Serving Catholics in the Texas Panhandle - Roman Catholic Diocese of Amarillo

January 18, 2026

Leading Off

Nazareth—The third in a series of Youth Mini-Retreats will take place Saturday, Jan. 24 at Holy Family Church, 210 St. Joseph St.

The gathering for youth in the South Deanery begins at 1:30pm, according to Diocesan Youth Director Oscar Guzman. There is no admission fee for the rally.

“As we did at the gatherings in Dumas and Groom last fall, this mini-rally will focus on the truth about the truth,” he said. “This will include discussions on objective truth vs. subjective truth. We hope youths in the South Deanery of the diocese will join us in Nazareth and be enlightened by the truth.”

Those youths planning to attend must register with their parish group, according to Guzman. For more information, please contact Guzman at 806-383-2243, ext. 118 or via email, oguzman@dioama.org. Additional information can also be found online at amarillo-diocese.org/deanery-mini-retreats or by contacting your parish priest or youth leader.

Deacon Mauricio Valadez To Be Ordained To The Priesthood

Amarillo—Deacon Mauricio Valadez, a seminarian for the Diocese of Amarillo, will be ordained to the Priesthood by Bishop Patrick J. Zurek during a 10:30am Mass Saturday, Jan. 31 at St. Mary’s Cathedral, 1200 South Washington.

The Ordination Mass is open to the public and the Faithful are encouraged to attend and show their support for Deacon Valadez and for vocations in the Diocese of Amarillo. The newly-ordained Father Valadez will celebrate two first Masses on Sunday, Feb. 1 at St. Mary’s Church, 22830 Pondaseta Road in Umbarger—in English at 9:00am and in Spanish at noon.

Deacon Valadez, 30, was born in Lagos de Moreno, Jalisco, Mexico and is the son of Miguel Valadez Ramírez and Angélica Gallardo González. Deacon Valadez has five siblings: Miguel, Elizabeth, Milagros, Mary and Maira.

In a Dec. 30 interview for The West Texas Catholic in Umbarger, Deacon Valadez was asked about his journey to the United States:

“I have a deep regard for immigrants,” he said. “I believe that it is very important to provide for them the evangelization that comes from God. Not only to the Latin people but to all Americans. In México I liked how I could see that Latin people had great need for Faith in Christ. All that got my attention, and that’s why I also want to be in the United States to support the Latino community and also the American community—evangelizing all—because that is my mission, to evangelize people. My vocation has been for them. I initially studied in México, but the American life got my attention, and that’s why I made the decision to come to the United States.

“I was attracted to the Diocese of Amarillo because I met Father Gabriel (García) in México while I was in another seminary. He was promoting a seminary and that got my attention, so I visited with him, and when I made the decision to change seminaries from México to the United States, he helped me in all of that. It has been interesting because, thanks be to God, the process for me to be incardinated into the Diocese of Amarillo was quick and did not take very long. So, everything has been by the Grace of God.”

Deacon Valadez was asked what advice he would give to someone discerning a vocation to the priesthood...

“Approach the priests,” he said. “Priests are the right people who can help you direct your vocation. Don’t be afraid to serve Christ. Christ reveals Himself through many people.

“Do not be afraid of what people are going to say about you, because God is the person who guides us at all times. He is the only one who judges us and is the only one who tells us, I am here to help you in what you need. He is going to send the right person to you, but He tells you not to be afraid because He will be with you. Follow Christ because He will always take you by the hand.”

Deacon Valadez is the first priest to be ordained for the Diocese of Amarillo since Father Ryan Winger on June 1, 2024.

For additional information about vocations in the Diocese of Amarillo, please call Father Garcia at St. Joseph’s Church, Amarillo, at 806-355-5621.

Diocese Passes 2024-2025 Safe Environment Audit

By Deacon Blaine Westlake

In a letter from StoneBridge dated Dec. 15, The Most Reverend Patrick J. Zurek was notified that the Diocese of Amarillo has been declared to have complied with the Data Collection Process as required by the U.S. Catholic Conference of Bishops (USCCB) Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People.

The diocese underwent the Charter Safe Environment audit conducted by Stonebridge Business Partners which covered the audit period July 1, 2024 to June 30, 2025.

Stonebridge is an independent auditing firm commissioned by the USCCB to oversee the implementation of the Charter and to ensure compliance with its mandates.

During the audit period of July 1, 2024 to June 30, 2025, there were 4,923 of the 5,077 registered minors who received Safe Environment Training at parishes and Catholic Schools, with only 25 parents opting out of the training. There are 2,295 Volunteers plus 36 Priests, 41 Deacons, 12 Candidates for Ordination, 95 Educators, 288 Diocesan, School and Parish Employees, for a total of 2,767 who are cleared to serve and minister to our children and youth.

