October Count. The annual Diocesan inquiry called the "October Count" will take place all ten (10) Masses, every weekend in October. Barb Coates and Bob Sterner have prepared the forms for each weekend in October. The ushes are asked to count EVERYONE IN CHURCH including the priest, organist, cantor and the ministers of the Mass and complete the form EVERY SUNDAY in October and place the completed form in the collection baskets at that Mass. I and the Parish are grateful for all who contribute in any way to the parish including parishioners who contribute electronically. The website provides for those who are interested, instructions to contribute electronically.

Envelopes: OSV or Our Sunday Visitor from Indiana is contracted to prepare and mail the Church envelopes to every Parishioner. Please call the office (724-695-7325) if you are a parishioner and you wish to receive envelopes. We have received reports from parishioners that did not receive your monthly envelopes. Please call us or drop us a note the collection basket and OSV wants to receive this information to investigate why your envelopes were not delivered to you. Again, please let us know and we will alert OSV of your situation.

Saint Isidore the Farmer T-Shirts ($10.00) are available at the Parish Office. All Sizes are available.

Saint Isidore the Farmer will again host at Saint Alphonsus Hall a Turkey Dinner on Saturday November 6. Dinner will be from 4-7pm and the cost is $14.00 Eat-in or take-out.

Winter 2022: Saint Isidore the Farmer at Saint Patrick Hall will host a stuffed Pork Chop Dinner. More details to follow.

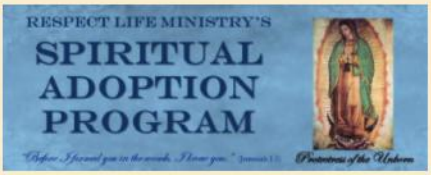
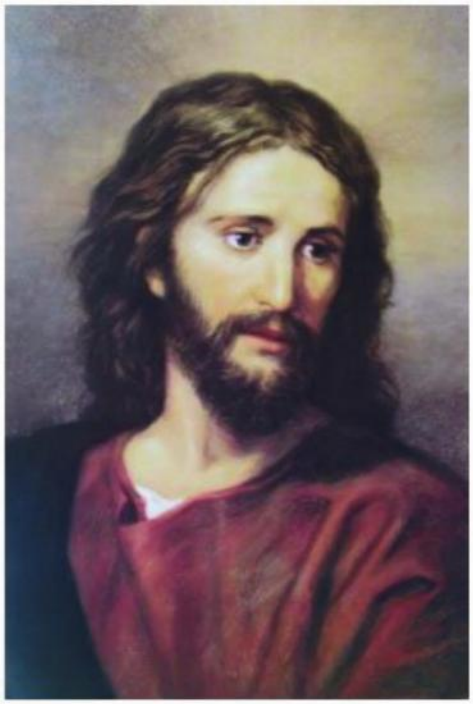
Today is Respect Life Sunday!



The Respect Life Committee invites you to participate in the Spiritual Adoption Program. Here's how it works. You spiritually adopt an unborn child who is in danger of abortion by pledging to pray for the child and his or her parents once a day, for 9 months (the amount of time that a child is in the womb). A prayer card (to the right) has been printed for this purpose. Just cut it out of the bulletin! If you wish to put a name to the child you are praying for, a space has been provided for you to write in a name. This program will end 9 months from today, which will be July 3. Monthly bulletin announcements will remind you of your pledge to pray.

Thank you for praying for the unborn and their parents!



YOUTH GROUP

Our next youth group gathering will be next Sunday (Oct. 10) at St. Alphonsus Hall, from 6pm - 8pm. We'll be taking a deep dive into the Bible, talking about where it came from, what it has to offer, how to understand it, and how to encounter God through it! See you there!

Everyone in grades 9-12 are invited to this year's Fall Retreat at Camp Allegheny in Ellwood City on Nov. 19-21! Parish youth groups from all over the Diocese will gather for a weekend filled with inspiring talks, fun games, prayer and Mass, great food, a live band, and more! This is a great opportunity to meet new people, get away from the hustle and bustle of everyday life, and encounter the Lord in a powerful way! There will even be a dance party! For more info., visit https://www.thefallretreat.org/. To sign up, contact Fr. Zach (zgaliyas@diopitt.org or 724-695-7325) by Monday, Oct. 11.

Dear Jesus, Word made flesh and splendor of the Father, our Light and our Life, I pray to You for the life of the unborn child I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion. Please give to the parents of this child the grace and the courage to bring their baby to birth and to the fullness of life you desire. Amen.

The Little Sisters of the Poor thank you for your generosity to help with their ministry!

