All Saints

The Journey of Faith with

Fr. Matthew Oakland

This weekend we celebrate All Saints Day. Every day of the year is the feast day of 8-25+ saints, totaling over 10,000 total. But most don't get celebrated—and so we have one day to celebrate them all!

I couldn't pick a favorite saint, or even a top 10. Their lives are each so unique, and so incredible, as we see how they cooperated with the grace of God as disciples of Christ. Plus, these are our ancestors in the faith, our great-aunts and uncles in the family of God. I thought this week I would share a few stories from some of the more well known saints.

St. Anthony of Padua is known in Portugal as St. Anthony of Lisbon since that is where he started his religious life. As an Augustinian monk, he devoted himself to prayer and study of the scriptures. When the bodies of the first Franciscan martyrs to Morocco passed through, he was filled with a burning desire to join this new order, and follow in their steps. But he got so sick he was sent packing—he was useless. He went to Italy for the gathering of all Franciscans, and stayed there, but they didn't think much of him—so they put him to work washing dishes. It was only a happy accident that they would later discover his beautiful understanding of the Scriptures, as St. Francis entrusted him with the theological formation of all Franciscans. And yes, a finder of lost things, after he himself lost his precious bible annotated with his notes (two centuries before the printing press, bibles were previous on their own). It turns out one of the brothers had left, and stolen his bible. Not only did he find his bible when the young man returned it, but the young man returned himself.

What I love about the story of St. Anthony is that he wanted to do something very good—be a missionary—but that wasn't God's will for him. So often in life, we do good things—but they aren't necessarily the good things God is calling us too. St. Anthony teaches us the importance of discerning God's presence and will in our own life. Plus, he didn't complain when doing dishes, and even rejoiced in it—something to aspire to ourselves.

St. John Vianney is the patron saint of parish priests, who initially flunked out of seminary. In the town of Ars he brought about a revival of faith which attracted those from the nearby regions. The nearby pastors were not pleased, and all signed a letter to the bishop demanding he be removed. They even showed it to the poor saint. He didn't lash out in righteous anger. He didn't write a letter of defense to the bishop, or one attacking his brother priests. He asked for the petition, and signed his own name to the bottom and got back to work. It's hard not to let the complaints of others, just or otherwise, get to us. It is hard not to respond from pride, or to mount a defense or try to change how others viewed him. He had this unique and singular focus which is enviable, if that itself weren't a sin!

On occasion to fall asleep in my chapel. I tell myself that I am just giving God an opportunity to speak to me in my dreams, like St. Joseph. However, I take consolation in these words from St. Therese: “I should be distressed that I drop off to sleep during my prayers and during my thanksgiving after Holy Communion. But I don't feel at all distressed. I know that children are just as dear to their parents whether they are sleep or awake and I know that doctors put their patients to sleep before they operate. So I just think that God ‘knows our frame; he remembers that we are dust.’”

St. Peter fled Rome during Nero's great persecution. On the road out of town, Jesus was coming toward him. “Quo vadis,” Peter asked: “Where are you going?” “I am going to Rome to be crucified again.” Jesus then disappears, and Peter turns around, eventually embracing the Cross himself. Embracing the Cross is never easy, not even for an Apostle and the first pope.

We sometimes think that the saints have it easy and all figured out, when in truth, they didn't/don't, and neither do we. But they can show us the way to Heaven, if we follow in their steps and ask for their help. But that takes learning about them first!

RCIA For Children and Adults

Is your child interested in becoming Catholic and is older than age 7? Are you interested in learning about becoming Catholic?

Holy Rosary Church welcomes all children no matter their age to a life with Christ. The Church prepares older children (age 7-18) and adults for all three sacraments of Initiation: Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist through the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA). Those children who have never been baptized will participate in the RCIA process adapted for children and celebrate their sacraments at the Easter Vigil.

RCIA is a special journey for children ages 7-18 along with their families to prepare for Initiation into the Catholic community. For more information or questions about RCIA for Children, please contact our staff.

Youth Confirmation & Evangelization

"Relational Authority: A New Model for Youth Ministry"

Young people root their trust in relationship, not institutional authority. Young people engage and thrive when they encounter trusted adults who for, listen to, and guide them. Religious leaders are needed to meet young people amid the messiness of the present moment. "Relational Authority" is a framework for connecting with others considering changing social, cultural, and religious dynamics at work in the world. It is a response to the reality that in a society increasingly connected by impersonal bonds, we often need deep, familiar connection before feeling receptive to the influence or guidance of others.

Learn more about how to serve and love our young people by expressing interest in volunteering with our Youth Confirmation program: Youth Ministry Volunteer Form

Peer Ministry: Allowing Your Light to Shine!

The Holy Rosary Peer Ministry program is a leadership and service opportunity for all high school students who have received their sacraments of Baptism, Communion, and Confirmation. A Peer Minister will use their unique gifts and talents to serve and lead with the Youth Confirmation students, alongside the Youth Minister and Adult Volunteers.

If you have a high school student who needs to complete service hours and wants to develop and grow in faith and leadership skills, visit our website to learn more about the Peer Ministry program: <https://holyroaryseattle.org/peer-ministry>

2020 - 2021 Youth Confirmation

We are planning to jumpstart the Confirmation program in January 2021 and conclude in May 2021. All baptized 7th-12th graders are welcome to register for the Youth Confirmation program. Families can register online and learn more about the Confirmation program here: <https://holyroaryseattle.org/youth-confirmation>.

To have a leaf added to the tree, email the names of your loved ones to Sr. Stella at srstella@holysaryseattle.org. You can also write the names down and place in the "Remembrance Family Tree" basket located at the sign-in table before Mass.
