

Living Christ Together...

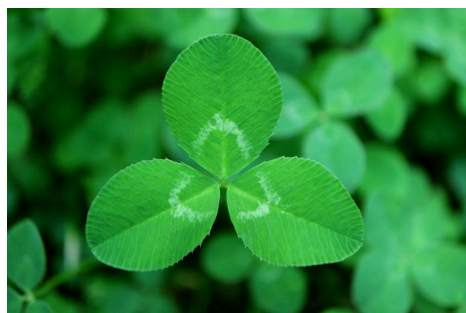

Humility in Trinity

Español

Dear Friend in Christ,

The Trinity.
One God. Three Divine Persons.
Each forever seeking the lowest place of all.

Hiding Himself in His Son,
the Father humbly yields the role of being the only giver of goodness.
"This is My Beloved Son," He says.
"Listen to Him."

The Son "humbled Himself"
to be sent by The Father
into the abysmal failure
of a slave's death on a cross.

The Spirit comes humbly too,
sent by The Father
to transform defeat in Crucifixion
into victorious Resurrection,

and to build up stone by living stone
from the rubble of disciples' dashed hopes the miracle of the visible Church of the One Invisible Lord.

The triumph of Triune humility.

In Christ Jesus,

Bishop Liam Cary
