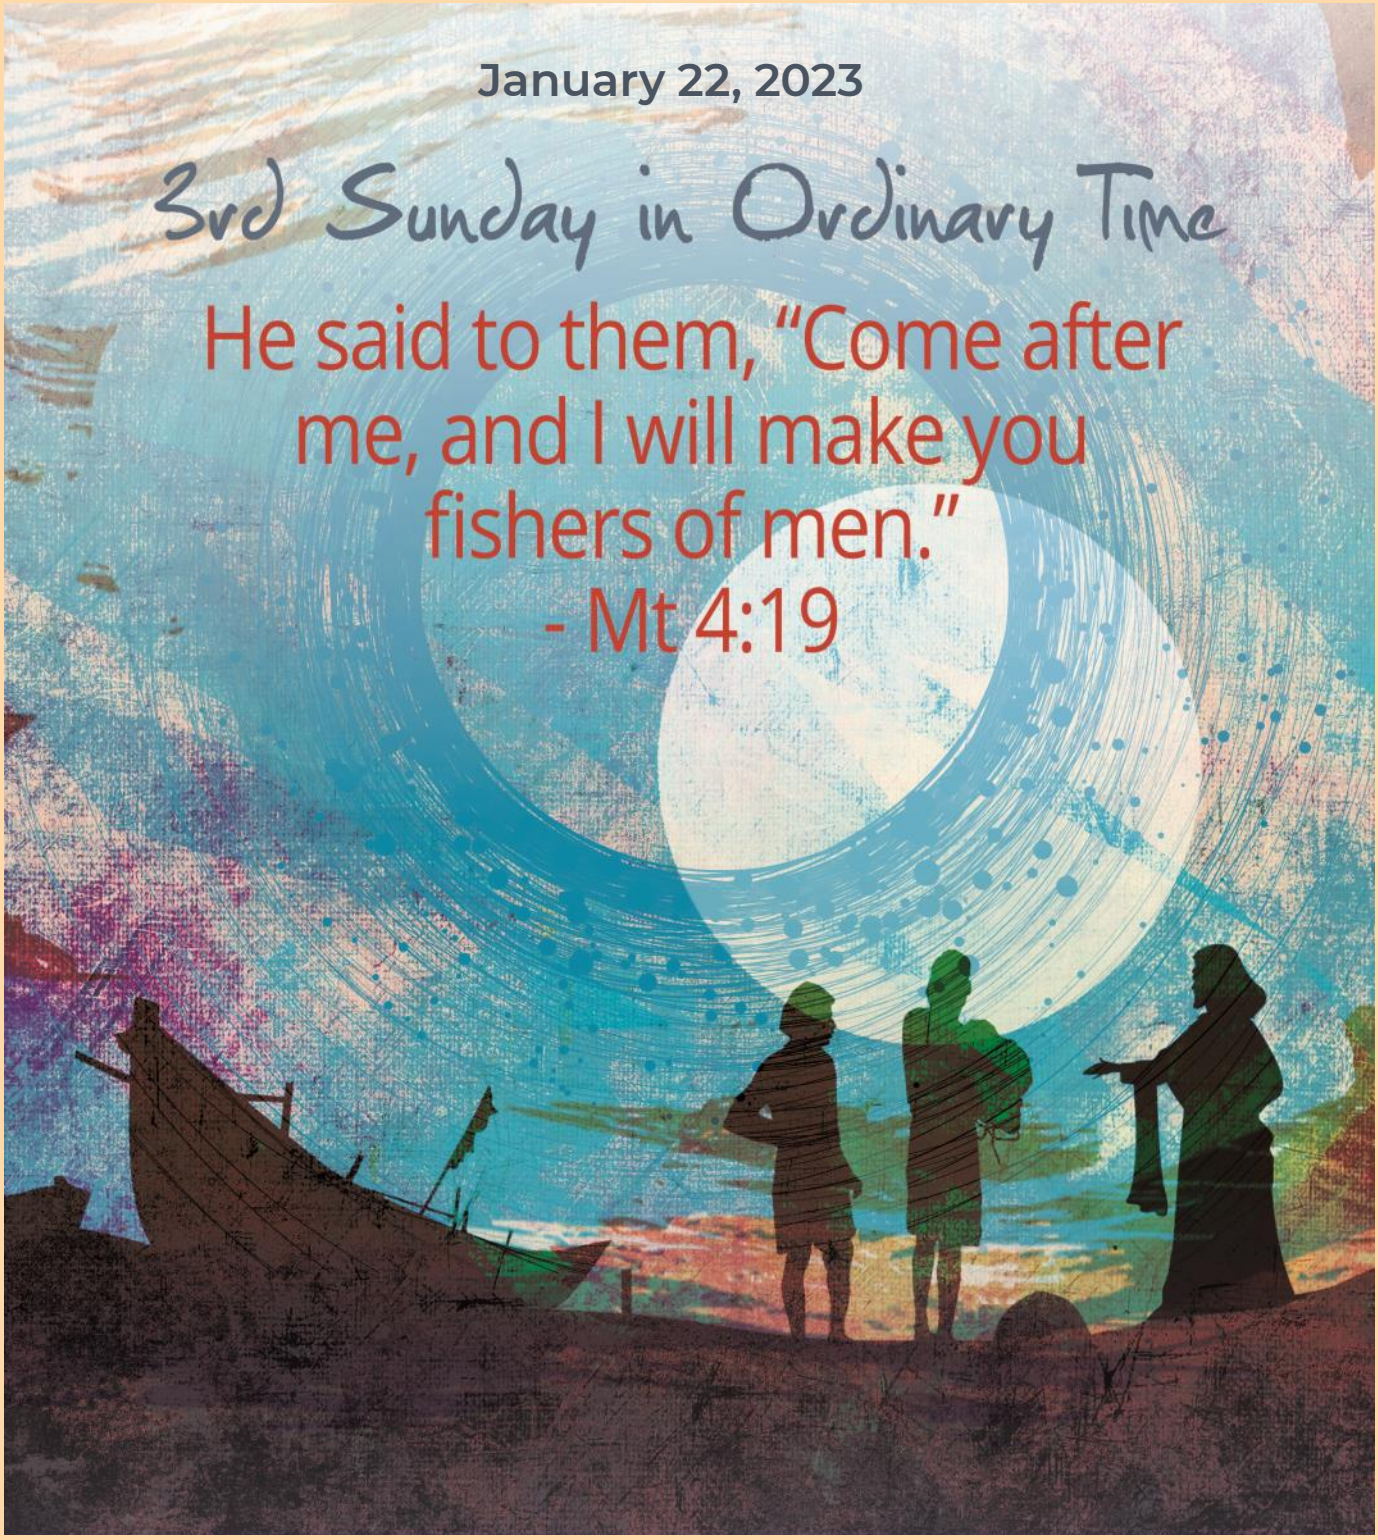
