LORD, MAKE ME AN INSTRUMENT OF YOUR PEACE.

THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT
MARCH 20, 2022

THE

Barren

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

One of my favorite Easter stories in the Scriptures is in St. John's Gospel, where Mary Magdalene mistakes the Risen Lord for a gardener. I love that story because in my heart I think that Mary Magdalene wasn't mistaken. Jesus is the gardener of our hearts. Matt Maher wrote a really beautiful song about it that I have shared with you before. The refrain says "You walk with me. You never leave. You're making my heart a garden." I love that song. I love that idea and image of Jesus as a gardener.

In the Readings this week there are two themes that really go together. Repentance and Mercy.

In the First Reading we hear the famous story of the call of Moses. God calls to Moses from the Burning Bush. God is asking Moses to turn to Him and listen. This is what repentance means. To re-aim, to turn to. What does Moses find when he turns to God? He finds mercy. God has heard the cry of His people and shows them mercy. The Responsorial Psalm echoes the First Reading as we proclaim that the Lord is kind and merciful. The Second Reading reminds us of God's mercy and warns us to make sure to check our aim and to re-aim, or repent, so that we don't fall. Repentance and Mercy.

In the second half of this week's Gospel, after Jesus calls for repentance in the first part, we head to the garden. It is the story of a person who plants a fig tree in his garden but the tree bears no fruit. So the man tells his gardener to cut the tree down. But the gardener pleads with the man to let try for one more year. The gardener will do all that he can to help the tree bear fruit. I always thought that in this story, God the Father was the owner of the garden. Jesus was the gardener and we were the tree that wasn't bearing fruit. But I think that maybe I made a mistake.

I think that Jesus is indeed the gardener. But what if the other man isn't God the Father but is us? What if Jesus is pleading with us to let Him work on our hearts? What if Jesus is asking us in this story to be patient with Him? To be patient with the work that He is doing in our hearts? I think that is why this story is left open ended. We don't ever hear the owner of the garden's response. Did he let the gardener try for one more year? The Scripture doesn't tell us, but maybe that is the point. This is a question waiting for us to answer. Will we allow the gardener to work on our hearts? Will we give Him one more year?

This Lent we are called to Repentance, to reset our aim, to turn our face back to God. We are promised that when we do this we will find Mercy. God will give us just what we need. But He will not make us do this. Rather, Jesus asks us. May I walk with you for one more year? May I till the soil of your heart? Will you be patient with me and let me work? Can I make your heart a garden?

So, what is your answer to Jesus?

Peace and Love,
Fr. Matt

Pray for the Elect of our Parish

Last Sunday, our catechumens celebrated the Rite of Election with Bishop Zubik at Saint Paul Cathedral. This rite marks the beginning of the period of final, more intense preparation for the sacraments of initiation. During the enrollment of names, the catechumens were invited to inscribe their names in the Book of the Elect as a pledge of fidelity.

In the act of election, the Church accepted the catechumens to be initiated into the sacred mysteries at the next Easter Vigil. This acceptance is founded on the election by God, in whose name the Church acts.

Please welcome and pray for

Sharon, Ally, and Taylor Keith as they enter the period of purification and enlightenment.

St. Oscar Romero March 24

When St. Oscar Romero was appointed Archbishop of San Salvador in 1977, his country was in chaos. Many people in El Salvador were living in poverty, while a smaller elite group controlled all political and economic power. In 1980, El Salvador broke out in a 12-year civil war that left over 75,000 people dead. St. Oscar Romero set up pastoral programs to assist the victims of oppression. He also became an outspoken advocate for human rights, appealing to the Salvadoran military to stop killing their own citizens.

On March 24, 1980, St. Oscar Romero was murdered while celebrating Mass in El Salvador. A car pulled up outside, and a gunman fired a single shot straight into St. Oscar Romero's heart.

Calling him a "a martyr for the faith" nearly 40 years later, Pope Francis canonized him in 2018. For the occasion, Pope Francis chose to wear the same blood-stained belt that Romero was wearing at the altar when he died.
