Serving Catholics in the Texas Panhandle - Roman Catholic Diocese of Amarillo

January 18, 2026

Leading Off

Bovina—The traditional first meal of the year in the Diocese of Amarillo will be served later this month.

St. Ann's Church will offer its annual German Sausage Dinner Sunday, Jan. 25 from 11:00am to 1:30pm at the parish hall on Third Street.

Homemade German Sausage with all the trimmings, including sauerkraut, will be served to adults for a suggested $18.00 donation and to children six and under for a suggested $6.00 donation. Take-outs will be available at no additional charge.

There will be four kinds of sausage served—regular, jalapeño, green chile and extra, extra hot, according to parish spokesperson Joann McDonald.

Sausage and sauerkraut will also be available for purchase the day of the dinner or by contacting any St. Ann's parishioner prior to the dinner.

For more information, please contact the parish office at 806-251-1511.

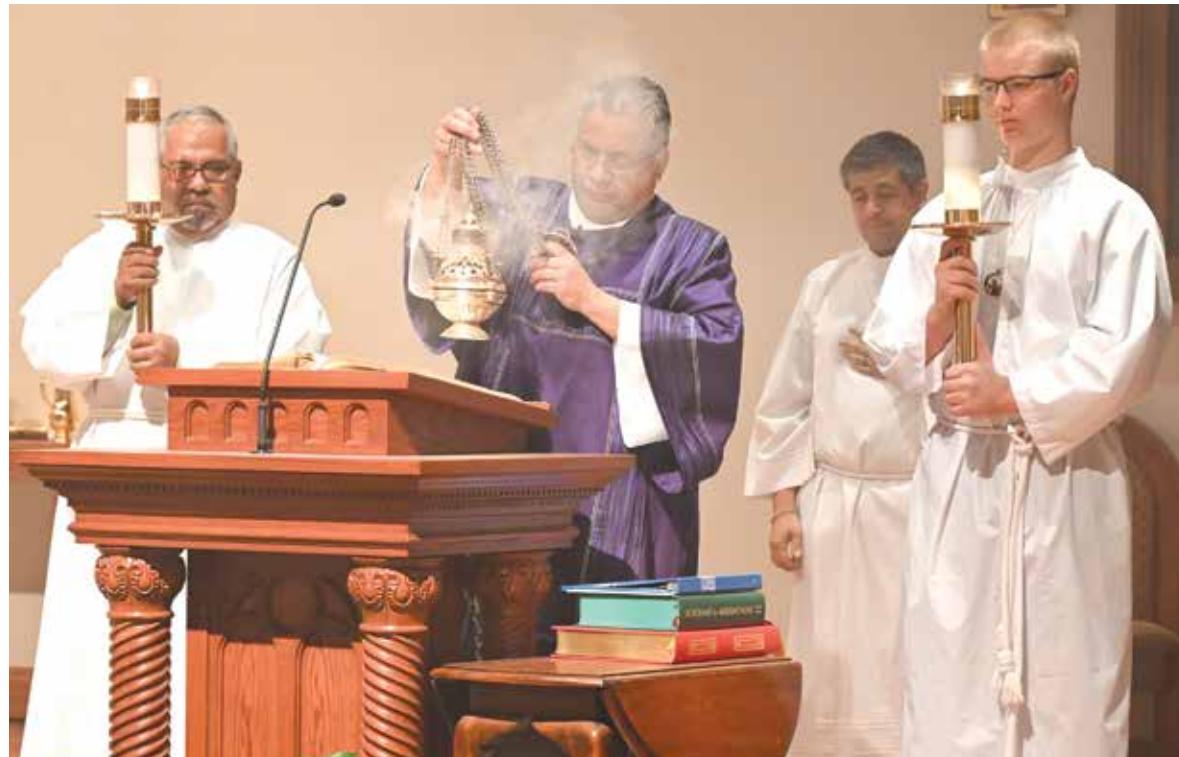

Amarillo—The Lenten Season begins with Ash Wednesday on Feb. 18 and the diocesan Office of Communications is in need of information for Fish Fries and Meals being served during Lent.

Those planning these events are asked to email all pertinent information as soon as possible to westtexascatholic@gmail.com.

A list of meals to be served during Lent will be printed in the Sunday, February 15 and Sunday, March 15 issues of The West Texas Catholic.

For additional information about getting Lenten Fish Fries and Meals in The West Texas Catholic, please call 806-414-1075.

