one foot in paradise, one in the waste;
drawn by your promises, still we are lured by the shadows and the chains we leave behind. But...(Refrain)

Now as we watch you stretch out your hands, offering abundances, fullness of joy.
Your milk and honey seem distant, unreal,
when we have bread and water in our hands. But...(Refrain)

Show us the way that leads to your side,
over the mountains and sands of the soul.
Be for us manna, water from stone,
light which says we never walk alone. And...Refrain)

Closing Hymn

WE ARE THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD

Blessed are they who are poor in spirit,
Theirs is the kingdom of God.
Bless us O Lord, make us poor in spirit,
Bless us, O Lord our God.

We are the light of the world, May our light shine before all.
That they may see the good that we do, And give glory to God.

Blessed are they who are meek and humble,
They will inherit the earth.
Bless us O Lord, make us meek and humble,
Bless us, O Lord our God. (Refrain)

Blessed are they who will mourn in sorrow,
They will be comforted.
Bless us, O Lord when we share their sorrow,
Bless us, O Lord our God. (Refrain)

Bless those who hunger and thirst for justice,
They will be satisfied.
Bless us O Lord, hear our cry for justice,
Bless us, O Lord our God. (Refrain)

FIRST READING - 1 Sm 16:1B, 6-7, 10-13A

The LORD said to Samuel: "Fill your horn with oil, and be on your way. I am sending you to Jesse of Bethlehem, for I have chosen my king from among his sons." As Jesse and his sons came to the sacrifice, Samuel looked at Eliab and thought, "Surely the LORD's anointed is here before him." But the LORD said to Samuel: "Do not judge from his appearance or from his lofty stature, because I have rejected him. Not as man sees does God see, because man sees the appearance but the LORD looks into the heart." In the same way Jesse presented seven sons before Samuel, but Samuel said to Jesse, "The LORD has not chosen any one of these." Then Samuel asked Jesse, "Are these all the sons you have?" Jesse replied, "There is still the youngest, who is tending the sheep." Samuel said to Jesse, "Send for him; we will not begin the sacrificial banquet until he arrives here." Jesse sent and had the young man brought to them. He was ruddy, a youth handsome to behold and making a splendid appearance. The LORD said, "There—anoint him, for this is the one!" Then Samuel, with the horn of oil in hand, anointed David in the presence of his brothers; and from that day on, the spirit of the LORD rushed upon David.

Response: "The Lord is my shepherd, there is nothing I shall want." Ps. 23

SECOND READING - EPH 5:8-14

Brothers and sisters: You were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Live as children of light, for light produces every kind of goodness and righteousness and truth. Try to learn what is pleasing to the Lord. Take no part in the fruitless works of darkness; rather expose them, for it is shameful even to mention the things done by them in secret; but everything exposed by the light becomes visible, for everything that becomes visible is light. Therefore, it says: "Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead, and Christ will give you light."

GOSPEL READING - JN 9:1-41

As Jesus passed by he saw a man blind from birth. His disciples asked him, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?" Jesus answered, "Neither he nor his parents sinned; it is so that the works of God might be made visible through him. We have to do the works of the one who sent me while it is day. Night is coming when no one can work. While I am in the world, I am the light of the world." When he had said this, he spat on the ground and made clay with the saliva, and smeared the clay on his eyes, and said to him, "Go wash in the Pool of Siloam"—which means Sent—. So he went and washed, and came back able to see. His neighbors and those who had seen him earlier as a beggar said, "Isn't this the one who used to sit and beg?" Some said, "It is," but others said, "No, he just looks like him." He said, "I am." So they said to him, "How were your eyes opened?" He replied, "The man called Jesus made clay and anointed my eyes and told me, 'Go to Siloam and wash.' So I went there and washed and was able to see." And they said to him, "Where is he?" He said, "I don't know." They brought the one who was once blind to the Pharisees. Now Jesus had made clay and opened his eyes on a sabbath. So then the Pharisees also asked him how he was able to see. He said to them, "He put clay on my eyes, and I washed, and now I can see." So some of the Pharisees said, "This man is not from God, because he does not keep the sabbath." But others said, "How can a sinful man do such signs?" And there was a division among them. So they said to the blind man again, "What do you have to say about him, since he opened your eyes?" He said, "He is a prophet."