Bishop Zurek wishes to offer a special thanks to all Pastors, Principals, Christian Formation Directors/Coordinators, Youth Directors, Safe Environment Coordinators, Trainers, Teachers and Volunteers who worked so hard and continue to do so, year after year, to keep our parishes, schools and Catholic institutions a safe place for everyone, and most especially our children.

Deacon Blaine Westlake, who is noting his 30th anniversary this year of his ordination to the Permanent Diaconate, is Director of Safe Environment for the Diocese of Amarillo. He can be reached at 806-383-2243, ext. 117, or via email, bwestlake@dioama.org.

Guest Column: Respect Life Mass And Rosary

By Karlynn Hochstein

I warmly invite all Faithful of the Diocese of Amarillo to attend the Respect Life Mass and Rosary Saturday, Jan. 24 at St. Mary's Cathedral, 1200 South Washington, Amarillo. January is known as Sanctity of Human Life month since the Supreme Court decision in the Roe v. Wade case which legalized abortion on Jan. 22, 1973. While there has been encouraging progress in fostering a culture of life in recent years—not only in Amarillo, but throughout Texas and our nation—our work is far from complete. There are no longer physical facilities in our area that perform abortions and laws have made abortion more difficult to access; however, chemical abortions have been on the rise and now account for more than half of all abortions, which reminds us that the dignity of human life remains under serious threat and is something that we as Catholics should do something about. In the face of these challenges, turning to God through the Holy Mass and the Rosary remains among the most powerful responses available to us.

Our Blessed Mother gave her courageous “yes” to God amid uncertainty and fear, trusting fully in His plan. Praying the Rosary together as a community is especially fitting, as Mary understands the worries and anxieties carried by the women we lift up in prayer. They are in need of her maternal counsel and comfort and we have that our prayers are powerful and we are all called to help defend the most vulnerable and be their voice.

The Holy Mass stands in stark contrast to the violence of abortion as it celebrates Christ laying down His life for all humanity. In the Mass, we glorify God and unite ourselves to His victory over sin and death. God is sovereign and has already won the battle. Trusting in His promises, we turn to Him in a special way this month and ask Him to transform hearts and minds and to strengthen a culture of life from conception to natural death in all people. As Matthew 18 reminds us, there is power in God's Faithful coming together and praying together. We hope that all of you will join us on Jan. 24 to petition God as a community and pray for an end to abortion and healing for all of those already affected by it.

Karlynn Hochstein is a native of Umbarger residing in Nazareth. She began her duties as diocesan Family Life Director on Jan. 7.

Centennial Celebration Update

Amarillo—Additional events for the celebration of the Centennial of the Diocese of Amarillo have been announced by Father Lawrence John, JCL, Vicar General.

“On Jan. 7, Pope Leo XIV encouraged Catholics to ‘rediscover the teachings of Vatican II as a guiding star,’ inspiring us to live our Faith fully in the present day,” said Father John. “As we celebrate the Centennial of our diocese, this milestone is not just a remembrance of the past, but a celebration of how God has guided our people for a century. During this time, the Faithful are invited to grow spiritually through indulgences, pilgrimages and diocesan events.”

Faith is the focus of this month, with catechists, teachers and Catholic Schools are being honored. Each parish across all deaneries are participating in 100 Hours of Eucharistic Adoration.

The theme of February and March is Hope, according to Father John, with these months focusing on care for the sick and the elderly.

Bishop Patrick J. Zurek is scheduled to celebrate deanery-level Centennial Masses in three deaneries:

• Wednesday, Feb. 4 at 6:00pm for the North Deanery at Sts. Peter and Paul Church, 915 South Madrox, Dumas;

• Wednesday, Feb. 6, at 6:00pm for the Central Deanery at St. Hyacinth Church, 4500 West Hills Trail, Amarillo; and,

• Wednesday, Feb. 11, at 6:00pm for the East Deanery at St. Vincent de Paul Church, 810 West 23rd Street, Pampa.

A date for a Centennial Mass in the South Deanery had yet to be set at presstime.

Parishes are also celebrating a Mass for the Sick and Elderly, which includes Anointing of the Sick, according to Father John. Parishes are also making plans to host a Luncheon of Hope on Wednesday, Feb. 11, the Day of Prayer for the Sick, he added.