Tickets Remain For Annual Catholic Student Center Fundraiser

Amarillo—Tickets are still available for the annual fundraiser to benefit the Catholic Student Center at West Texas A&M University, taking place Saturday, Feb. 7 from 6:00pm to 11:00pm in the parish hall at St. Thomas the Apostle Church, 4100 South Coulter.

Tickets for the fundraiser are $75 per person and can be purchased on the CSC website, wtcsc.org. Tickets can also be purchased from any member of the Catholic Student Center. VIP tables seating eight will also be available, at $1,000 each. The evening will include live and silent auctions and a meal.

The Student Center continues to seek people who are willing to donate a gift basket for the silent auction.

“During our past three fundraisers, we’ve done gift baskets and have had great participation,” said Father Alvin Tshuma, chaplain and executive director at the Catholic Student Center. “The gift baskets have helped make our annual fundraiser even more special and we encourage individuals, groups, businesses, alumni and organizations to donate a gift basket.”

For those who would rather make a financial gift to the Catholic Student Center in lieu of donating a gift basket, cash donations will be greatly accepted and appreciated.

The evening serves as the principal fundraiser for the CSC, according to Father Tshuma.

“This is the main source of funding for our campus ministries, but it’s also a great opportunity for people to meet the students that they’re supporting and for the students to show their appreciation for all the generosity we have received throughout the year,” he said.

Another highlight of the annual Amarillo—The annual Respect Life Mass is scheduled Saturday, Jan. 24 at 10:00am at St. Mary’s Cathedral, according to diocesan Family Life Director Karlynn Hochstein.

“The Holy Mass stands in stark contrast to the violence of abortion as it celebrates Christ laying down His life for all humanity,” said Hochstein. “In the Mass, we glorify God and unite ourselves to His victory over sin and death. God is Sovereign and has already won the battle. Trusting in His promises, we turn to Him in a special way this month and ask Him to transform hearts and minds and to strengthen a culture of life from conception to natural death in all people. As Matthew 18 reminds us, there is power in God’s Faithful coming together and praying together. We hope that all of you will join us on Jan. 24 to petition God as a community and pray for an end to abortion and healing for all of those already affected by it.”

Bishop Patrick J. Zurek will preside at the Mass, with priests of the Diocese of Amarillo, co-celebrating. All deacons are also invited to participate in the Mass.

“We are asking everyone attending our Respect Life Mass to help us help mothers in need,” said Hochstein. “We can do this by supporting Catholic Charities of the Texas Panhandle’s Joseph’s Project: A Pregnancy Resource Center. Please bring newborn items, i.e., diapers, wipes, et al., to the Mass.

“As we embark on our diocese’s Centennial Year with a focus on Faith, Hope, Community and Mission, we are especially mindful of Faith this month. We must have

Eugene "Gene" Rahll

Dalhart—Eugene "Gene" Rahll, one of the oldest parishioners at St. Anthony of Padua Church, passed away Jan. 7. He was 97 years old.

Mass was celebrated Jan. 13, St. Anthony of Padua Church, Father Scott L. Raef, pastor, St. Ann's Church, Canyon, presiding. Interment was in Memorial Park Cemetery.

Eugene "Gene" Francis Rahll was born Dec. 3, 1928 in Oxford, Pa., the son of Roberta and Robert Rahll. He grew up with three sisters and two brothers on their family farm in Pennsylvania.

In 1963, Mr. Rahll began a career with New Holland Machine Company. His work with New Holland brought him to Dalhart on several occasions where he met Louise Childers while attending Mass at St. Anthony of Padua Church, where they were married Oct. 15, 1966.

On the day of their wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Rahll flew to Australia for his work. This trip began their love of travel over the years, covering all seven continents and 128 countries. Soon after marriage, the couple settled in Baltimore and began his rental business career. After many years of growing and expanding the business, Mr. Rahll mentored and partnered with eight young men to start their own rental businesses, including Rabern Rental in Amarillo, which resulted in Mr. Rahll being inducted into the Rental Hall of Fame in 2016 by the American Rental Association.

In 1982, Mr. and Mrs. Rahll moved to Dalhart and began farming in the Texas Panhandle. According to his family, it didn't take long for Mr. Rahll to get involved in the community eventually serving as mayor for a 16-year tenure. Additionally, Mr. Rahll was named Citizen of the Year by the Dalhart Chamber of Commerce in 1998 for the many ways he served the community.

