PASTOR'S DESK

There is always a tendency to scapegoat others when disaster strikes, especially when one needs to justify oppression or war. Many times, we are told it is God's retribution for the sinfulness of a people or nation. When the Haitian earthquake and tsunami occurred a number of years ago in Haiti, a well-known evangelical preacher pointed a finger at the people of Haiti. He declared that their own sinfulness had brought down upon them the wrath of God in the form of an earthquake. God in His anger was responsible for the loss of hundreds of thousands of lives. With the onslaught of AIDS in the eighties and nineties, even with this pandemic it is so simple to declare God's wrath as an easy explanation. If something bad happens, then the victims must have done something to deserve it. There are church leaders in Russia who have declared the war in the Ukraine is a result of God's wrath on the Ukrainian people for their sinfulness and lack of faith. Did God condone the loss of innocent life because of the supposed sinfulness of a nation? A God of fear of power of control is easier to comprehend than a God of compassion, mercy, and love. People are more apt to believe a God who uses revenge and even hatred as a way of supporting one group over another. God is very prominent in election cycles for using God can excite the "faithful" who have not been very faithful the past three years. They use God as a pawn for political gain. Is this what we believe? It is so easy to use God as an excuse for the ills of our world. It takes the oneness of the perpetrator and places it onto the victim. In the gospel today, this is what Jesus figures people are thinking when they report to him about those whom Pilate murdered and the people who were killed when a tower fell on them.

There may be sinful causes behind the events in the gospel today but not on the part of the victims. Pilate, who carries out violent executions of innocent people, is symbolic of a sinful system of government. Deaths caused by shoddy workmanship or construction shortcuts, when profit is more important than human safety, are the result of sinful practices but not the fault of the people crushed by the falling tower.

Something interesting happens at this point in the gospel. Jesus switches the conversation around. The people are asking Jesus about the fate of others. In speaking about those killed by Pilate and those crushed by the falling tower, they are looking outside of themselves and wondering about the tragic deaths of others. They are trying to find the will of God in these disastrous happenings; like the tower collapsing. We like to do this so often when we ponder the events of life and evaluate them as either a blessing or a curse. We discern that these events are either a reward for living right or a punishment for sins. The problem is not with these questions about God's will but how these questions crowd out the more important question of how we embody God's will. In other words, how do we live as God's people in the midst of blessings and tragedies. God's will is not to be found in outer events but in the soul where the person is connected to God. Jesus makes them face their own fates as he asks them to look deeply at their own lives. This habit of looking outside ourselves to uncover the workings of God needs to be turned around. People must look inside to be in touch with the will of God and then make that will of God happen in the events of their lives. I hear this often with people will tragedy strikes, and they ask me why God is punishing them in their illness, their loss, their life situation that continues to have them hanging by a thread. For example, illness happens, so when we do get sick, do we try to figure out why God placed this illness in my life, "Why me?", or do we say, 'With God at my side, with God within me, how do I live with this cross?' God's will is done in and through us. I heard the following a few years ago and it has stayed with me. A priest friend of mine knew a woman who was diagnosed with a life-threatening brain tumor. In an instant her life took a dramatic turn as the possibility of a shortened life faced her. Her response surprised some of her friends. She said, "I can honestly say I have no regrets." The Gospel today invites all of us more deeply into such a relationship with God, where we too can say we are ready at any moment, with no regrets.

Jesus does not answer the very complex question of why bad things happen to good people. He does clearly separate untimely death from sin and guilt. And what Jesus emphasizes powerfully in his response is the need always to be prepared. The end could come quite unexpectedly. Are we faithfully living as God's people? Are you ready if the end should come unexpectedly? The examples in the Gospel of people dying in unexpected ways are not meant to scare us into repentance. But they are a sobering reminder that our time to respond to God's invitation is limited. The Gospel speaks of God's patience in waiting for us to repent and "bear fruit."

In our Lenten reflection book, I was struck by the words from March 9th. They tie into the readings today in a real and concrete way:

"How often do we wish for second chances? Each day we are given opportunities but often miss them because we're preoccupied with other things. Be alert for these golden opportunities! Pray to notice a hidden tear, a tone of voice, or a look of loneliness or despair. Look for the pain and extend compassion. Be sensitive to what is needed. Sometimes, just our presence is enough. The real tragedy is to reach the end of our lives and realize that we have missed an opportunity to have made someone's life just a little better."

There are people in need all around us. The people of the Ukraine need our unwavering support and we thank you for your generosity and kindness. I believe that in our world, empathy has been in short supply and this tragedy that has happened because of ego, narcissism, control and oppression, is calling us out of our complacency. We need to have hearts of compassion and love and we need empathy in our relations with each other more than ever. There is much devastation and divisions throughout our world, in our country and in our communities and families. We cannot lose our hope in the present and in the future.