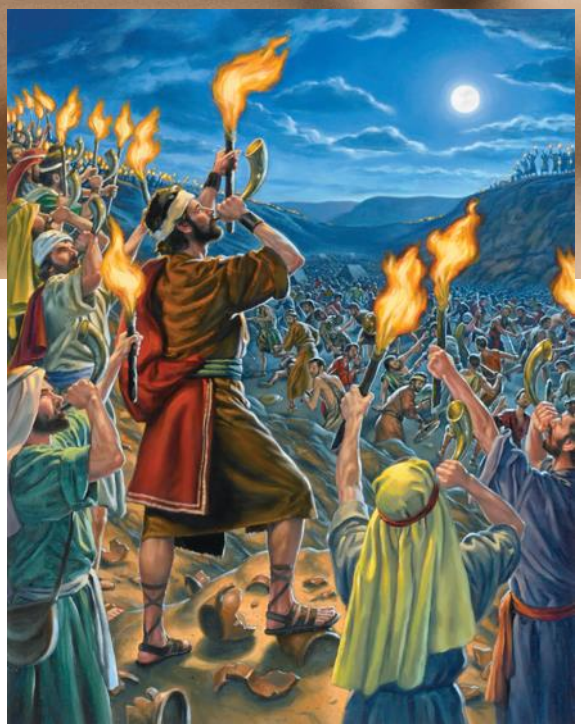
Saint Francis of Assisi Parish