His family added that Mr. Rahll's generosity can be seen throughout the community of Dalhart. Mr. and Mrs. Rahll started giving scholarships to Dalhart High School seniors in 2004, eventually giving over $1 million. Their love of providing an education to young people continued and led them to build a Junior College campus in Dalhart, culminating with the establishment of Frank Phillips College—Rahll Campus. Mr. Rahll also had the vision to meet a recreational need within the community that would benefit people of all ages in Dalhart, with the Rahll Activity Center opening its doors in 2023.

Survivors include his wife, Louise Rahll; two sisters, Ann Gill and Thelma Lightner; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Carol Gutiérrez: 1950-2026

Carol Gutiérrez

Canadian—Carol Jean Gutiérrez, the wife of Deacon Joe Gutiérrez, a member of the first class of Permanent Deacons for the Diocese of Amarillo, passed away Jan. 6. She was 75 years old.

Mass was celebrated Jan. 10, Sacred Heart Church, Father Marco Gonzalez, parochial administrator, presiding. Inurnment was in Edith Ford Memorial Cemetery.

Carol Chaffin was born Oct. 24, 1950 in Canadian, the daughter of Wanda and Harold Chaffin. She married Joe L. Gutiérrez on Dec. 26, 1970. The couple celebrated nearly 54 years of marriage before Deacon Gutiérrez passed away on Nov. 27, 2024. Mrs. Gutiérrez worked at Edward Abraham Memorial Home for over 30 years as a nursing assistant. According to her family, she loved her job and the relationships she made over the years.

Mrs. Gutiérrez was a member of Sacred Heart Church for over 50 years.

Mrs. Gutiérrez was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; and two brothers, Leslie Don Chaffin and Larry Wayne Chaffin.

Survivors include her three sons, Jose Gutiérrez and John Paul Gutiérrez, both of Canadian and Andrew Gutiérrez of San Antonio; four daughters, Carmen Gutiérrez Coyne and her husband Martin of Mansfield, Teresa Gutiérrez of Euless, Anna Stewart and her husband Chad of Amarillo and Olivia Gutiérrez Miles and her husband Ryan, their children George and Arthur Miles of Lewisville; two sisters, Donna Ann Carter and Charlene Sue Segovia; a brother, Jimmy Chaffin; eight grandchildren, Anais Coyne and Jack Coyne, both of Mansfield, Amalia Gutiérrez and Tristan Gutiérrez, both of Euless, Eva Stewart and Ivy Stewart, both of Amarillo and George Miles and Arthur Miles, both of Lewisville; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Pope Embarks On Synodal Journey With Cardinals

Vatican City (CNS)—Pope Leo XIV and members of his College of Cardinals have begun what is a kind of synodal journey together to grow in communion and discern together “what the Lord is asking of us for the good of His people.”

After convening the international group of cardinals in Rome for an extraordinary consistory Jan. 7-8, the pope decided to make the gathering an annual event, however, with an additional meeting later this year.

It marked an approach that vastly expanded on what Pope Francis established after his election in 2013. Wishing for a more decentralized and listening Church, the late pope created a nine-member Council of Cardinals to help and advise him on several critical matters facing the Church, particularly the reform of the Roman Curia, by meeting at least quarterly in Rome.

College members will meet with the pope again for at least three days sometime in June, possibly around the feast of Sts. Peter and Paul on Monday, June 29, and then the gathering will take place over three to four days once a year in the following years.

The College of Cardinals is made up of 245 cardinals from all over the world. About 170 of them—about 69%—made it to Rome after the pope’s invitation Dec. 12 that they come together again for the first time since the conclave that elected him May 8.

Pope Leo emphasized the essential element of love in his opening remarks to the cardinals in the Vatican’s Synod Hall Jan. 7.

“To the extent that we love one another as Christ has loved us, we belong to Him, we are His community, and He can continue to draw others to Himself through us. In fact, only love is credible; only love is trustworthy,” he said.

“Therefore, in order to be a truly missionary Church, one that is capable of witnessing to the attractive power of Christ’s love, we must first of all put into practice His commandment ... ‘Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another,’” the pope said.

Conversion of Paul, Apostle
Feast Day: Jan. 25

The conversion of St. Paul is the story of a life—and world-changing “U-turn.”