Prayer Intentions of Pope Leo XIV 2026

Please join the millions worldwide who pray each day for the monthly prayer intentions of Pope Leo XIV. Since 1844 the members of the Apostleship of Prayer have offered themselves to God for the salvation of souls, the Church, the intentions of all Apostles of Prayer and the intentions of the Pope. The Holy Father gives us two prayer intentions each month—one, a general intention and the other an intention for world missions.

January:

• For Prayer with the Word of God. Let us pray that praying with the Word of God be nourishment for our lives and a source of hope in our communities, helping us to build a more fraternal and missionary Church.

Catholic Schools in the Diocese of Amarillo will be closed Monday, Jan. 19 in observance of Martin Luther King Jr. Day. Catholic Schools will reopen on Tuesday, Jan. 20.

Rite Of Election: Sunday, Feb. 22

Amarillo—The Diocese of Amarillo invites the Faithful to the celebration of the Rite of Election of Catechumens and of Calling the Candidates to Continuing Conversion Sunday, Feb. 22 at 2:30pm at St. Mary's Cathedral, 1200 South Washington.

All participants in the Rite of Election of Catechumens and of Calling the Candidates to Continuing Conversion should be at St. Mary's Cathedral by no later than 1:30pm to receive final instructions, according to School Sister of Notre Dame Sister María Elena Ferrer, coordinator of Faith Formation for the Diocese of Amarillo.

"In the life of each diocesan Church in the United States and in many other countries, the first Sunday of Lent is very special for catechumens and candidates," said Sister María Elena. "After a period of catechesis in the Catechumenate and having celebrated the liturgical rites of this period, catechumens, as well as candidates, will be ready to gather with the Bishop at the Cathedral to begin the period of the Order of Christian Initiation (OCIA) process called Purification and Enlightenment. This period of deep interior reflection before the celebration of the sacraments at the Easter Vigil takes place during the 40 days of Lent.

"The title of the combined rite is Rite of Election of Catechumens and of Calling the Candidates to Continuing Conversion. This is necessary to maintain the distinction between the catechumens and the baptized candidates. Those who are baptized Catholic, or another Christian denomination are already members of the Christian community.

"The rite takes place at the Cathedral; however, each parish celebrates the Rite of Sending Cat- echumens for Election and Candidates for the Calling to Continuing Conversion at the parish church. Only the catechumens are presented to the parish community. Their catechists and sponsors give testimony about their readiness, after which they write their names in the BOOK OF THE ELECT. Candidates preparing for full communion and the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist may also be presented to the parish community. Since they are baptized their names have already been written in the Baptismal Registry and do not have to be entered in the Book of the Elect.

"Catechumens and their Godparents, candidates and their sponsors, parents, OCIA catechists and pastors are cordially invited to this awe-inspiring celebration at St. Mary's Cathedral on the First Sunday of Lent, Feb. 22 at 2:30pm."

Pope: Christians Must Resist Allure Of Power, Serve Humanity

Vatican City (CNS)—The powerful and violent cannot control, suppress or commodify God's grace, friendship and will to usher in a new dawn, Pope Leo XIV said.

"Around us, a distorted economy tries to profit from everything. We see how the marketplace can turn human yearnings of seeking, traveling and beginning again into a mere business," he said, celebrating Mass in St. Peter's Basilica Jan. 6, the feast of the Epiphany, and officially closing the celebration of the Holy Year dedicated to hope.

"Let us ask ourselves: has the Jubilee taught us to flee from this type of efficiency that reduces everything to a product and human beings to consumers?" he asked. "After this year, will we be better able to recognize a pilgrim in the visitor, a seeker in the stranger, a neighbor in the foreigner and fellow travelers in those who are different?"

Before the Mass, the pope, cardinals and bishops present in Rome, gathered in the atrium of the basilica and gave thanks to God for the gifts received during the Holy Year. Dozens of the world's cardinals were in Rome to attend the pope's first extraordinary consistory Jan. 7-8, to pray, support and advise the pope on the life and mission of the Church.

Pope Leo went to the threshold of the Holy Door and pulled each side shut. The door will be sealed until the next Holy Year, which is likely to be 2033, the 2,000th anniversary of the death and resurrection of Jesus.

While the last of the Holy Doors in the city was closing, "the gate" of God's mercy will never be shut, Pope Leo said before shutting the door. God "will always sustain the weary, raise up those who have fallen" and offer "good things" to those who place their trust in Him.

In his homily, Pope Leo compared the millions of men and women who came to Rome on pilgrimage to modern-day Magi, "who left palace and temple behind" in search of a new "king," which they found in the baby Jesus in a humble grotto in Bethlehem.