We are all called to accept God's saving love by surrendering ourselves to God. Jesus came to liberate us from fear and Jesus showed us the indestructible trust and love of God. Even when death has done all it can do, God can be trusted. God will not abandon us. Jesus believed and he heard at his baptism before the forty days in the desert, and in the gospel last week on the mountain before journeying to Jerusalem, the words that he is loved. We still struggle in believing we are the beloved children of God. All of us. We continue to focus on a God of wrath, a God who punishes us for our sinfulness. A God to be feared more than loved. God is not apart from us; our God embraces us. God is here with us in the midst of our fears, our doubts, and our insecurities. This God is with the people of the Ukraine and so many others facing destruction and despair. We need to be more like the gardener today in the gospel and be patient for the hope and promise of new life. God will water our gardens, our lives and like the sunflower, we will have the presence and the courage to face the sun, to live in the joy of another day.

May our Lenten practices of prayer, sacrifice, of surrendering ourselves to God, sharpen our ability to change our ways in order to respond with love no matter what tower falls on us or what happens in our lives. May our lives be set ablaze with divine love much like the bush that caused Moses to stop in his tracks. My dear friends, may we all burn brightly with the love of God.

OPERATION STARFISH

Once again, St. Mary's Parish will be taking part in Operation Starfish during Lent. Operation Starfish is a simple program that is designed to let families more fully engage in both the opportunity for spiritual reflection and the chance to make daily sacrifices that benefit those who are suffering. Go to <https://youtu.be/BoGkOOOFSQ8> to learn more.

The program encourages families to save up 50 cents or more each day and then bring their money weekly and place it in the Operation Starfish Baskets located in the Church to help fund many of St. Mary's outreach ministries.

Last year, St. Mary's raised over $7,000 for Operation Starfish! Please help the neediest in our communities, and teach your children about the Lenten pillar of almsgiving through taking part in Operation Starfish this year.

EUCCHARISTIC MEAL SESSIONS

Throughout Lent on Thursday evenings please join Fr. Frank as we gather to reflect on the Eucharist and its centrality in our lives as Catholics. We will delve into the "who, what, where, when and why" of the development of this sacrament as it relates to scripture, history, theology, sign and symbol. Christ is hidden in the least of us as it is hidden in the appearances of bread and wine. Both require an uncommon and daring faith. The body and blood of Christ is not only what we celebrate here - it is who we are and it is why we love and care for each other so deeply. As a Eucharistic community, we are the Body of Christ. We allow this "presence" to enter our whole being and we go forth bearing the marks of Christ in our hearts bringing this presence to all we encounter. This is Eucharist.

Join Fr. Frank for a meal each Thursday evening in the Clare Hall at 6pm followed by the presentation. Any questions, please connect with Fr. Frank. There will be limited seating, so please register early at <https://www.stmarys-pompton.org/eucharistic-meal-sessions>.

Why a Year of the Eucharist?

On January 9, 2022, the Diocese of Paterson inaugurated a Year of the Eucharist. The purpose of this year is to promote a renewed appreciation, understanding, and devotion of the Eucharist. This will be achieved using various catechetical, liturgical, and pastoral components on the diocesan and parish level.

We are having a five-week workshop on the Eucharist during Lent using video, audio and presentations. It will be an interactive format involving meals, fellowship on the importance of the Eucharist as an encounter. See page 7 for more info!

SYNOD PRAYER

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name. With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts; Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it. We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder.

Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions.

Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right.

All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.

WHAT ABOUT THE CHURCH HAS INSPIRED, ENCOURAGED, CHALLENGED OR DISAPPOINTED YOU?

Pope Francis wants to hear your answers to these questions. He has launched a worldwide Synod to examine how we walk together and how we listen to one another. The Vatican and St. Mary's need you to share your thoughts as we find new ways to "be" and "do" Church in the 21st Century.

PLEASE BECOME PART OF THIS IMPORTANT MOMENT IN THE LIFE OF THE CHURCH.

Come to one or more of the following listening sessions (and bring a friend, perhaps one who has not been to church in a long time) and share your real-life experiences with the Church. The Synod reminds us that God reaches us through others and he reaches others through us. All sessions will be held in the St. Clare Hall in the Carnivale Center.

Sunday, March 20 after the 12:00 Mass
Wednesday, March 23, 7:00 P.M.
Sunday, March 27 after the 10:30 Mass
Wednesday, March 30, 7:00 P.M.

5th grade: Children are reflecting on what it means to be a follower of Christ and enthusiastically writing their personal prayers during the period of Lent.