A man of education and influence, Saul used his knowledge of the law and his standing among the religious leaders of his time to persecute the earliest Christians.

Then, after a personal encounter with the Risen Christ, Saul is reborn as Paul, and becomes the apostle to the Gentiles, using his persuasive pen and enthusiastic zeal to spread the Good News of the Gospel.

“I am the least of the apostles,” he says. “In fact, because I persecuted the Church of God, I do not even deserve the name. But by God’s favor I am what I am. This favor is His to me has not proved fruitless. Indeed, I have worked harder than all of the others, not on my own, but through the favor of God.”

By God’s favor we are what we are; in His goodness, He has given us all that we have. We are good stewards if, like St. Paul, we can say that God’s favor bears fruit in our lives—“if (we) are grateful for what (we) have received and eager to cultivate (our) gifts out of love for God and one another.”

Authentic Femininity Mini-Retreat

Panhandle—All young ladies in the Diocese of Amarillo between the ages of 18 and 40 are invited to take part in an Authentic Femininity Mini-Retreat Friday, March 13 to Sunday, March 15, presented by the Franciscan Sisters of Christ the Light. The retreat will be offered in the St. Francis House of Prayer at Sancta Maria Convent at 125 John Paul Circle.

“Each mini-retreat has a different topic under the umbrella of Authentic Femininity,” said Franciscan Sister of Christ the Light Sister Mary Michael Huseman. “This time, we will focus on Proverbs 31: Amazing Women of God. We invite you to join other young ladies exploring the truths of how to live as a Christian woman of God and much more.”

Arrival time is 6:00pm on March 13, with the retreat ending after lunch on March 15.

“Besides getting to spend time with other young ladies that want to grow in their Faith and learning some beautiful tools and having some prayer experiences, the participants will be able to spend some time with the Franciscan Sisters of Christ the Light,” said Sister Mary Michael.

When asked the question what stands out most from an Authentic Femininity Mini-Retreat, these comments were offered by some who attended previous retreats:

- “The sisters are always welcoming and loving. Their generosity is truly helping women become beautiful and free women of God.”
- “I never cease to be amazed by the love and care that goes into all of these retreats and visits. The sisters don’t just talk the ‘ministry’ of presence, they live it.”

Cost of the retreat is by donation. Please go online to panhandlefranciscans.org/femininity to register for the mini-retreat. For additional information, please call Sancta Maria Convent at 806-537-3182, ext. 3.

Please pray for much needed rain!

FINANCIAL REPORT FROM THE OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

We are pleased to provide the results of the annual audit of the Diocese of Amarillo Pastoral Center. This report is provided for you for transparency and accountability. This past fiscal year has seen many challenges and successes. There is much to celebrate in the Diocese of Amarillo and am honored and humbled with the tremendous generosity so many of you provide to the Diocese, through United Catholics Appeal, and to your parish. Your generosity allows our parishes and diocese to grow the Church in the Texas Panhandle.

Our parishes are energized providing many important ministries for our faith community and the community at large. Growing our faith and educating both children and adults is an important ministry. Our parish and diocesan youth programs continue to enrich the faith and grow our youth in the faith. Programs for adult faith formation are also important and many parishes, both large and small, have vibrant ministries. Other ministries, such as the prison and hospital ministries, help those spiritually to grow and be comforted in their faith. Some parishes have food banks to help those in need.

Our priests need our love and support. They lead us in the growth of our faith and face many challenges themselves. UCA helps provide needed support for priests in need. We continue to educate new seminarians, which UCA helps to fund. Educational costs continue to grow, which means your support is needed and welcomed. Our deacons have stepped forward to help with the needs of our parishes. UCA helps to fund deaconate training and support.

We look forward to celebrating the 100th anniversary of the Diocese of Amarillo. We have had our kickoff mass and there will be many more events leading up to the celebrating mass in August 2026. Let us continue to pray for our diocese, our parishes, our priests and each other as we examine the history of our diocese and look forward to our future in our Lord Jesus Christ.

If you have any questions or concerns regarding the financial report, please contact our Chief Financial Officer, Jim Mitchell, at (806) 383-2243 x124 or jmitchell@dioama.org.

