Bus for Deacon Ryan's June 1 ordination

Deacon Ryan Healy will be ordained to the priesthood on Saturday, June 1, at 11 a.m. at the Cathedral of St. Mary of the Assumption in Fall River. All are welcome to attend.

Parking at the cathedral is limited, so to make it easier to attend, the parish will reserve a school bus if parishioners are interested. Please call the parish office, 508-336-5549, by Friday, May 24, to reserve a spot on the bus.

On the following day, June 2, Father Ryan will celebrate his first Mass at St. John the Evangelist Church in Attleboro, which all are welcome to attend. That Mass will be at 1 p.m.

On Sunday, June 23, Father Ryan will celebrate Mass at Our Lady of Mount Carmel at 10:45 a.m., followed by a Corpus Christi Procession. Afterward, we will have a light reception in the lower church. (Please note the change in date, adjusted due to Father's Day on June 16).

Mass intentions now being accepted

The parish office is now accepting Mass intentions for July through December 2019. You may call the office, 508-336-5549, or stop by to schedule Masses.

The SANCTUARY LAMP is burning this week for Charles Laurence.

PLEASE PRAY for the soul of Pat Hunt, whose funeral was celebrated at Our Lady of Mount Carmel.

Coffee Sunday has ended for the season. It will resume after Labor Day, on Sunday, Sept. 9, after the 7:30 and 9 a.m. Masses.

Bulletin deadline is Friday, May 31, for the June 8-9 bulletin. Please email notices to vickiannndowning@yahoo.com or deliver them to the parish office. (You can receive the bulletin by email by visiting parishesonline.com/find/our-lady-of-mount-carmel-church-02771 and scrolling down to the "subscribe" button to enter your email address.)

Pastor's Page

This Saturday, June 1, Deacon Ryan will be ordained a priest. At the Mass, after the Gospel, Deacon Ryan will be called forward and the bishop will inquire about his worthiness of being ordained. After this moving scene of the acknowledgement of his worthiness, the bishop will then preach his homily. Before he is to be ordained, Deacon Ryan is going to be questioned about his intention of being ordained to make sure it is with the mind of the Church. So, after the homily, the candidate then stands before the bishop.

The bishop will ask him the following questions, to which Deacon Ryan will answer, "I am:"

"Are you resolved, with the help of the Holy Spirit, to discharge without fail the office of priesthood in the presbyteral order as a conscientious fellow worker with the bishops in caring for the Lord's flock? Are you resolved to celebrate the mysteries of Christ faithfully and religiously as the Church has handed them down to us for the glory of God and the sanctification of Christ's people? Are you resolved to hold the mystery of the faith with a clear conscience as the Apostle urges, and to proclaim this faith in word and action as it is taught by the Gospel and the Church's tradition? Are you resolved to maintain and deepen a spirit of prayer appropriate to your way of life and, in keeping with what is required of you, to celebrate faithfully the liturgy of the hours for the Church and for the whole world? Are you resolved to exercise the ministry of the word worthily and wisely, preaching the gospel and explaining the Catholic faith? Are you resolved to consecrate your life to God for the salvation of his people, and to unite yourself more closely every day to Christ the High Priest, who offered himself for us to the Father as a perfect sacrifice?"

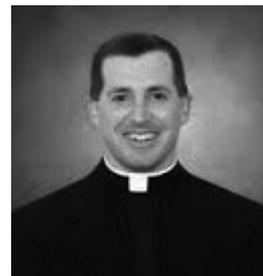

The deacon then goes to the bishop and, kneeling before him, places his joined hands between those of the bishop, and makes a promise to respect and obey the bishop and his successors. After, he lies prostrate in the aisle, and the bishop prays that the all-powerful Father may pour out the gifts of heaven on this servant whom he has chosen to be a priest. The cantor then sings the Litany of the Saints along with the whole church, asking the intercession of the saints and the mercy of the Lord as Deacon Ryan is about to be ordained. After, the bishop prays: "Hear us, Lord our God, and pour out upon this servant of yours the blessing of the Holy Spirit and the grace and power of the priesthood. In your sight we offer this man for ordination: support him with your unfailing love. We ask this through Christ our Lord."

Deacon Ryan then goes to the bishop and kneels before him. The bishop lays his hands on the candidate's head, in silence. Next all the priests present lay their hands upon the candidate, in silence. After the laying on of hands, the priests remain on either side of the bishop until the prayer of consecration is completed. The candidate kneels before the bishop. With his hands extended over the candidate, the bishop prays the prayer of consecration. It is the laying on of hands by the bishop and the prayer of consecration that make Deacon Ryan become Father Ryan.