"Yes, the Magi still exist today. They are the people who sense the need to go out and search, accepting the risks associated with their journey, especially in a troubled world like ours that may be unpleasant and dangerous in many ways," he said.

However, Pope Leo cautioned, today's seekers must encounter in today's churches and sacred places the same humble source of life, hope and joy that the Magi encountered in Bethlehem.

"How important it is that those who pass through the doors of the church perceive therein that the Messiah has just been born, that a community gathers in which hope springs forth and that a story of life is unfolding!" he said.

"Jesus encountered and allowed himself to be approached by all people," he said, because "the Lord wants his presence to grow among us as God-with-us."

"No one can sell this to us. The child whom the Magi adore is a priceless and immeasurable good," the pope said, criticizing "a distorted economy," which even tries to exploit and commodify the human desire for freedom and true fulfillment.

God revealing Himself to humanity as man is "a gift," Pope Leo said. "He reveals Himself and lets Himself be found."

"His ways are not our ways, and the violent do not succeed in controlling them, nor can the powers of the world block them," he said, recalling the great joy the Magi felt upon finding the Messiah and despite Herod's efforts to destroy what had been promised. The fear and violence unleashed by King Herod "make us think of the many conflicts by which people resist and even damage the new things that God has in store for everyone," he said. "Loving and seeking peace means protecting what is holy and, consequently, that which is newly born like a small, vulnerable, fragile baby."

Deacon Terry Pevehouse

"God challenges the existing order," the pope said. "God is determined to rescue us from both old and new forms of slavery. He involves young and old, poor and rich, men and women, saints and sinners in his works of mercy and in the wonders of his justice."

"Let us ask ourselves: is there life in our Church? Is there space for something new to be born? Do we love and proclaim a God who sets us on a journey?" Pope Leo asked.

"Fear does indeed blind us. Conversely, the joy of the Gospel liberates us. It makes us prudent, yes, but also bold, attentive and creative; it beckons us along ways that are different from those already traveled," he said.

"It is wonderful to become pilgrims of hope," who journey together and are amazed by God's Faithfulness, he said.

"If we do not reduce our churches to monuments, if our communities are homes, if we stand united and resist the flattery and seduction of those in power, then we will be the generation of a new dawn," he said. In Jesus, "we will contemplate and serve an extraordinary humanity, transformed not by the delusions of the all-powerful, but by God who became flesh out of love."

"The poor are not there by chance or by blind and cruel fate. Nor, for most of them, is poverty a choice. Yet, there are those who still presume to make this claim, thus revealing their own blindness and cruelty."

—Pope Leo XIV

El Diácono Mauricio Valadez Será Ordenado al Sacerdocio

Amarillo—El Diácono Mauricio Valadez, seminarista para la Diócesis de Amarillo, será ordenado al Sacerdocio por el Obispo Patrick J. Zurek en Misa a las 10:00am el sábado, 31 de enero en la Catedral de Santa María, calle Washington 1200 Sur.

Se invita al público a la Misa de Ordenación y animamos a los fieles a ir y mostrar su apoyo por el Diácono Valadez y por las vocaciones en la Diócesis de Amarillo. La Misa se transmitirá a toda la diócesis por la Red de Radio Guadalupe: 1010AM y 94.5FM para Amarillo y Canyon y la estación de baja potencia KHFN-LP, 105.5FM en Nazareth para el Condado de Castro.

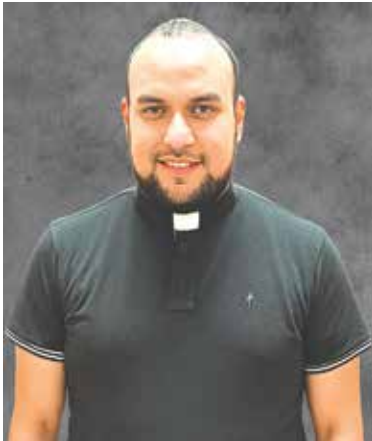

La Misa también se transmitirá en vivo en el sitio web de la Catedral de Santa María, stmarysamarillo.com.

El recién ordenado Padre Valadez va a celebrar sus primeras dos Misas el domingo, 1 de febrero en la Iglesia de Saint Mary, ubicada en Pondaseta Road 22830 en Umbarger—en inglés a las 9:00am y en español al mediodía.

El Diácono Valadez tiene 30 años. Nació en Lagos de Moreno, Jalisco, México y es uno de seis hijos de Miguel Valadez Ramírez y Angélica Gallardo González. Tiene un hermano, Miguel y cuatro hermanas: Elizabeth, Milagros, Mary y Maira.

En entrevista el 30 de diciembre, el West Texas Catholic le preguntó al Diácono Valadez acerca de su jornada a los Estados Unidos.

