Bus for Deacon Ryan's June 1 ordination

Deacon Ryan Healy will be ordained to the priesthood on Saturday, June 1, at 11 a.m. at the Cathedral of St. Mary of the Assumption in Fall River. All are welcome to attend.

Parking at the cathedral is limited, so to make it easier to attend, the parish will reserve a school bus if parishioners are interested. Please call the parish office, 508-336-5549, by Friday, May 24, to reserve a spot on the bus.

On the following day, June 2, Father Ryan will celebrate his first Mass at St. John the Evangelist Church in Attleboro, which all are welcome to attend. That Mass will be at 1 p.m.

On Sunday, June 23, Father Ryan will celebrate Mass at Our Lady of Mount Carmel at 10:45 a.m., followed by a Corpus Christi Procession. Afterward, we will have a light reception in the lower church. (Please note the change in date, adjusted due to Father's Day on June 16).

Building a Culture of Vocations

Every month we pray for different vocations to support those who are responding to the Lord's call. In the month of May let us pray for Fr. Ray Cambra (pastor of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs in Seekonk), the men who were ordained to the Permanent Diaconate on May 18, Deacon Ryan Healy as he prepares for ordination to the priesthood, Steve Booth (a seminarian of our diocese who was ordained a transitional deacon on May 11), Ron and Claudette Larose for the gift of the bond of marriage, and Sr. Perpetua.

Bulletin deadline is Friday, May 24, for the June 1-2 bulletin. Please email notices to vickianndowning@yahoo.com or deliver them to the parish office. (You can receive the bulletin by email by visiting parishesonline.com/find/our-lady-of-mount-carmel-church-02771 and scrolling down to the "subscribe" button to enter your email address.)

Share your hopes and dreams for Catholic Social Services!

Executive Director Susan Mazzarella and parishioners of the Catholic Social Services Planning Commission are hosting a series of Listening Sessions as part of the Diocesan strategic planning process. Members of all parishes are invited to attend any of the sessions to offer their ideas about CSS.

Listening Sessions are scheduled on the following Saturdays:

- June 1, 10-11:30 a.m., St. Mary, North Attleborough
- June 1, Noon-1:30 p.m., St. Ann, Raynham
- June 1, 2-3:30 p.m., Good Shepherd, Fall River
- June 8, 10-11:30 a.m., St. Francis Xavier, Hyannis
- June 8, 2-3:30 p.m., St. Mary, New Bedford

Please come to hear about how CSS is serving those in need, and to share your ideas about how CSS can partner with our parishes.

New deacon coming here

Last week Bishop daCunha ordained Steven Booth to the transitional diaconate. Deacon Steve just finished his third theology year at St. John's Seminary and is preparing for his last year in the seminary. Prior to entering St. John's, Deacon Steve spent four years at Our Lady of Providence Seminary for his four years of college seminary formation (he studied at Providence College). Deacon Steve is from Dartmouth and his home parish is St. Francis Xavier Church in Acushnet. He has several siblings and is the youngest in his family. He also has several nephews and nieces. He is 25 years old. I am certain this parish will show him great support as you have done with Deacon Ryan. As he is just beginning his life as clergy of the diocese, any encouragement and feedback would always be appreciated. It is always encouraging and uplifting to see these young men responding to the call from the Lord. Let us pray for him that he will always be that joyful, humble, and courageous example of Christ for others, and that he will proclaim the gospel always even when it may be challenging for him to proclaim it or challenging for us to live it.

Healing the Soul

This Tuesday, May 21, we will hold our support group meeting for anyone going through struggles in life and would like a supportive group that will listen and support you emotionally and spiritually. It is open for anyone of the ages of 18 years and older. The group meets in the downstairs of the church from 6-7 p.m. Many who have attended have found it helpful being able to share and listen to others, encouraging them in whatever challenges they have been facing.

Ascension Thursday Masses

Thursday, May 30, is Ascension Thursday, and it is a holy day of obligation. The Masses here will be at 9 a.m., noon, and 6:30 p.m. If you know you will not be able to make those times, please check with other churches in the area regarding their Mass times as well. (The other Catholic church in Seekonk is Our Lady, Queen of Martyrs; in North Dighton is St. Nicholas of Myra; and there are several churches in East Providence and Pawtucket).