Then one of the priests vests the newly ordained with the stole and chasuble. Father Healy kneels before the bishop who anoints his palms with chrism. The bishop says: "The Father anointed our Lord Jesus Christ through the power of the Holy Spirit. May Jesus preserve you to sanctify the Christian people and to offer sacrifice to God."

Then the bishop and the new priest wash their hands. One of the deacons assists the bishop in receiving the gifts of the people, and he prepares the bread on the paten and the wine and water in the chalice for the celebration of Mass. He brings the paten and chalice to the bishop, who hands them to the new priest as he kneels before him. The bishop says: "Accept from the holy people of

Father Kevin Cook

God the gifts to be offered to him. Know what you are doing, and imitate the mystery you celebrate: model your life on the mystery of the Lord's cross." Lastly, the bishop stands and gives the kiss of peace to the new priest, saying: "Peace be with you." Then the priests present also give the kiss of peace to the newly ordained, and once it is completed, he then sits among the priests in the sanctuary to concelebrate the Mass.

Holy Hour for Deacon Ryan

On Friday, May 31, we will have a holy hour in the church at 7 p.m. to pray for vocations, and in particular for Deacon Ryan as he prepares for ordination. All are welcome and encouraged to attend.

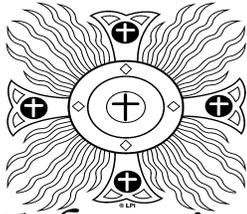

Please stop stealing!

Recently people have been taking things from the Adoration Chapel. In the last month we have put some nice rosaries (one was purchased in Fatima) in the hands of the statue of Our Lady of Fatima, and someone keeps taking them.

This is stealing and breaking of the seventh commandment. If the person who took the rosaries would please return them by putting them back in the hands of the statue of Our Lady in the chapel it would be greatly appreciated. Free rosaries are available in the basket on the smaller brown shelf. Also, if anyone has taken any books home from the chapel, please return them immediately.

The Adoration Chapel is meant to be a place of prayer. Please respect what we are trying to foster here. If these behaviors continue we will have to look into installing security cameras which just adds more expenses to the parish and effects people's ability to trust. I am sorry to have to post this but something that should be obvious to all is sadly not respected by some. — Fr. Kevin

Eucharistic

Adoration

St. Joseph Adoration Chapel

Our Lady of Mount Carmel Parish offers perpetual adoration of the Eucharist — 24 hours a day, seven days a week — in St. Joseph Adoration Chapel.

The Eucharist is a priceless treasure: by not only celebrating it but also by praying before it outside of Mass we are enabled to make contact with the very wellspring of grace.

— St. Pope John Paul II

Adorers and substitutes are needed. You can sign up for any hour that works in your schedule. Please contact Linda Nason, Adoration Coordinator, 508-463-6723.

Adorers are needed:

- Saturday: 4 p.m., 6 p.m., 8 p.m.
- Sunday: 1 p.m., 4 p.m., 8 p.m.
- Monday: 2 a.m., 8 a.m.
- Wednesday: 3 a.m., 7 a.m., 8 a.m., 5 p.m.
- Thursday: 11 a.m., 4 p.m.

Substitutes are needed:

- Saturday: 4 p.m., 5 p.m., 8 p.m., 10 p.m.
- Monday, 10 a.m., midnight
- Tuesday: 11 p.m.

The Chaplet of Divine Mercy is prayed in the adoration chapel Monday through Saturday at 3 p.m.

A rosary for priests and all vocations is prayed in the adoration chapel every Thursday at 2:30 p.m.

A novena to St. Anne for the protection of children is prayed every Friday at noon in the adoration chapel.

A statue of the Blessed Mother, located in the first confessional in the adoration chapel, can be borrowed for one week. Please use the sign-out sheet.

Society of St. Vincent de Paul

Blessed the one concerned for the poor,
on a day of misfortune,
the Lord delivers him.
Psalm 41:2

Today, through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we not only share the same fate that was given to the apostles, we also have the same Holy Spirit as our divine Teacher and Helper.

May we all listen attentively to God's word and allow his Holy Spirit to give us understanding of God's truth and plan for our lives.

If you know anybody who needs help, contact the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, 401-603-8888..

There is no meeting during the summer but we are always available for those who need help. .