“Tengo un profundo respeto

Diácono Mauricio Valadez

por los inmigrantes”, dijo. “Creo que es muy importante dar la evangelización que viene de Dios, no sólo a los latinos sino a toda la gente americana. En México me llamó la atención que la gente latina tiene gran necesidad de una gran Fe en Cristo. Es por eso que también quiero servir en los Estados Unidos no sólo a la comunidad latina, sino también a la comunidad americana—evangelizar a todos—porque esa es mi misión, evangelizar a la gente. Mi vocación ha sido por ellos. Inicialmente estudié en México, pero la vida americana me llamó la atención y fue así como decidí venir a los Estados Unidos”.

“La Diócesis de Amarillo me atrajo cuando conocí al Padre Gabriel García en México al estar yo en otro seminario. Él promovía un seminario que me llamó la atención, fui con él a visitarlo y cuando decidí cambiar seminarios de México a los Estados Unidos, él me ayudó mucho en todos esos detalles. Ha sido interesante porque, gracias a Dios el proceso para que me incardinaran en la Diócesis de Amarillo fue rápido y no tomé mucho tiempo. Así que todo ha sido por la Gracia de Dios”.

Al preguntarle qué consejo daría él a alguien que esté considerando la vocación sacerdotal, él respondió...

“Acércate a los sacerdotes”, dijo. “Los sacerdotes son las personas correctas que te pueden ayudar a encaminar tu vocación. No tengas miedo de servir a Cristo. Cristo se revela por medio de muchas personas.

No tengas miedo de lo que la gente va a hablar de ti, porque Dios es la persona que nos encamina en todo momento. Él es el único que nos juzga y es el único que nos dice: aquí estoy para ayudarte en lo que necesitas. Por lo tanto, Él te va a poner a la persona indicada, pero Él te dice que no temas porque Él estará contigo. Sigue a Cristo porque Él siempre te va a tomar de la mano”.

Para información adicional sobre las vocaciones en la Diócesis de Amarillo, favor de llamar al Padre García en la Iglesia de San José en Amarillo, 806-355-5621.

Intenciones del Papa León XIV para 2026

Por favor únanse a millones de personas del mundo entero que cada día rezan por las intenciones mensuales del Papa. Desde 1884 los miembros del Apostolado de Oración se han ofrecido a Dios por la salvación de almas, la Iglesia, las intenciones de todos los Apóstoles de Oración y las intenciones del Papa. El Santo Padre nos da dos intenciones cada mes—una es intención general y la otra es por las intenciones mundiales.

Enero:

- Por la oración con la Palabra de Dios: Oremos para que la oración con la Palabra de Dios sea alimento en nuestras vidas y fuente de esperanza en nuestras comunidades, ayudándonos a construir una Iglesia más fraterna y misionera.

Rito de Elección: Domingo, Feb. 22

Amarillo—La Diócesis de Amarillo invita a los feligreses a celebrar el Rito de Elección de Catecúmenos y el Llamado a la Conversión Continua de Candidatos el domingo, 22 de febrero en la Catedral de Santa María, calle Washington 1200 Sur.

Participantes en el Rito de Elección de Catecúmenos y el Llamado a la Conversión Continua de Candidatos deben estar en la Catedral de Santa María antes de la 1:30pm para recibir instrucciones, dijo Sor María Elena Ferrer, Hermana Educadora de Nuestra Señora y coordinadora de Formación de Fe en la Diócesis de Amarillo.

“En la vida de cada Iglesia diocesana en los Estados Unidos y en muchos otros países, el primer domingo de Cuaresma es muy especial para los catecúmenos y candidatos”, dijo Sor María Elena. “Después de un largo período de catequesis de más de un año en el Catecumenado y de haber celebrado los ritos litúrgicos de este período, los catecúmenos y candidatos, se disponen a reunirse con el obispo en la Catedral para iniciar el período de Purificación e Iluminación en el Orden de Iniciación Cristiana (OICA). Este tiempo de profunda reflexión interior antes de celebrar los sacramentos en la Vigilia Pascual ocurre durante los 40 días de Cuaresma”.

“El título del rito combinado, El Rito de Elección de los Catecúmenos y el Llamado de Candidatos a la Conversión Continua, es necesario para mantener la distinción entre los catecúmenos y los candidatos ya bautizados. Los bautizados católicos o de otra denominación cristiana ya son miembros de la comunidad cristiana”.