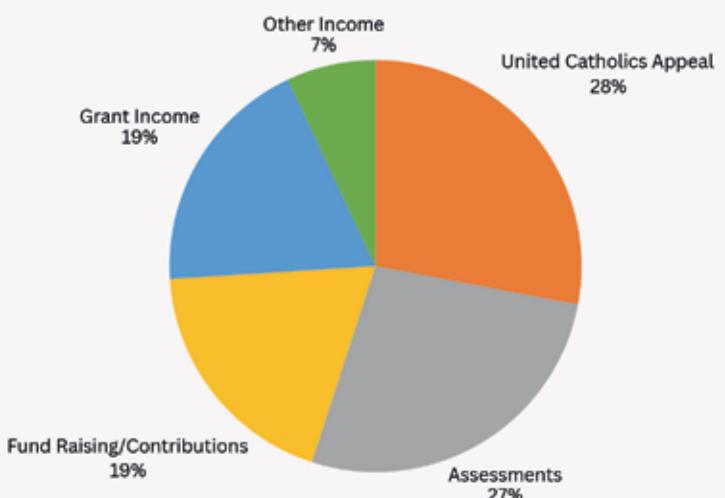

Again, I want to thank each of you for your generosity, both financially, but also your time and most importantly, your prayers. May God reward and bless you and your families.

Yours in Christ,

+ Patrick J. Zurek

INFORME FINANCIERO DE LA OFICINA DEL OBISPO

Nos complace presentar los resultados de la auditoría anual del Centro Pastoral de la Diócesis de Amarillo. Damos este informe como medida de transparencia y para rendir cuentas. Hemos tenido muchas pruebas y éxitos durante este año fiscal. Hay mucho que celebrar en la Diócesis de Amarillo y me causa honor y humildad la gran generosidad que tantos de ustedes brindan a la Diócesis en la Campaña Católicos Unidos (UCA) y a su parroquia. Su generosidad ayuda a las parroquias y a la diócesis a prosperar a la Iglesia en el Panhandle de Texas.

Las parroquias se energizan ofreciendo ministerios muy importantes para la comunidad de fe y la comunidad en general. Es ministerio importante crecer la fe y educar a niños y adultos. Programas juveniles parroquiales y diocesanos enriquecen la fe y hacen crecer en ella a la juventud. Programas de formación en la fe para adultos también son importantes y muchas parroquias, grandes o pequeñas, cuentan con ministerios dinámicos. Otros ministerios, como los ministerios de prisión y hospital, ayudan a quienes crecen espiritualmente y se sienten reconfortados en su fe. Algunas parroquias tienen despensas de alimentos que ayudan a quienes lo necesitan.

Los sacerdotes necesitan nuestro amor y apoyo. Nos guían a crecer en nuestra fe y ellos mismos afrontan muchos desafíos. La UCA ayuda a proveer el apoyo necesario a sacerdotes necesitados. Seguimos formando a nuevos seminaristas que la UCA ayuda a financiar. Los costos educativos siguen aumentando y eso significa que su apoyo es necesario y bienvenido. Los diáconos se han ofrecido a ayudar en las necesidades de nuestras parroquias. La UCA ayuda a financiar la formación y el apoyo al diaconado.

Anticipamos celebrar el centenario de la Diócesis de Amarillo. Ya celebramos la misa de inauguración y habrá múltiples eventos previos a la misa de aniversario en agosto de 2026. Sigamos en oración por nuestra diócesis, las parroquias, los sacerdotes y unos por otros al examinar la historia de nuestra diócesis y al mirar hacia nuestro futuro en nuestro Señor Jesucristo.

Si usted tiene alguna pregunta o inquietud respecto al reporte financiero, favor de contactar al Jefe de Finanzas, Jim Mitchell, (806) 383-2243 x124 o jmitchell@dioama.org.

Agradezco de nuevo a cada uno de ustedes su generosidad, tanto con finanzas como con su tiempo y más importante, sus oraciones. Que Dios recompense a usted y a su familia.