Now the Jews did not believe that he had been blind and gained his sight until they summoned the parents of the one who had gained his sight. They asked them, "Is this your son, who you say was born blind? How does he now see?" His parents answered and said, "We know that this is our son and that he was born blind. We do not know how he sees now, nor do we know who opened his eyes. Ask him, he is of age; he can speak for himself." His parents said this because they were afraid of the Jews, for the Jews had already agreed that if anyone acknowledged him as the Christ, he would be expelled from the synagogue. For this reason his parents said, "He is of age; question him."

So a second time they called the man who had been blind and said to him, "Give God the praise! We know that this man is a sinner." He replied, "If he is a sinner, I do not know. One thing I do know is that I was blind and now I see." So they said to him, "What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?" He answered them, "I told you already and you did not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you want to become his disciples, too?" They ridiculed him and said, "You are that man's disciple; we are disciples of Moses! We know that God spoke to Moses, but we do not know where this one is from." The man answered and said to them, "This is what is so amazing, that you do not know where he is from, yet he opened my eyes. We know that God does not listen to sinners, but if one is devout and does his will, he listens to him. It is unheard of that anyone ever opened the eyes of a person born blind. If this man were not from God, he would not be able to do anything." They answered and said to him, "You were born totally in sin, and are you trying to teach us?" Then they threw him out.

When Jesus heard that they had thrown him out, he found him and said, "Do you believe in the Son of Man?" He answered and said, "Who is he, sir, that I may believe in him?" Jesus said to him, "You have seen him, the one speaking with you is he." He said, "I do believe, Lord," and he worshiped him. Then Jesus said, "I came into this world for judgment, so that those who do not see might see, and those who do see might become blind."

Some of the Pharisees who were with him heard this and said to him, "Surely we are not also blind, are we?" Jesus said to them, "If you were blind, you would have no sin; but now you are saying, 'We see,' so your sin remains.

Preparation Hymn

THERE IS A LONGING

There is a longing in our hearts, O Lord,
For you to reveal yourself to us.
There is a longing in our hearts for love
We only find in you, our God.

For justice, for freedom, for mercy: hear our prayer

In sorrow, in grief: be near, hear our prayer,
O God. (Refrain)

For wisdom, for courage, for comfort: hear our prayer.

In weakness, in fear: be near, hear our prayer,
O God. (Refrain)

For healing, for wholeness, for new life:
hear our prayer.

In sickness, in death: be near, hear our prayer,
O God. (Refrain)

Lord save us, take pity, light in our darkness.

We call you, we wait, be near, hear our prayer,
O God. (Refrain)

Communion Hymn

BECAUSE THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD

Because the Lord is my shepherd, I have everything I need. He lets me rest in the meadows and leads me to the quiet streams. He restores my soul, and he leads me in the paths that are right.

Lord, you are my shepherd, you are my friend.

I want to follow you always, just to follow my friend.

And when the road leads to darkness, I shall walk there unafraid. Even when death is close, I have courage, for your help is there. You are close beside me with comfort, you are guiding my way.

In love you make me a banquet for my enemies to see. You make me welcome, pouring down honor from your mighty hand, And this joy fills me with gladness; it is too much to bear.

Your goodness always is with me and your mercy I know. Your loving kindness strengthens me always as I go through life. I shall dwell in your presence forever, giving praise to your name.

CARMEN'S CORNER

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

We are now in the midst of our Lenten discipline and our theme for this Lent is "Encountering the Love of Jesus." This holy season gives us the opportunity to reflect those areas of our life that need to be reexamined and renewed. Many times we lose focus of what is truly important and we allow distractions and negativity to consume our lives. Our Lord is always there for us, but far too often we don't see Him or recognize Him.

Jesus comes to us in ways that we never would expect. He may speak through someone near to us or through a complete stranger. His love is there to uplift us and to challenge us. His desire is that we grow close to Him and that the Holy Spirit will give us the strength and courage to navigate in this world that is constantly changing.