LORD, MAKE ME AN INSTRUMENT OF YOUR PEACE.



A MESSAGE FROM FATHER MATT



Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Whenever I begin to prepare a homily, the first thing that I do is ask the Lord for help, that I may see what He wants me to see, then I just read through the Scripture passages for that Sunday a few times and see if anything jumps out at me. Sometimes it is a word that is repeated many times. Sometimes it is a story that resonates with me. This week, what kept coming up in my mind was a question about the last line in the First Reading.

Clearly there is a connection between the First Reading, from the Prophet Isaiah, and the Gospel, because the Gospel actually quotes the First Reading! It is a cool connection. There are several times in the Gospels when a prophecy is fulfilled in an obvious way, as is the case here. Jesus is the light that Isaiah said would arise in the land of Zebulon and Naphtali. In other places in the Scriptures there are more subtle, at least to non-Jewish readers, examples of the Old Testament giving greater meaning to happenings in the New Testament that don't seem obviously important. One example is when Mary is pregnant with Jesus and she travels through the hill country to visit Elizabeth. A Jewish reader, especially in Jesus' time, would know that the road through the hill country is the same route that King David took carrying the Ark of the Covenant with him. This shows the greater meaning, that Mary is the New Ark of the New Covenant. I really like things like that. There is so much meaning in the Scriptures. They drip with meaning! It seems like there is always something new, something deeper to learn!

So, what about the end of the First Reading? The last line kept tripping me up. "For the yoke that burdened them, the pole on their shoulders, the rod of their taskmaster you have smashed, as on the day of Midian." I get the whole yoke, pole and rod smashing part. That is just what God does! But what is the day of Midian? Honestly, I didn't know. Does it matter? It does. It gives fuller and more awesome meaning to the other Readings. The day of Midian refers to the story of Gideon from the Book of Judges Chapters 6 and 7. In the story, God asks Gideon to form an army to face the Midianites, who were oppressing his people. The Midianites army was huge, Gideon's was made up of only 300 men. The Midianites had swords and other weapons. Gideons men were armed with only trumpets, clay pots and torches. It seemed like a totally unfair set-up. Gideon complained to God. He was the weakest of his family and his family was the weakest of the tribe. How could he possibly win? The Lord said to Gideon, "But, I will be with you". Wow! Against all odds, Gideon and his army of clay pot and torch holding trumpet players destroyed the Midianites! It is an amazing story.

So, with this in mind, Jesus goes to the same land where Gideon's trumpet sounded. He meets fishermen and makes them Apostles who will go to the ends of the Earth to tell the Good News. They will suffer greatly at the hands of an army many times larger than their forces, but in the end, the Apostles will prevail. We know they had doubts. How can this happen? How could we, simple guys that we are, ever do what Jesus is asking us to do? Remember where they are. They are in the land of Gideon's trumpets and God says to them the same thing, "but, I will be with you." Our Responsorial Psalm today says "The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom should I fear?" What circumstance is too much for the Lord? Is there a sin we could commit that is greater than God? Is there a burden too heavy for God to carry? The answer is no. You know that.

This week, remember who your God is. He is the God of Gideon and his trumpets and clay pots. Nothing is too much for God. Nothing is impossible for God. If you go it alone, or if I do, we will surely be defeated. So don't go it alone. "But I will be with you" says the Lord. Invite the Lord in and get ready to sound your trumpet!

Peace and Love,
Fr. Matt

Sunday of the Word of God

"He opened their minds to understand the Scriptures" (Lk 24:45). The Third Sunday of Ordinary Time is to be devoted to the celebration, study, and spread of the Word of God. On the road to Emmaus, the journey Jesus makes with his disciples ends with a meal. We learn from Luke 24:27: "Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them what referred to him in all the scriptures." After Jesus took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them, their eyes were opened, and they recognized him (Lk 24:30-31). Pope Francis tells us that "this scene clearly demonstrates the unbreakable bond between sacred Scripture and the Eucharist." He writes, "As Christians, we are a single people, making our pilgrim way through history, sustained by the Lord, present in our midst, who speaks to us and nourishes us. A day devoted to the Bible should not be seen as a yearly event but rather a year-long event, for we urgently need to grow in our knowledge and love of the Scriptures and of the risen Lord, who continues to speak his word and to break bread in the community of believers." In 2019, Pope Francis instituted the Sunday of the Word of God on the liturgical memorial of Saint Jerome who wrote, "Ignorance of the Scriptures is ignorance of Christ." May we hear the voice of Christ as Saint Augustine did in his Confessions, "Take up and read; Take up and read." Take some time today to open the Scriptures and read. Enter into the story of salvation history, our story. God is speaking to us, but do we take time to listen?