The Midway Senior Citizens would like to extend an invitation to all those 55+ to attend once a month meetings. These meetings are held at the Midway VFD the first Thursday of each month at 11 am. After a brief business meeting, we have a catered lunch (cost is $5) and entertainment. If you are starting to come out again, please join us. There is easy access to the Fire Hall and ample parking. For the October 7th meeting there will be flu shots offered in the Fire Hall from 9:30 to 10:30 am by Kathryn Fogel a pharmacist from Rite-Aid. Any questions, call Nancy Hillberry at 724-796-0505.

Come on out, have lunch and some fun!

Holy Name Society

The Holy Name Society is getting ready to have their next meeting on Wednesday, October 13th at 7:30 pm in St. Columbkille Hall. I just wanted to remind all the current members to put a place holder on their calendars.

I also want to invite anyone over 18 that is looking for a way to associate with individuals with similar beliefs and values to attend. If you have a service void in your life and would like to serve your church and community, please come to the October meeting and see what we are about

Thanks, and I look forward to seeing everyone again. Please stay safe.

-Mike Quince

Community Outreach

West Allegheny Food Panty Christmas Gifts

Janoski's Market in Clinton has again graciously volunteered to collect and distribute Christmas gifts for the Food Panty kids. They set up a "shoppe" where clients may choose gifts. This was a great success last year as parents loved the ability to select items their child would like. If you would like to participate, you can drop off a new, unwrapped gift (any age/gender) or a monetary donation at Janoski's Market from October 1 thru December 5. Monetary donations will be used to purchase additional gifts.

Thank you in advance for your support!

CATHOLIC CHARITIES

Catholic Charities of Pittsburgh believes in the celebration and value of life and the dignity of every human person. Our services emphasize healing for all who come to us in distress and need.

Over the last year and half, we have seen basic needs skyrocket. These are needs necessary simply to survive: food, shelter and baby supplies, such as formula and clothes.

Rising unemployment and the closure of many businesses means increased numbers of those who cannot help themselves – and we're beginning to see individuals and families whose careful planning and budgets could not have envisioned their current struggles just 12 months ago.

If you need assistance or know someone who does, please reach out: Phone 412-456-6999 Email info@ccpgh.org

Readings for: Twenty Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time October 3, 2021

Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I Gn2:18-24

The LORD God said: "It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a suitable partner for him." So the LORD God formed out of the ground various wild animals and various birds of the air, and he brought them to the man to see what he would call them; whatever the man called each of them would be its name. The man gave names to all the cattle, all the birds of the air, and all wild animals; but none proved to be the suitable partner for the man. So the LORD God cast a deep sleep on the man, and while he was asleep, he took out one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh. The LORD God then built up into a woman the rib that he had taken from the man. When he brought her to the man, the man said: This one, at last, is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; this one shall be called 'woman, 'for out of 'her man' this one has been taken." That is why a man leaves his father and mother and clings to his wife, and the two of them become one flesh.

R. Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm Ps 128:1, 2, 3, 4-5, 6

R May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives.
Blessed are you who fear the LORD, who walk in his ways! For you shall eat the fruit of your handiwork; blessed shall you be, and favored.
R. May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives.
Your wife shall be like a fruitful vine in the recesses of your home; your children like olive plants around your table.
R. May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives.
Behold, thus is the man blessed who fears the LORD. The LORD bless you from Zion: may you see the prosperity of Jerusalem all the days of your life.
R. May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives.
May you see your children's children. Peace be upon Israel!
R. May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives.

Reading II Heb2:9-11

Brothers and sisters: He "for a little while" was made "lower than the angels, " that by the grace of God he might taste death for everyone. For it was fitting that he, for whom and through whom all things exist, in bringing many children to glory, should make the leader to their salvation perfect through suffering. He who consecrates and those who are being consecrated all have one origin. Therefore, he is not ashamed to call them "brothers."

R. Thanks be to God

Gospel Mk 10:2-16

The Pharisees approached Jesus and asked, "Is it lawful for a husband to divorce his wife?" They were testing him. He said to them in reply, "What did Moses command you?" They replied, "Moses permitted a husband to write a bill of divorce and dismiss her." But Jesus told them, "Because of the hardness of your hearts he wrote you this commandment. But from the beginning of creation, God made them male and female. For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh. So they are no longer two but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, no human being must separate." In the house the disciples again questioned Jesus about this. He said to them, "Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her; and if she divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery." And people were bringing children to him that he might touch them, but the disciples rebuked them. When Jesus saw this he became indignant and said to them, "Let the children come to me; do not prevent them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. Amen, I say to you, whoever does not accept the kingdom of God like a child will not enter it." Then he embraced them and blessed them, placing his hands on them.

R. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.