Corpus Christi procession, altars on June 23

On Sunday, June 23, there will be a Corpus Christi Eucharistic Procession immediately after the 10:45 a.m. Mass, which the newly ordained Father Ryan Healy will celebrate for us.

The procession will simply go around to four altars around the parking lot, stopping at each one to reflect on the gift of Jesus Christ in Eucharist, singing songs in honor of the Lord, and praying for different intentions. It is my hope each altar will be decorated by parishioners and when we go to each altar one of the set of prayers we will pray there will be for the intentions of that individual or family (or group of people who team up to set up the altar). If you are interested in being one of those who decorates one of the altars, please contact me.

Usually the total time for the procession, concluding with Benediction, is 45 minutes. If the weather is bad that day, we will do the prayers in the church immediately after Mass with the Eucharist Exposed and conclude with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. After the Corpus Christi Procession, we will have a reception for Father Healy downstairs in the lower church so people can chat with him and receive his first blessing.

— Father Kevin

Building a Culture of Vocations

Every month we pray for different vocations to support those who are responding to the Lord's call. In the month of May let us pray for Fr. Ray Cambra (pastor of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs in Seekonk), the men who were ordained to the Permanent Diaconate on May 18, Deacon Ryan Healy as he prepares for ordination to the priesthood, Steve Booth (a seminarian of our diocese who was ordained a transitional deacon on May 11), Ron and Claudette Larose for the gift of the bond of marriage, and Sr. Perpetua.

6TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

College scholarships available

East Commerce Solutions, Inc. will again sponsor the WWJD Make A Difference Scholarship to recognize those students who strive to live by the principles of their Catholic faith.

- The applicant must be a registered member of Our Lady of Mount Carmel and a member of a high school graduating class of 2019.
- The applicant must be enrolling in an accredited, post-secondary, four-year institution, technical school, or community college.

Two $1,500 scholarships will be awarded to the applicants who most exemplify living their Catholic faith and by their example to others. Applicants will be chosen because they have demonstrated their commitment to their faith, living as Jesus calls us, and therefore making a difference in the lives of those around them.

The application deadline is Wednesday, June 12. Applications can be found on the parish website, olmcseekonk.org, and at the church entrances. Completed applications should be brought to the parish office.

No Cancer Support meeting on June 1

The Seekonk Catholic Cancer Support meeting is cancelled for Saturday, June 1. The Anointing of the Sick will take place just prior to the 9 a.m. Mass. Cancer Support will not meet after Mass because several members are planning to attend Deacon Ryan's ordination in Fall River.

Notice to parents of new Grade 1 students

If your child is entering Grade 1 in the fall, we look forward to having your child join our Faith Formation Program! We ask all those entering first grade in fall 2019 to try to register for Faith Formation by the end of June for planning purposes.

First Grade is "year 1" of the two-year sacramental preparation for the Sacraments of Reconciliation and Eucharist. You will find the registration form on the Faith Formation page of the Parish website: www.olmcseekonk.org

Go to the "Ministries" tab, click on Faith Formation, and scroll down to "Faith Formation Registration Form 2019-2020 for New Students," listed under the Program Documents.

If you are interested in volunteering in our program, please go to the "Volunteer Page" above the Faith Formation Page to see what the Diocesan and Parish requirements are to volunteer. I look forward to meeting you soon. If I can be of assistance, please do not hesitate to call my office, 508-336-9015, or email me, m.brawley.olmc@gmail.com.

God bless,

Mrs. Maureen Brawley

Deacon Steven Booth to be assigned here

Steven Booth, who was ordained this month to the traditional diaconate by Bishop daCunha, will be coming to Our Lady of Mount Carmel. Deacon Steve just finished his third theology year at St. John's Seminary and is preparing for his last year in the seminary. Prior to entering St. John's, he spent four years at Our Lady of Providence Seminary for his college seminary formation (he studied at Providence College).

Deacon Steve, who is 25, is from Dartmouth and his home parish is St. Francis Xavier Church in Acushnet. He has several siblings and is the youngest in his family. He also has several nephews and nieces. I am certain this parish will show him great support as you have done with Deacon Ryan. As he is just beginning his life as clergy of the diocese, any encouragement and feedback would be appreciated. It is always encouraging and uplifting to see these young men responding to the call from the Lord. Let us pray for him that he will always be that joyful, humble, and courageous example of Christ for others, and that he will proclaim the gospel always even when it may be challenging for him to proclaim it or challenging for us to live it.