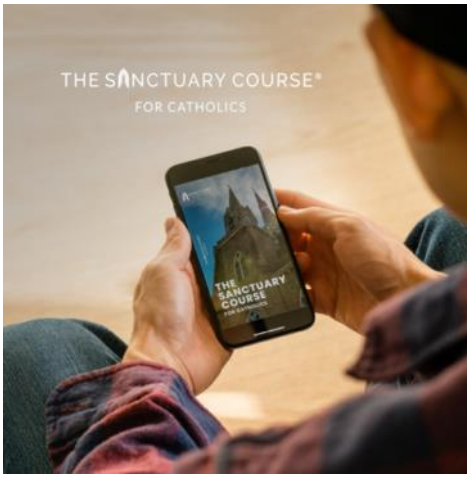
Let's Talk About Mental Health



Would you value joining others in a conversation about mental health? Would you like to discover what God, Scripture, and Church have to say in light of the experiences of mental health challenges? Sign up for The Sanctuary Course for Catholics at Saint Francis of Assisi Parish. The subject matter feels particularly relevant in these times of heightened anxiety, and the course creates an opportunity to connect with and support each other in meaningful ways.

The Sanctuary Course for Catholics is an eight-part course for small groups designed to raise awareness and start conversations in local parishes regarding mental health. It was created in collaboration with Catholic mental health professionals, theologians, and clergy, and offers faith communities the opportunity to learn about mental health and grow in their ability to support members living with mental health challenges. Topics covered include mental health and mental illness, stigma, recovery, companionship, self-care, and community. The sessions are accompanied by compelling films that feature the stories of Catholics living with mental health challenges, along with the insights of archbishops, theologians, and psychologists. The course is available on FORMED to download as a PDF, or as an audiobook if you'd prefer to listen rather than read. There is no homework, but it's recommended that you read/listen to the sessions in advance of meeting. Printed copies of the coursebook will be available to those who sign up. Due to the sensitive and confidential nature of discussions, the number of participants will be limited. Sign up early! We will meet on Wednesdays from 6:30 – 8:00 pm beginning January 25th in St. Joseph Café. Contact Angie Robb at angela{@}saintfrancisparish.net or (724) 352-2149 ext. 208 to participate.

KNOW SOMEONE WHO NEEDS COMFORT?

The Prayer Blanket Ministry at St. Francis Parish has a beautiful selection of blankets for anyone who needs the comfort of prayer. If you know of someone who is sick, depressed, lost a loved one, or is struggling with a mental illness, please consider the gift of one of our blankets. The blankets are blessed and come with a rosary. The recipients are lifted in prayer every Tuesday morning at our meeting. We also have blankets for children of all ages. You can pick up a blanket during our meetings, Tuesdays 9-11:30 am in St. Joseph Hall, or call Suzanne Ekas and leave a message at 724.360.0027.

SoulCORE

"Exercise" for Body, Mind and Soul

Join us for just one hour each week as we pray the Rosary or other Catholic prayers; listen to bible readings, quotes from saints or other spiritual writers; and meditate on the virtues tied to the prayers. All this is done as we move prayerfully through positions of relaxation, stretching and strengthening. We are led via video instructors in a candlelit environment with peaceful music in the background. If you are looking for a way to de-stress and loosen or tone up muscles through prayer and meditation, consider joining us on Tuesdays from 4:30-5:30 pm in St. Joseph Hall. Contact Cil at 724-822-0614 with any questions.

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, pray for our families.

This week we lift up in prayer the following families,

The Davanzati Family:
Mike, Joyce, Isaac and Tim

The Leroy Family: James and Kim

The Lindstrom Family: Joann

The Lis Family: Dave, Beth, and Kira

The Lydon Family: Elaine

Through the grace of our Lord, may they enjoy prosperity, possess the priceless gift of peace, and as the Church alive in the home, bear witness in this world to the Lord's glory.