“El rito ocurre en la Catedral; pero cada parroquia celebra en su propia iglesia el Rito de Envío de Catecúmenos para la Elección y de Candidatos al Llamado a la Conversión Continua. Sólo los catecúmenos se presentan a la comunidad parroquial. Sus catequistas y padrinos dan testimonio de su preparación y después escriben sus nombres en el LIBRO DE LOS ELEGIDOS. Los candidatos que se preparan para la comunión plena y los sacramentos de la Confirmación y la Eucaristía también pueden presentarse a la comunidad parroquial. Porque ya están bautizados, sus nombres están escritos en el Registro Bautismal y no tienen que ser apuntados en el Libro de los Elegidos”.

Se Necesitan Ministros de Comunión

entrenamiento, dijo Elma Fletcher. Interesados, favor de llamar a Elma Fletcher, 806-206-4496; o email a elma_fletcher@yahoo.com.

Artículo Invitado: Misa y Rosario por el Respeto a la Vida

Por Karlynn Hochstein

Invito cordialmente a todos los Fieles de la Diócesis de Amarillo a la Misa y Rosario por el Respeto a la Vida el sábado, 24 de enero en la Catedral de Santa María, calle Washington 1200 Sur en Amarillo. El mes de enero se conoce como mes de la Santidad de la Vida Humana desde que la Suprema Corte legalizó el aborto en la decisión Roe vs Wade el 22 de enero de 1973. En años recientes el progreso en apoyo a la cultura de la vida ha sido alentador—no sólo en Amarillo, sino en Texas y la nación—pero nuestra labor no está completa. Ya no hay centros de abortos en nuestra área y las leyes han hecho más difícil conseguirlos; pero los abortos químicos han aumentado y ahora constituyen más de la mitad de los abortos. Es señal que la dignidad de la vida humana aún tiene amenazas serias y es algo que debemos afrontar como católicos. Ante estos retos, acudir a Dios por medio de la Santa Misa y el Rosario sigue siendo una de las respuestas más poderosas a nuestro alcance.

Nuestra Santa Madre dijo “sí” a Dios con entereza ante la incertidumbre y el temor, con Fe completa en el plan divino. Cabe pues rezar juntos el Rosario en comunidad; María comprende las preocupaciones y ansiedades de las mujeres por quienes oramos. Ellas necesitan su consejo y confort materno y nosotros tenemos la oportunidad de orar por ellas. Cada mujer que considera el aborto tiene su historia particular y pesadas razones por las cuales considera el aborto como una opción. Quizá jamás comprenderemos según su perspectiva, pero debemos confiar que Dios puede alcanzarla y que Él tiene el poder para transformar corazones. Al embarcarnos en el Año Centenario de nuestra diócesis con enfoque en la Fe, esperanza, comunidad y misión, durante este mes tenemos muy en mente la Fe. Debemos tener Fe en que Dios puede usar todo para Su gloria, aún algo tan terrible como el aborto. También debemos tener Fe en que nuestras oraciones son poderosas y que somos llamados a defender a los más vulnerables y a ser su voz.

La Santa Misa hace fuerte contraste a la violencia del aborto pues celebra a Cristo entregando su vida por toda la humanidad. En la Misa, glorificamos a Dios y nos unimos a Su victoria sobre el pecado y la muerte. Dios es soberano y ya ha ganado la batalla. Confiando en Sus promesas, este mes nos dirigimos a Él en forma especial; le pedimos transformar corazones y mentes y fortalecer la cultura de vida desde la concepción hasta la muerte natural de toda persona. Mateo 18 nos recuerda que hay poder en la unión y oración comunitaria de los Fieles de Dios. Esperamos que todos ustedes nos acompañen el 24 de enero para rogar a Dios como comunidad y orar por el fin del aborto y por la sanación de quienes ya están afectados por el aborto.

Prayer Intentions of
2026

Please join the millions worldwide who pray each day for the monthly prayer intentions of Pope Leo XIV. Since 1844 the members of the Apostleship of Prayer have offered themselves to God for the salvation of souls, the Church, the intentions of all Apostles of Prayer and the intentions of the Pope. The Holy Father gives us two prayer intentions each month—one, a general intention and the other an intention for world missions.

February:

- For children with incurable diseases. Let us pray that children suffering from incurable diseases and their families receive the necessary medical care and support, never losing strength and hope.

Volunteers Needed For Childress Kolbe Retreat

Amarillo—Volunteers are still needed for the first Kolbe Prison Retreat of the year, scheduled at the T. L. Roach Unit of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice in Childress Thursday, Feb. 5 through Saturday, Feb. 7, according to Deacon Darryl Dixon, a member of the diocesan Prison Ministry team.