We encourage all families to attend Sunday Mass during this period of Lent because it provides an opportunity for us to follow Christ more faithfully.

To help our youngest parishioners feel included and excited about our Liturgy we have created a playlist of the songs we will be singing for the Lent Season. Feel free to play them at home, in the car, or even for a dance party! Tag or share with us pictures or videos on social media of your children singing away as they learn about how much God loves them, and how fun our liturgies are! Jaxon Tyler Morris

Congratulations to Valarie Grande and Gregory Budinich on celebrating the sacrament of Matrimony!

Saint of the Day: Oscar Romero March 24

The night before he was murdered while celebrating Mass, Archbishop Oscar Romero of San Salvador said on the radio: "I would like to appeal in a special way to the men of the army, and in particular to the troops of the National Guard, the police, and the garrisons. Brothers, you belong to our own people. You kill your own brother peasants; and in the face of an order to kill that is given by a man, the law of God that says 'Do not kill!' should prevail.

Simultaneously, Romero had eloquently upheld the gospel and effectively signed his own death warrant.

When he was appointed archbishop of San Salvador in 1977, Bishop Romero was considered a very "safe" choice. He had served as auxiliary bishop there for four years before his three years as bishop of Santiago de Maria.

Three weeks after his appointment as archbishop, Romero was shaken by the murder of his good friend Jesuit Father Rutilio Grande, a vigorous defender of the rights of the poor. Five more priests were assassinated in the Archdiocese of San Salvador during Romero's years as its shepherd.

When a military junta seized control of the national government in 1979, Archbishop Romero publicly criticized the US government for backing the junta. His weekly radio sermons, broadcast throughout the country, were regarded by many as the most trustworthy source of news available.

Romero's funeral was celebrated in the plaza outside the cathedral and drew an estimated 250,000 mourners.

His tomb in the cathedral crypt soon drew thousands of visitors each year. On February 3, 2015, Pope Francis authorized a decree recognizing Oscar Romero as a martyr for the faith. His beatification took place in San Salvador on May 23, 2015, and he was canonized on October 14, 2018.

Women of Prayer and Spirit

A group of women who meet monthly to discuss one chapter of a book and to pray for the intentions members bring to the group. We meet via zoom on the first Tuesday of each month from 7:00-8:30.

Members participate to the extent they feel comfortable. Occasionally, life intervenes, and a member cannot read the chapter; that should not deter anyone from attending. Also, despite the hope that everyone can attend every month, sometimes that is just not possible, which is understood. All are welcome, every month.

Women of Prayer and Spirit reflects the early church when Christians met in small groups to pray, to inspire, and to be inspired by other Christians. If you would like to join this group, please email Jean Barkovitz jbarkovitz1009@gmail.com.

San José

19 de marzo

La Solemnidad de San José, esposo de la Virgen María y Patrono de la Iglesia Universal, se celebra el 19 de marzo, un día de gran alegría para los fieles católicos de todo el mundo. Esta solemnidad también se celebra como la fiesta de San José obrero (Día Internacional del trabajo) el primero de mayo. También está incluido en la Fiesta de la Sagrada Familia (30 de diciembre) y sin duda alguna también forma parte de la historia de la Navidad. Por otro lado, San José tiene múltiples patronazgos: Es el patrón de la Iglesia Universal, la buena muerte, las familias, los padres, las mujeres embarazadas, viajeros, inmigrantes, artesanos, ingenieros y trabajadores. Es también el patrón de las Américas, Canadá, China, Croacia, México, Corea, Austria, Bélgica, Perú, Filipinas y Vietnam. Nuestro Santo Padre Francisco ha destacado el papel especial que ha desempeñado San José en el cumplimiento de historia de la salvación. El Santo Padre enfatiza la figura de San José como el guardián y tierno padre adoptivo de nuestro Señor Jesucristo, así como el fiel y casto esposo de la Santísima Virgen María. San José siendo el protector de la Sagrada Familia, es apropiadamente el patrón y protector de la Iglesia universal, que es la familia de Dios. Ite ad Ioseph (latín para "Ve con José") Estas fueron las palabras proféticas del Faraón al pueblo egipcio durante la época de la gran hambruna, indicándoles que el patriarca José aliviaría sus necesidades (Génesis 41:55). En estos tiempos de gran agitación en nuestro mundo y en la Iglesia, el Santo Padre Francisco también nos dice Ite ad Ioseph - "Ve con José"; esta vez refiriéndose al humilde carpintero de Nazaret, San José, quien fue el Padre adoptivo de Nuestro Señor Jesucristo y Esposo de la Santísima Virgen María. Si acudimos a San José, él intercederá por nosotros ante Dios para aliviar nuestras necesidades. Fuente: aciprensa.com