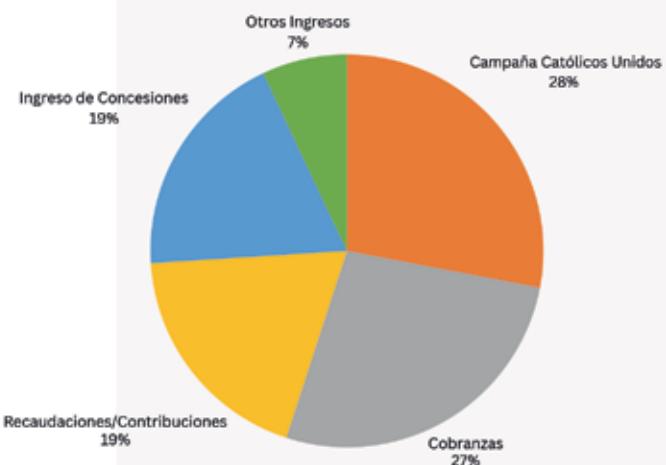

Su servidor en Cristo,

+ Patrick J. Zurek

Bishop Patrick J. Zurek, right, visits with Evelyn Rossi Sept. 14, 2025, during the 65th anniversary celebration of Church of the Holy Spirit, Tulia. (WTC file photo)

Evelyn Rossi: 1930-2026

Tulia—Evelyn Rossi, one of the original parishioners of St. William's Church and one of the oldest parishioners at Church of the Holy Spirit, passed away Jan. 5. She was 95 years old.

Mass was celebrated Jan. 10, Church of the Holy Spirit, Father Hector J. Madrigal, pastor, presiding.

Evelyn Braddock was born on Nov. 14, 1930 in Nazareth, the daughter of Hubert and Josephine Braddock. She married Henry Rossi on Sept. 7, 1949 and according to her family, the couple built a life centered on love and Faith.

Her family added that Mrs. Rossi was the proud mother of nine children, and her greatest joy came from her family. Her home was one of warmth, guidance and unwavering support, where everyone was welcomed and cared for. Mrs. Rossi instilled strong values of kindness and responsibility for all those she raised and loved.

A lifelong and devoted Catholic, Mrs. Rossi lived her Faith daily through prayer, service and a steadfast commitment to her Church. She believed in giving to others and was known throughout the community for her generosity and willingness to help anyone in need. Her family added that whether through quiet acts of kindness or organized community efforts, Mrs. Rossi gave freely of her time and talents. Her life was a testament to love, Faith and family and her influence will continue to be felt through her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren and a grateful community who will cherish her memory forever.

Mrs. Rossi was preceded in death by her husband Henry; a daughter, Libby Howard; a son-in-law, Ricky Howard; two sisters, Norma Schacher and Nellie Wilhelm; two brothers, Vernon Braddock and Pat Braddock; and a grandson, Troy Don Howard.

Survivors include five daughters, Denice Gerber and her husband Carroll, Roxanne Ledwig and her husband Anthony, Peggy Pohlemeier and her husband Brian, Susan Britten and her husband Clifton and Cathy Smith and her husband Mike; three sons, Larry Rossi and his wife Carissa, Terry Rossi and Steven Rossi M.D.; a sister, Jeanette Schulte; 17 grandchildren; and 41 great-grandchildren.

Stovetop Spirituality: The Kitchen As Chapel

The older I get, the more I crave a practical spirituality—one tied to dirty dishes not pristine libraries, one that recognizes hungry bellies along with hungry hearts.

Some days, talking theology feels beside the point. We are living it as we match mittens and pack snacks. We pray as we start the car, and zoom! Off we go, bringing the light of Christ to our meetings and tournaments.

Last year I interviewed Mark Berchem, founder of NET Ministries, the Catholic evangelization center he launched 44 years ago. Upon his retirement, I asked about his winning approach to the apostolate.

“None of us had any theological training,” he told me. “All we had was our real-life experience: ‘This is what God has done in my life. I know God is real. He wants to be real in your life too!’”

Over time Mark came to embrace that. “Somebody once told me: ‘If it’s not practical, it’s probably not spiritual,’” he said. “The integration of Faith and life is what happens at NET.”

That statement stuck with me. God wants to meet us in the here and now, the knotted shoelaces and jammed zippers, the dash to the gas station, the smile from the cashier. He loves us through the minutiae of daily life.

That’s why, for me, I hesitate to draw the line between cookbook and prayerbook. When I’m holding a collection of tried-and-true recipes, it can feel like much more.

This year my mother-in-law gave us a treasure: a beloved parish cookbook. Titled Our Favorite Recipes, it was created by members of St. Patrick’s Church in Ryan, Iowa—a tiny town named after a priest, Father Patrick Ryan. Its palette is cream and cinnamon: yellowed pages, brown spiral binding, a sepia-toned photograph of the church.