Corpus Christi procession, altars

On Sunday, June 23, there will be a Corpus Christi Eucharistic Procession immediately after the 10:45 a.m. Mass, which the newly ordained Father Ryan Healy will celebrate for us. The procession will simply go around to four altars around the parking lot, stopping at each one to reflect on the gift of Jesus Christ in Eucharist, singing songs in honor of the Lord, and praying for different intentions. It is my hope each altar will be decorated by parishioners and when we go to each altar one of the set of prayers we will pray there will be for the intentions of that individual or family (or group of people who team up to set up the altar). If you are interested in being one of those who decorates one of the altars please contact Fr. Kevin. Usually the total time for the procession, concluding with Benediction, is 45 minutes. If the weather is bad that day, we will do the prayers in the church immediately after Mass with the Eucharist Exposed and conclude with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. After the Corpus Christi Procession, we will have a reception for Fr. Healy downstairs in the lower church so people can chat with him and receive his first blessing.

Father Kevin Cook

Performance by Vatican III

This Friday, May 24, at 7 p.m. at Holy Family Parish Center, 438 Middleboro Ave., East Taunton, there will be a performance by Vatican III, a jazz band made up of two priests and two seminarians. It should be an enjoyable, relaxing evening and entertaining to see them perform. The two seminarians (Matt Laird and Larry Valliere) and one of the priests (Fr. Matt Gill) are from our diocese. Tickets are only $5.

Catholic Charities Appeal

Thanks to so many of you who have responded so generously to the Catholic Charities Appeal! This Appeal helps so many different agencies in our dioceses that give direct help to those facing many different needs. The Appeal will run until the end of June. Please keep the Appeal in your prayers, and for those who have not given and can give, even if it may seem like a small amount to you, please consider it because there is such a great need. Proceeds fund diocesan charitable services and programs that provide shelter, food, clothing, counseling, advocacy support, and faith formation. Thank you, everyone!

— Fr. Kevin

Society of St. Vincent de Paul

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL HELPS PEOPLE

The just care for the cause of the poor;
The wicked do not understand such care.
Proverbs 29:7

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus says, "I give you a new commandment: love one another, even as I have loved you …This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."
By reaching out and praying for those in need, you show that you have love for one another, especially the suffering and the poor, and you show that you are disciples of Jesus.
May The Lord bless you and keep you,
The Lord let his face shine upon you,
and be gracious to you,
The Lord look upon you kindly and give you peace.
Numbers 6:24-26

If you know anybody who needs help, contact the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, 401-603-8888..

There are no meetings during the summer, but our phone is always active and our Vincentians are always available to serve those in need.

Thanks from Doorways food pantry

Dear Fr. Cook,

On behalf of the volunteers and clients of Doorways, we'd like to thank you and the parishioners of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church for your renewed generosity in the recent parish food drive. Your parish gift supports many Seekonk residents who are facing challenging times, and the food you provided will grace the dinner tables of households throughout our community for weeks to come. More than 60 local families rely on Doorways on a regular basis, and Doorways, in turn, relies on people like you and your parishioners.

Our Lady of Mount Carmel is a valued partner with Doorways in the fight against hunger, with your congregation supplying food, funds, and volunteers to sustain our mission. Your continued support is a blessing to us. We estimate that over the last 17 years we have given away over one million pounds of food at no cost to our clients. And yet the need continues.

Thank you again. We are very grateful for your support. God bless you all.

Sincerely,
Gerard McCabe

Quo Vadis Days for boys 14-19

The Diocese of Fall River Vocation Office will run Quo Vadis Days from July 8-12 at Betania II Retreat Center in Medway. This retreat/camp is a great time for boys ages 14-19 (those entering high school to those entering college) to seek to grow in their faith and fraternity, learning how to discern what is one of the most important things in life: their vocation. Throughout the week there are times of prayer and sports, talks on living the faith and understanding the different vocations, Mass and Adoration, mountain hiking, and fraternity. It is a great chance to build friendships with others their age who are living their faith, as well as to get to know the seminarians of the diocese. The cost is only $100. If any young man is interested, please fill out the Quo Vadis brochure in the church.

Caring for the Soul meets May 21

Caring for the Soul: A Parish Support Group for Emotional Issues, will meet on Tuesday, May 21, from 6-7 p.m. in the lower church.

This community offers peer support to people ages 18 and older seeking encouragement around their own emotional issues and those of loved ones. The pastoral service offers the gift of hope on the path to recovery in an accepting and compassionate environment. We explore the role that faith and spirituality have in the quest for emotional wellness. For information, ontact Kelly Kugel, 254-319-4981, or Christine Shreve, 401-374-2089.
