Congratulations to Father Ryan Healy

On Sunday, June 2, Father Ryan will celebrate his first Mass at St. John the Evangelist Church in Attleboro, which all are welcome to attend. That Mass will be at 1 p.m.

On Sunday, June 23, Father Ryan will celebrate Mass at Our Lady of Mount Carmel at 10:45 a.m. Immediately after, we will have a light reception in the lower church so that parishioners may congratulate Father Ryan and receive his first blessing.

Corpus Christi procession, altars on June 23

On Sunday, June 23, there will be a Corpus Christi Eucharistic Procession at 2 p.m. (please note the change in time).

The procession will go around to four altars around the parking lot, stopping at each one to reflect on the gift of Jesus Christ in Eucharist, singing songs in honor of the Lord, and praying for different intentions. It is my hope each altar will be decorated by parishioners and at each altar, one set of prayers we will be for the intentions of that individual or family (or group of people who team up to set up the altar). If you are interested in being one of those who decorates one of the altars, please contact Father Kevin. The procession, concluding with Benediction, usually takes 45 minutes. In case of bad weather, the prayers will take place in the church with the Eucharist Exposed and conclude with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament

Pastor's Page

Last week I mentioned about some things being taken out of the Adoration Chapel and I know some people were disturbed by it in different ways. First, I apologize if by my previous writing I came across as accusing parishioners. I know we have many people from outside the parish that come to our Perpetual Adoration Chapel so it may not be someone from the parish who has taken things. I should have reread my posting to check for the tone of it before sending it to be put in the bulletin (but I did not, and I apologize if I let the frustration of things being taken get to me in my writing). I understand some people may have taken things not with a sense of maliciousness but may be thinking these things are free for people to take. But, it is important that people be aware what is appropriate and not appropriate regarding things in the chapel. Sometimes we need to be reminded or understand that though there are things made available for everyone to use to help them in prayer in the chapel, it does not mean they can take those things home even if they find it is helping them. If one finds something in the chapel helpful and would like to continue to use or have it, then simply ask me if it would be possible. It is like in a family, sometimes a sibling may go into another's room because they want to use something their sibling has, and as a parent you have to remind your kids that they need to ask first or it is a form of stealing if they take it.

The reason I bring this forward is because several things were taken as of late from the chapel. Are they major things? No. But nonetheless we need to be respectful of what belongs to others, even if it is small in value. First, there were rosaries put on the statue of Our Lady of Fatima to help beautify the image and the chapel. As I mentioned, one of those rosaries was purchased by a parishioner in Fatima, Portugal, to add to the beauty of the statue. So, when they were taken it obviously was upsetting. Does it matter whether the rosary on the statue is a nice set of rosaries or plastic rosaries? Ultimately no, but it was a generous, thoughtful gift that we should respect. Previously, another nice rosary was given as a gift and it was put on the statue, and that was taken as well. For those who would like a rosary, we usually have on the shelf in the corner a small basket with rosaries for people to have. But, if one wants a nicer quality of rosary, one should look into buying one instead of taking a nice rosary that was placed on the image of Our Lady.

The other things that have been taken have been some of the books which we make available for people to read and pray with in the chapel. I understand that some people find a book helpful and take it home with the plan of returning it later, but we should remember others may need the aid of those books as well. So, I would encourage people to bring a personal bookmark to mark where you left off, or just keep a little notebook and make a note in it as to which book you were reading and where you left off so next time you come to the chapel you can pick up where you were reading before. And if a book is something you find very helpful, then you should consider buying it in a Catholic bookstore or ordering it online. If you are thinking about removing a book because you think it is questionable, please run it past me and I will take responsibility to remove it or not.

If by any chance you took some books, or the rosaries that were on the statue of Our Lady, please put them back where you found them.

The chapel is meant for anyone to come in and spend time in prayer before Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. We, as children of God, are all in need for the Lord's grace and guidance. None of us is perfect but all of us are sinners who need the Lord to strengthen, guide, forgive, and transform us. Perpetual Adoration is an amazing gift that I hope everyone takes advantage of. We all need time to rest and listen to the Lord, to open to him our hearts and minds. We obviously can and should pray wherever we are, but to spend time before Jesus in the Eucharist is a great gift from God.