Team formation meetings for this retreat are underway, taking place Tuesday evenings through Feb. 3, from 6:30 to 8:30 in the parlor at St. Thomas the Apostle Church, 4100 South Coulter, Amarillo.

Deacon Dixon is seeking the support of 15 to 20 men from the Knights of Columbus, the ACTS Community and the Cursillo Movement to make the retreat at the Roach Unit of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice possible.

“We are asking for volunteers for these retreats and any assistance to this ministry will be greatly appreciated,” he said.

Additional dates for Kolbe Prison on Retreats this year include (subject to change):

• Thursday, June 4 to Saturday, June 6 at the William P. Clements Unit of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice in Amarillo; and,

• Thursday, Oct. 1 through Saturday, Oct. 3 at the Dalhart Unit of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice.

The Kolbe Retreats are named after St. Maximilian Kolbe, the Patron Saint of Prisoners, according to Deacon Dixon. St. Maximilian was a Polish Conventual Franciscan Friar who was sent to Auschwitz during World War II in 1941. When Nazi guards selected ten people to be put into an underground bunker to be starved to death in punishment for a prisoner escaping in July 1941, Father Kolbe volunteered to die in place of one of the men selected, Franciszek Gajowniczek. Father Kolbe died Aug. 14, 1941 after a lethal injection of carbolic acid. He was canonized as a Saint by Pope (now Saint) John Paul II on Oct. 10, 1982.

For more details or to volunteer to be a team member on a Kolbe Retreat, please call Deacon Dixon at 806-290-8842. The Kolbe Prison Ministry is a 501(c)(3) organization and all donations are charitable donations for tax purposes. Donations can be mailed to Kolbe Prison Ministries, P.O. Box 4125, Amarillo, 79116.

Pope Leo XIV Calls On Catholics To Rediscover Vatican II Teachings

Vatican City (CNS)—The teachings of the Second Vatican Council are still “the guiding star” the Catholic Church is meant to follow, Pope Leo XIV said.

Rereading all of its teachings “is a valuable opportunity to rediscover the beauty and the importance of this ecclesial event,” he said Jan. 7, and because its work remains “a guiding principle for us today.”

“We have yet to achieve ecclesial reform more fully in a ministerial sense and, in the face of today’s challenges, we are called to continue to be vigilant interpreters of the signs of the times, joyful proclaimers of the Gospel, courageous witnesses of justice and peace,” he said.

Speaking to visitors gathered in the Paul VI Audience Hall for his weekly general audience, the pope said that with the conclusion of the Holy Year Jan. 6, he was beginning a new series of talks dedicated to the Second Vatican Council.

The council, which convened for four sessions from 1962 to 1965, produced 16 documents, addressing everything from liturgy to Scripture, missionary activity to ecumenism and interfaith relationships and the functions of clergy and laity to religious freedom.

“Vatican Council II rediscovered the face of God as the Father who, in Christ, calls us to be His children,” he said in his talk.

The council looked at the Catholic Church “as a mystery of communion and sacrament of unity between God and His people; it initiated important liturgical reform, placing at its center the mystery of salvation and the active and conscious participation of the entire people of God,” he said.

“At the same time, it helped us to open up to the world and to embrace the changes and challenges of the modern age in dialogue and co-responsibility, as a Church that wishes to open Her arms to humanity, to echo the hopes and anxieties of peoples, and to collaborate in building a more just and fraternal society,” he said.

For the past six decades, the popes have repeatedly underlined the importance of Vatican II, its teachings and its fuller implementation.

However, since the council was held so long ago, that means that “the generation of bishops, theologians and believers of Vatican II is no longer with us,” said the pope, who would have been 10 years old when the council ended in December of 1965.

“It will be important to get to know it again closely, and to do so not through ‘hearsay’ or interpretations that have been given, but by rereading its documents and reflecting on their content” directly, he said.

“Indeed, it is the Magisterium that still constitutes the guiding star of the Church’s journey today,” he said.

Needed: Participants For Adoration

Amarillo—St. Thomas the Apostle Church remains in need of people to participate in the parish’s Perpetual Adoration Ministry.

“We have had a Perpetual Adoration Ministry for 20 years here at St. Thomas,” said Simon Wright, who serves as Adoration Coordinator. “We invite everyone to become a part of this ministry.”

“Adoration is a sign of devotion and worship of Jesus Christ who is, present in body, blood, soul and divinity, under the appearance of the sacramental bread.

“Adoration offers many spiritual benefits. It gives us a chance to be still and listen to God. In the quiet, we can hear His voice better.

