From the Keyboard of the Pastor:

Please, Take Off Your Shoes

Please, take off your shoes. We are all familiar with this request. People do not want us to dirty their floors or their carpets. In today's first reading, as Moses approaches the burning bush to investigate further, Moses is asked to take off his sandals because Moses was on Holy Ground.

We find ourselves midway through this Lenten season. We attend Mass and Stations of the Cross on the Holy Ground of our six Churches. We have donated items for the Holy Ground of our food pantries in Burgettstown, McDonald and Imperial. We have volunteered many hours to the Fish Frys on the Holy Ground of the halls of our churches. We have prayed in the Holy Ground of our homes.

We remove the spiritual sandals of our hearts like Moses so we can encounter our God on our Holy Ground during this Lenten season.

Widowed, Divorced or Separated?

The loss of a spouse is a traumatic experience. The Beginning Experience® ministry provides a weekend program to help widowed, divorced, or separated men and women of all faiths pass through the grief and move forward with their lives.

The next weekend program is April 8-10, 2022 (Palm Sunday weekend) at the Martina Spiritual Renewal Center, 5244 Clarwin Avenue, West View, PA 15229 (Ross Township.) Payment arrangements and financial assistance may be available.

Visit www.BeginningExperiencePittsburgh.com to register or make a confidential call to Rob at 412-584-5575 or Kim at 412-352-2653 to learn more about this healing ministry.

St. Isidore the Farmer Confirmation Retreat

On March 5th, our Confirmation Class participated in an all-day retreat at our St. Columbkille Site in preparation for their Confirmation. The SENT Team from Franciscan University facilitated the day. Our young people participated in prayer and reflection which concluded with Mass.

Come, Holy Spirit, renew their faith.

WAMA Food Pantry

The WAMA Food Pantry is still at 105 West Allegheny Road (warehouse behind Rite Aid) and these are March's Distribution Dates:

Tuesday morning, March 22nd—
9:00 am to 12:00 noon.

Wednesday evening, March 23rd—
4:30 pm to 6:30 pm.

We still do not have an inside waiting area. There will be a limited number of people in the pantry at all times. Please remember to bring boxes/containers for your supplies.

Our next youth group event will be held over Zoom tonight, Sunday, March 20, at 6:00 pm. We will be praying the Stations of the Cross as we watch another youth group act out each station!

Pierogi For Sale

Potato-Cheese Pierogi are for sale for $8.00 per dozen (frozen) and can be ordered by calling Pat Fratini at 724-796-1308.

We realize it is still winter, but our sights are looking towards summer. St. Isidore the Farmer parish would like to begin planning our 2nd Annual Parish Picnic.

We are looking for volunteers from all six areas, within the parish, to help plan our next parish picnic. We will meet in April (details to follow) and would like to begin planning: the location, date, menu, activities, and more. Watch the bulletin for date/time and location of our meeting.

We hope you will consider attending and participating in the planning of our parish picnic.

St. Isidore of Seville

St. Isidore of Seville was a Spanish scholar and bishop in 600 AD and is the Patron Saint of the Internet because he created a school that became a model for early universities. There is no relation to St. Isidore the Farmer.

Choir News

Recently Bishop Zubik updated restrictions; masks are no longer required. Having stated that, choir rehearsals have begun again on Thursday evenings at 7:00 in St. Alphonsus Church. You are cordially invited to join with us in sung prayer.

God has been gracious to all of us and singing His praises is one way to show thanks. You need not be a soloist or know how to read music. You just need a willing and open heart to hear the call.

Please consider joining us in singing a joyful song to the Lord.

Readings for: Third Sunday of Lent
March 20, 2022

Reading I — Ex 3:1-8a, 13-15

Moses was tending the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian. Leading the flock across the desert, he came to Horeb, the mountain of God. There an angel of the LORD appeared to Moses in fire flaming out of a bush. As he looked on, he was surprised to see that the bush, though on fire, was not consumed. So Moses decided, "I must go over to look at this remarkable sight, and see why the bush is not burned." When the LORD saw him coming over to look at it more closely, God called out to him from the bush, "Moses! Moses!" He answered, "Here I am."

God said, "Come no nearer! Remove the sandals from your feet, for the place where you stand is holy ground. I am the God of your fathers, " he continued, "the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, the God of Jacob." Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God. But the LORD said, "I have witnessed the affliction of my people in Egypt and have heard their cry of complaint against their slave drivers, so I know well what they are suffering. Therefore I have come down to rescue them from the hands of the Egyptians and lead them out of that land into a good and spacious land, a land flowing with milk and honey." Moses said to God, "But when I go to the Israelites and say to them, 'The God of your fathers has sent me to you,' if they ask me, 'What is his name?' what am I to tell them?"

God replied, "I am who am." Then he added, "This is what you shall tell the Israelites: I AM sent me to you." God spoke further to Moses, "Thus shall you say to the Israelites: The LORD, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, the God of Jacob, has sent me to you. "This is my name forever; thus am I to be remembered through all generations."

℟. Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm — Ps 103:1-2, 3-4, 6-7, 8, 11

℟. The Lord is kind and merciful.

Bless the LORD, O my soul; and all my being, bless his holy name. Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits. **℟.

He pardons all your iniquities, heals all your ills, He redeems your life from destruction, crowns you with kindness and compassion.℟.

The LORD secures justice and the rights of all the oppressed. He has made known his ways to Moses, and his deeds to the children of Israel.℟.

Merciful and gracious is the LORD, slow to anger and abounding in kindness. For as the heavens are high above the earth, so surpassing is his kindness toward those who fear him.℟.

Reading II — 1 Cor 10:1-6, 10-12

I do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, that our ancestors were all under the cloud and all passed through the sea, and all of them were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea. All ate the same spiritual food, and all drank the same spiritual drink, for they drank from a spiritual rock that followed them, and the rock was the Christ. Yet God was not pleased with most of them, for they were struck down in the desert.

These things happened as examples for us, so that we might not desire evil things, as they did. Do not grumble as some of them did, and suffered death by the destroyer. These things happened to them as an example, and they have been written down as a warning to us, upon whom the end of the ages has come. Therefore, whoever thinks he is standing secure should take care not to fall.

℟. Thanks be to God

Gospel — Lk 13:1-9

Some people told Jesus about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with the blood of their sacrifices. Jesus said to them in reply, "Do you think that because these Galileans suffered in this way they were greater sinners than all other Galileans? By no means! But I tell you, if you do not repent, you will all perish as they did! Or those eighteen people who were killed when the tower at Siloam fell on them— do you think they were more guilty than everyone else who lived in Jerusalem? By no means! But I tell you, if you do not repent, you will all perish as they did!"

And he told them this parable: "There once was a person who had a fig tree planted in his orchard, and when he came in search of fruit on it but found none, he said to the gardener, 'For three years now I have come in search of fruit on this fig tree but have found none. So cut it down. Why should it exhaust the soil?' He said to him in reply, 'Sir, leave it for this year also, and I shall cultivate the ground around it and fertilize it; it may bear fruit in the future. If not you can cut it down.'"

℟. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.
