From the Keyboard of the Pastor:

Today is Holy

Today we hear from Nehemiah. This reading reminds us that “Today is holy to the Lord ... and we should rejoice in the Lord.” We also know that we are to keep Holy the Sabbath.

What can we do or not do to keep “Holy” the Sabbath Day? Let our Sunday be “ful”. Our Sabbath Day could be prayer*ful*. It could be joy*ful*. It could be rest*ful*. The day could be grate*ful*. Our Sabbath Day could be peace*ful*.

Please add your own _____ “ful”.

Have a great Sabbath Day and a great day Holy to the Lord.

Fr. Harry

Please pray for the souls of

Joan Smith

and

Ann Vincenti

and keep their families in your prayers.

May they rest in peace.

2022 > 2021

What's the plan? We have a simple equation for the New Year: 2022 > 2021. That's the hope.

But no matter how the year unfolds, our plan of action is the same as it's been for more than 110 years. It's simple, and it works. We:

- Welcome any person in distress regardless of their background or story
- Prioritize immediate need — especially those at risk of harm
- Work to reframe every urgent need that comes before us as an invitation to partner for long-term stability.

That's our plan. That's also our heart. We're inspired by Jesus' teaching and are focused on lasting solutions. We serve our communities' critical needs with compassion, healing and hope and love. That's our everyday standard.

Winter Warming Station — We don't know what this year will bring but we can expect that this month we'll see snow, ice and more than a few heavy coat days. That's why Catholic Charities Winter Warming Station is now officially open to those who need daytime shelter from life-threatening cold. With the partnership of our supporters, we provide clean winter wear, snacks and companionship in a safe environment. Our doors at the Susan Zubik Welcome Center on 9th Street in Downtown Pittsburgh will stay open seven days a week through March.

Volunteers Needed — Helping hands serve coffee and snacks, sort and distribute winter clothes and provide companionship. Three-hour shifts begin at 8 am. on weekdays and 7:30 a.m. on the weekends. We welcome volunteers 18 years or older who are fully vaccinated against Covid-19. To sign up, contact kslate@ccpgh.org

We Need Supplies

- Oatmeal packets
- Individual sugar and cream servings
- Breakfast bars.
- Clean winter wear such as hats, gloves and scarves

To coordinate drop-offs, email smcmur@ccpgh.org.

Readings for: Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

January 23, 2022

Reading I      Neh 8:2-4a, 5-6, 8-10

Ezra the priest brought the law before the assembly, which consisted of men, women, and those children old enough to understand. Standing at one end of the open place that was before the Water Gate, he read out of the book from daybreak till midday, in the presence of the men, the women, and those children old enough to understand; and all the people listened attentively to the book of the law. Ezra the scribe stood on a wooden platform that had been made for the occasion. He opened the scroll so that all the people might see it — for he was standing higher up than any of the people —; and, as he opened it, all the people rose. Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God, and all the people, their hands raised high, answered, “Amen, amen!” Then they bowed down and prostrated themselves before the LORD, their faces to the ground. Ezra read plainly from the book of the law of God, interpreting it so that all could understand what was read. Then Nehemiah, that is, His Excellency, and Ezra the priest-scribe and the Levites who were instructing the people said to all the people: “Today is holy to the LORD your God. Do not be sad, and do not weep” — for all the people were weeping as they heard the words of the law. He said further: “Go, eat rich foods and drink sweet drinks, and allot portions to those who had nothing prepared; for today is holy to our LORD. Do not be saddened this day, for rejoicing in the LORD must be your strength!”

R. Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm      PS 19:8, 9, 10, 15

R. Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life.

The law of the LORD is perfect, refreshing the soul;
The decree of the LORD is trustworthy, giving wisdom to the simple. R.

The precepts of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart;
The command of the LORD is clear, enlightening the eye. R.

The fear of the LORD is pure, enduring forever;
The ordinances of the LORD are true, all of them just. R.

Let the words of my mouth and the thought of my heart find favor before you, O LORD, my rock and my redeemer. R.

Reading II      1 Cor 12:12-30

Brothers and sisters:

As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.

Now the body is not a single part, but many. you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it.

Gospel      Lk 1:1-4; 4:14-21

Since many have undertaken to compile a narrative of the events that have been fulfilled among us, just as those who were eyewitnesses from the beginning and ministers of the word have handed them down to us, I too have decided, after investigating everything accurately anew, to write it down in an orderly sequence for you, most excellent Theophilus, so that you may realize the certainty of the teachings you have received.

Jesus returned to Galilee in the power of the Spirit, and news of him spread throughout the whole region. He taught in their synagogues and was praised by all.

He came to Nazareth, where he had grown up, and went according to his custom into the synagogue on the sabbath day. He stood up to read and was handed a scroll of the prophet Isaiah. He unrolled the scroll and found the passage where it was written:

*The Spirit of the Lord is upon me,
because he has anointed me
to bring glad tidings to the poor
He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives
and recovery of sight to the blind,
to let the oppressed go free,
and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord.*

Rolling up the scroll, he handed it back to the attendant and sat down, and the eyes of all in the synagogue looked intently at him. He said to them, “Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing.”

R. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.