“Our Eucharistic Lord Jesus, is available all the time, day and night, for anyone to come to Him to praise Him, to pour out one’s heart to Him, to ask for inspiration, to be consoled and comforted in afflictions, to express sorrow for sin, to ask favors, to ask guidance, to get encouragement, to receive strength, to give thanks and to be healed of spiritual and physical infirmities.

“Everyone is welcome. We are in particular need of hourly adorers and substitutes who would be available for late night and early morning hours.”

Those interested in this ministry are asked to please contact Wright at 806-570-9776.

Vatican Sees Record Number Of Visitors

Vatican City (CNS)—An estimated 33 million visitors and pilgrims came to the Vatican to celebrate the Jubilee Year, exceeding early forecasts, officials said at a news conference at the Vatican Jan. 5.

Archbishop Rino Fisichella, pro-prefect of the Dicastery for Evangelization's section for new evangelization and chief organizer of the 2025 Holy Year, said the figure is based on estimates from a study by Roma Tre University, online registrations for the Holy Year, and the number of people who passed through the Holy Doors of Rome's major basilicas and attended papal events.

By the time the Holy Year ended, at least 33 million people will have taken part, which breaks down to more than 90,000 people a day. The period with the most pilgrims in Rome was during the Jubilee of Young People from July 21 to Aug. 10, which registered more than 13 million people.

Early estimates had expected that the Jubilee Year would bring 30 million to 35 million visitors to the Vatican. The city saw about 22 million people come to Rome in 2024, Roberto Gualtieri, mayor of Rome, said during the news conference.

Based on data collected solely from registered pilgrims, visitors from the United States ranked second only to Italy, accounting for nearly 13% of the total number of registered visitors, Archbishop Fisichella said. Pilgrims from more than 185 countries participated in the Jubilee Year.

"It is inevitable that such a milestone also brings with it an assessment of this year, which in many respects has been extraordinary. Begun under Pope Francis, the Jubilee concludes under Pope Leo XIV," the archbishop said in Italian. "The funeral and the new election were added to the entire Jubilee program, showing the whole world the ability to act with determination and confidence amid an exceptional series of events."

Archbishop Fisichella thanked Rome's officials for their hard work in supporting the inflow of visitors, and said that the increase also led to increased visitor rates across the city's tourist sites.

Gualtieri agreed, saying it was a year of unprecedented tourism across the city. To accommodate the Jubilee Year and the influx of visitors, construction crews completed 110 projects across Rome, including the restoration of historic squares, monuments and holy sites.

Lamberto Giannini, Rome's prefect, who coordinates maintaining law and order in the city, said that city and Vatican teams worked together to complete the many construction projects "without serious accidents or workplace injuries and with extensive oversight to prevent mafia infiltration—something clearly possible given the scale of the investments."

Vatican leaders have already begun planning the next Jubilee Year, which will take place in 2033 to commemorate the 2,000th anniversary of the death and resurrection of Jesus.

"The journey, therefore, is not finished," Archbishop Fisichella said. "This was only a significant step, preparing the way for another event of grace that must be planned with foresight and a strong awareness of an upcoming global event."

U.S. Bishops' Collection For The Church In Latin America

Washington, DC (USCCB)—On the weekend of Saturday, Jan. 24 and Sunday, Jan. 25, many Catholic dioceses in the United States will take up the annual Collection for the Church in Latin America, which supports ministries among the poor in Mexico, Central and South America and the Caribbean.

"This annual collection exemplifies the spiritual journey of Pope Leo XIV, who was born in Chicago but spent most of his ministry serving the poor in Peru," said Bishop Edgar M. da Cunha, SDV, of the Diocese of Fall River, and chairman of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops' Subcommittee on the Church in Latin America, which oversees this annual collection and the grants it funds.

During the decade that then-Bishop Robert Prevost was Bishop of Chiclayo, his diocese received several grants from the Collection for the Church in Latin America. With this support, the diocese improved youth ministry in impoverished parishes, promoted care for the environment and educated thousands of parents, teachers and catechists in the prevention of child abuse.

"The Second Vatican Council, which ended a dozen years before Robert Prevost entered the Augustinian order, encouraged Catholics to reach out in love across all national borders, especially those between the wealthy global north and the developing global south," said Bishop da Cunha, a Brazilian whose diocese includes Portuguese and Spanish-speaking Catholics. "Pope Leo XIV's faith journey embodies the spirit of why the bishops of the United States created the Church in Latin America program six decades ago to make an impact in Latin America."

The online giving platform iGiveCatholic also accepts funds to support this work.

In 2024, gifts to the Collection for the Church in Latin America provided more than $8 million for 344 projects.