It begins with The Kitchen Prayer: “Lord of all pots and pans and things, since I’ve not time to be a saint by doing lovely things or watching late with Thee or dreaming in the dawn light or storming Heaven’s gates, make me a saint by getting meals and washing up the plates.”

The prayer concludes: “Warm all the kitchen with Thy love and light it with Thy peace. Forgive me all my worrying and make my grumbling cease. Thou who didst love to give men food, in room and by the sea, accept this service that I do, I do it unto Thee.”

The pickles and jams and rolls follow, with cookies outnumbering casseroles by a ratio of ten to one and dozens of pies rounding out the desserts. It was a fundraiser for their beloved house of worship, completed through late nights and phone calls, wrapped in prayer and dusted with flour. The practical in the spiritual. Follow these steps, feed these people, offer it up.

Emily Stimpson Chapman’s new cookbook does the same. Around the Catholic Table from Emmaus Road Publishing combines heartfelt essays with delicious recipes, wrapping stories around each one: a beloved rigatoni, a hearty vegetable beef soup, a carrot and ginger soup that can brighten “the greyest February days.”

The cookbook is peppered with Emily’s beliefs both as a Catholic and a cook. “I am a firm believer that if you top a fruit crisp with yogurt instead of ice cream, it is a breakfast food, not a dessert,” writes the 50-year-old mom of three from Steubenville, Ohio.

In her final essay, Emily explores the deeper meaning of cooking for her family. “I believe that when they eat what I’ve made, my mind, my heart, my strength, my energy, my creativity and my tenacity in some mysterious way become theirs too,” she writes. “In the kitchen, I have found intimacy with Christ, who gives his life to us in the form of food.”

Practical and spiritual. Sustenance for a long Tuesday—and a foretaste of Heaven.

“REBUILD MY CHURCH !”

WE ARE CALLING ALL CATHOLICS IN OUR DIOCESE TO UNITE AROUND:

- Supporting our seminarians in their formation and education.
- Supporting our priests in continuing education and the advancement of their studies.
- Supporting Catholic Communications.
- Supporting the training and education of our Deacon Candidates in order to assist our priests and the ministries of our parishes.
- Faith Formation support for our parishes with the new changes in the conversion of RCIA to OCIA and the administration of the sacraments.
- Youth programs that enliven this generation in their Catholic Faith including the discernment of vocations to our young people.
- Supporting the diocesan effort in our prison systems to bring men back to faith and to introduce the Catholic Faith to those who have no faith at all.
- Catholic support in our hospitals to serve those who are ill as well as their families.
- Supporting family enrichment through marriage encounters and family program.
- Supporting our college students on campus through our Catholic Student Center

PLEASE GIVE WITH LOVE TO HELP YOUR PARISH, FUTURE PRIESTS AND THOSE
DISCERNING A CALL TO RELIGIOUS LIFE.
THANK YOU!

“¡RECONSTRUYE MI IGLESIA!”

CONVOCAMOS A TODOS LOS CATÓLICOS EN NUESTRA DIÓCESIS A UNIRSE EN TORNO A ESTOS ESFUERZOS:

- El apoyo a nuestros seminaristas en su formación y educación.
- El apoyo a nuestros sacerdotes en su instrucción continua y el avance de sus estudios.
- El apoyo a las Comunicaciones Católicas.
- El apoyo a la capacitación e instrucción de nuestros candidatos al diaconado para ayudar a nuestros sacerdotes en nuestras parroquias.
- El apoyo a la Formación en la Fe en nuestras parroquias con los nuevos cambios en la conversión del RICA a la OICA y la administración de los sacramentos.
- Los programas juveniles que dan vigor a esta generación en su fe católica, incluso el discernimiento de vocaciones entre la juventud.
- El apoyo al esfuerzo Diocesano en los sistemas correccionales para que los hombres vuelvan a la fe y para presentar la Fe Católica a quienes no tienen ninguna fe.
- El apoyo católico en los hospitales para servir a los enfermos y a sus familiares.
- El apoyo a la estabilidad y el progreso familiar con el encuentro matrimonial y el programa familiar.
- El apoyo a nuestros estudiantes de colegio en campus con el Centro Estudiantil Católico.

POR FAVOR DEN AMOROSAMENTE PARA AYUDAR A SU
PARROQUIA, A SUS Sacerdotes FUTUROS Y A QUIENES
DISCIERNEN SU VOCACIÓN A LA VIDA RELIGIOSA.
¡GRACIAS!
