

HOLY ROSARY CATHOLIC CHURCH

Encounter Jesus. Become Disciples. Make Disciples.

13TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said to the synagogue official, "Do not be afraid; just have faith." When they arrived at the house of the synagogue official, he caught sight of a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. So he went in and said to them, "Why this commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but asleep."

JUNE 27, 2021

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Journey of Faith with Fr. Matthew Oakland

One year and one week ago we opened for public Mass just one day after the county allowed us to do so. Since then, we have operated under changing public health orders based on new understandings of transmission, risk and case counts. This week, they will change again, as our King County public health officials lift the county mask mandates on June 29th and the Governor begins the major reopening of the state on June 30th.

As of June 19th, West Seattle has had 13 positive cases in the last two weeks—a rate of 20.8 per 100,000. And 82.5% of eligible West Seattle residents 12+ are vaccinated.

We don't know much yet (as of this writing) about what reopening actually means other than that the social distancing requirement will be going away.

What do we know and are planning at present?

We will likely continue to have a social-distanced section in the church for those who are in need based on the science of risk and transmission, in particular the immunocompromised or families with young children who aren't vaccinated.

We will keep the current daily Mass schedule, and add a Saturday daily Mass back in, as well:

Tuesday—6PM

Wednesday, Thursday, Friday—8:45AM

Saturday—8:45AM (starting August 7)

We will be changing the Confession Schedule starting Saturday, July 3rd:

Tuesdays 5:30-5:55PM

Saturdays 3:30-4:30PM

Or by appointment during office hours

With monitored open hours no longer being required, we will reopen the church for fuller, regular open visiting hours Monday through Friday, starting July 6th, exact times TBA as we work with volunteers and staff. The Church will be open on Saturdays starting at 3:30PM.

The offices will be reopening for regular hours starting July 6th.

We will continue to livestream Masses. At present, I turn it on for daily Mass and just let it run, and we do the same for one the Sunday

Masses as the other two have volunteers who assist and control the cameras. We will likely stop praying the Prayer for Spiritual Communion at Mass itself once the Sunday Obligation is no longer lifted.

We will trim back our need for COVID Hospitality Ministers, and most seating in the church will be non-distanced. We will still have a distanced section on a first come-first served basis. We will still need Hospitality Ministers for all of the usual things—to greet people, assist with Collection, hand out bulletins, etc. We will be restarting all of our liturgical ministries as we return to (something closer to) normal, restarting TBD based on new guidelines TBA. If you are interested in serving the Lord and our community in one of these important and necessary ministries, we are always in need.

It will still be a good idea to come early, to spend a little more time with Jesus and prepare yourself for the Holy Sacrifice to come. It will still be a good idea not to leave early, as well. At the Last Supper, it was Judas who left early. He isn't one we should emulate as we enter into the Last Supper.

While I have been limiting home visits to sick calls, I am starting to visit parishioners again for house blessings or just because. You can schedule this through Melissa or myself. And for those so inclined, I'm always up for a game—from cribbage to Catan and almost everything in between.

Our visits from our African missions priests will be delayed a little longer, with Fr. Dunstan Epalaat hopefully coming this October/November, and Fr. Charles Ssentenza then coming in summer 2022.

Some things becoming clearer, others still TBA/TBD. More to come!

Open Wide Our Hearts

From the Archdiocese of Seattle's Resources for Responding to Racism

Of the Six Tasks of catechesis, Task 3, centered on our Life in Christ, calls us to be informed by Church's teachings to be conformed to Christ as a model of a personal life of virtue, demonstrated in service of the Gospel's demands for society. In response to current and historic events it is imperative to remember that God has created us as equal. In the Catechism of the Catholic Church we are reminded of the main principles of the Social Doctrine of the Church on the topics of human dignity and social justice:

- Created in the image of the one God and equally endowed with rational souls, all men have the same nature and the same origin. Redeemed by the sacrifice of Christ, all are called to participate in the same divine beatitude: all therefore enjoy an equal dignity (CIC 1934).
- The equality of men rests essentially on their dignity as persons and the rights that flow from it: "Every form of social or cultural discrimination in fundamental personal rights on the grounds of sex, race, color, social conditions, language, or religion must be curbed and eradicated as incompatible with God's design". (CCC 1935)

Summer Reading Ideas for Kids 0-13 yrs+ Books That Promote Diversity and Inclusion

Books have a way of sparking empathy, drawing readers into the lives of characters who may be different from themselves -- or different from other characters in the story. Kids and teens walk in others' shoes as these characters -- or real-life kids -- navigate the school bus, deal with bullying, fall in love, face physical or mental challenges, or have fantastical adventures in another time or galaxy. It's a diverse world, and these books reflect the view that we're all in it together. For more great reads, check out our Books with Characters of Color and Books That Teach Empathy.

Topics covered include anxiety, depression, substance use, disorders in which psychosis may occur, disruptive behavior disorders (including AD/HD), and eating disorders. To learn more, download the Mental Health First Aid for Youth one-pager.