Cursillo Convocation

On Saturday, June 22, Cursillo Movement will hold a day-long event for Cursillistas and for adults friends and families who are interested in learning about Cursillo. The event is being held at Stonehill College (in the Ames Sports Complex, 320 Washington St., Easton) from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. The day will have a keynote speaker, faith sharing, rosary, music, lunch, interactive discussion panel, and closing Mass celebrated by Bishop daCunha. It should be a beautiful day in faith and seeks to energize all Cursillistas to be a spark of renewal in the Church. If interested, register at fallriverdiocese.org, retreathouse.org, or saintbasils.org. The cost is $20 per person and one must register by June 15.

Pentecost Taize Prayer Service

On Sunday, June 9, St. John Neumann Church in East Freetown will have a Taize Prayer Service at 7 p.m. to which all are welcome. A taize service consists of readings, singing with taize style music, and silence. The address is 157 Middleboro Road, East Freetown.

Changes to Corpus Christi Procession

On Sunday, June 23, there will be a Corpus Christi Eucharistic Procession at 2 p.m. Originally, we were going to have it immediately after the 10:45 a.m. Mass, but since many may not be able to stay for both the procession and Father Ryan Healy's reception, we will have the reception immediately after Mass and the procession at 2.

Society of St. Vincent de Paul

The just care for the cause of the poor; the wicked do not understand such care.

Proverbs 29:7

Today, as we celebrate the feast of the Ascension, we are reminded that Christ's saving work on earth continues through his disciples ... and today that means through us. Jesus always talked about the poor with great love, and now it is up to us to love and serve those in need. We must pray for them and reach out to them however we can.

Peter Maurin, who worked with Dorothy Day to form the Catholic Worker newspaper, wrote: “What we give to the poor for Christ's sake is what we carry with us when we die.”

Words to ponder.

If you know anybody who needs help, contact the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, 401-603-8888..

There are no meetings during the summer, but the society is active all year for anybody who needs help and can be reached at the number above.

Day of Recollection For Women

On Saturday, June 8, there will be a Day of Recollection for Women following the 8 a.m. Mass. The day begins at 9 a.m. with Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament.

There will be two preached meditations, a talk by a lay woman, Confessions, and Benediction at 10:30 a.m. All women are welcome to take part.

A Mission of Mercy and Healing

Save the date: On the evenings of July 14-16 we will have a mission at Our Lady of Mount Carmel to prepare for the Feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel.

The speakers will be Kitty Cleveland, a nationally known, inspirational Catholic speaker and singer, and Father Chris Alar, MIC. Looking to the example and intercession of Our Lady, we will focus on the message of the need for God's mercy and healing in our souls, families, parishes, and the Church.

Building a Culture of Vocations

Every month we pray for different vocations to support those who are responding to the Lord's call.

In the month of June, let us pray for Father Ryan Healy as he begins his life as a priest, Deacon Steve Booth as he begins his assignment here, Richard and Linda Pinelle for the gift of the bond of marriage, and Sr. Perpetua for the beautiful vocation to religious life.

Deacon Steven Booth to be assigned here

Steven Booth, who was ordained this month to the traditional diaconate by Bishop daCunha, will be coming to Our Lady of Mount Carmel. Deacon Steve just finished his third theology year at St. John's Seminary and is preparing for his last year in the seminary. Prior to entering St. John's, he spent four years at Our Lady of Providence Seminary for his college seminary formation (he studied at Providence College).

Deacon Steve, who is 25, is from Dartmouth and his home parish is St. Francis Xavier Church in Acushnet. He has several siblings and is the youngest in his family. He also has several nephews and nieces. I am certain this parish will show him great support as you have done with Deacon Ryan. As he is just beginning his life as clergy of the diocese, any encouragement and feedback would be appreciated. It is always encouraging and uplifting to see these young men responding to the call from the Lord. Let us pray for him that he will always be that joyful, humble, and courageous example of Christ for others, and that he will proclaim the gospel always even when it may be challenging for him to proclaim it or challenging for us to live it.