The Sunday Gospels during Lent show us the immense love that God has for us. Jesus knows how strong temptations can be for us. He allowed Himself to be weakened and tempted by the devil. He knows that we are weak and many times we fall, but He understands and forgives. He allowed His apostles to see His glory during the Transfiguration, to inspire them during difficult times and so too with us, He shows His glory to us in inspiring ways during our lifetime. His encounter with the Samaritan woman at the well shows us that He meets us where we are. He doesn't judge us, but He helps us to see those areas of our life that need to change. The story of the healing of the man born blind shows us that sickness, disease and disabilities are not the result of personal sin, but rather spiritual blindness is what leads to sin in our lives and in the world. Finally, the raising of Lazarus shows us the full humanity of Jesus who weeps when He sees his friend Mary and the people weeping. He is deeply moved by this and weeps Himself.

Our Lord loves us and is moved by our struggles and suffering and He comes to us and speaks to us, but far too often we do not recognize Him and do not hear Him. Brothers and sisters, let us take this time during Lent to let go of our pettiness, to let go of our selfishness, to let go of our fears. Let us remove all the clutter in our lives so that we may see Him and listen to Him and be strengthened and comforted. May we let Jesus love us so that we can love one another.

In Christ's love,
Father Carmen

40 DAYS FOR LIFE (FEB. 22-APRIL 2)

40 Days for Life is an internationally coordinated 40-day campaign that aims to end abortion through prayer and fasting, community outreach, and a peaceful all-day vigil in front of abortion businesses. Christ told us some demons can only be driven out by prayer and fasting. The two go hand in hand. Prayer keeps us rooted in the fact that it is our desire to carry out God's will. Fasting is a sacrifice that helps us reach beyond our own limitations with God's help.

PRAYER FOR HEALING

Eternal Father, source of all mercy and love, out of love for us you sent your Son, and willed that blood and water flow from his side to cleanse us of sin and restore lost innocence. Hear the cry of each woman who mourns the loss of her child to abortion. Forgive her sin, restore her to your grace, and still the terror of her heart with a peace beyond all understanding. Through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of all tenderness and our Mother, strengthen her faith in you.

Give her the consolation to believe that her child is now living in the Lord. We ask this through Christ our Lord, who conquered sin and death, and who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen

Weekend Retreat for Post-Abortion Healing

Rachel's Vineyard is a weekend retreat for women and men struggling in the aftermath of abortion. Our next retreat is April 21-23 at the Ark and The Dove.

This Lenten season, St. Oscar Romero will have Reconciliation at St. Patrick Church from 6 to 9 p.m. on Tuesday, March 28.

This is a wonderful opportunity to reconnect with Christ and His Church.

SCRIPTURE SERIES

The 4 gospels each have their own insight into the passion and death of Jesus. What might their portraits say about our own journey through life?

Come learn more with a Scripture Series which runs Wednesdays through March 29 from 7 to 8:30 p.m. in the basement of Miraculous Medal Church.

Our parishioner Dennis Gehrlein will facilitate the program as he weaves together scripture with his own unique perspective as a former Passionist religious. Come to one or all of the sessions.

REST IN PEACE

Please pray for the souls of all our faithful departed, especially Mary Altieri and Louis J. Bailey.

May their souls and all the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace.

DIVORCED OR SEPARATED?
FIND HELP HERE.

DIVORCE Care Support Group

Facing divorce or separation is probably one of the most painful experiences in one's life. You may need support, answers and helpful direction, or a safe place to ask questions, share experiences and begin to heal. Divorce Care is a 13-week Christian-based program designed with these needs in mind. At Divorce Care you will meet other people who understand what you are going through. Together we will work on navigating through the difficult challenges and the emotional roller coasters that often come with divorce, and to find hope for the future.

The Divorce Care program is being offered every Thursday evening beginning April 13 through July 6 from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. The cost is $25 total and includes the participant workbook and weekly social.

For further information about the program and how to register, please contact divorcecare@romeroparish.org or call Deacon Brian at 724-873-0780.
