CHRISTMAS: A CELEBRATION OF HOPE

The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it. (John 1:5)

Merry Christmas! On this joyous day, we join with all the angels and saints in proclaiming that Jesus, the "light" that "shines in the darkness," has come (John 1:5)! He has come so that we could enter into his own triumph over the darkness.

On the night of Jesus' birth, it seemed that darkness would prevail. Joseph and Mary were unable to secure a clean, safe place where Jesus could be born. They had to settle for a cave and a manger. Then came the harrowing flight into Egypt so that Jesus could be shielded from Herod's attempt to have him put to death (Matthew 2:13-18).

Even after his family settled in quiet Nazareth, Jesus continued to face darkness and opposition. The devil tempted him, his neighbors tried to throw him off a cliff, and people accused him of being in league with demons. But never, not even in the deepest darkness of his suffering and death, did the darkness win out. Jesus rose in victory! Jesus doesn't just promise to overcome darkness—he does it!

Today, rejoice that Jesus, the Light, has come into the world—into your world. He has come to bring peace, hope, and victory. Whatever darkness you're facing, Jesus is with you. If anxiety is shaking your peace, he can calm the storm in your mind. If trials have come in quick succession, he can shine on each of them and guide you. If family conflicts are dampening your joy, he can enlighten the heart of each person involved.

Hold on to the light of Christ. Keep your eyes fixed on him, the One who cannot be overcome. Jesus Christ, born this day in a manger, is the Light that you need. Call on him, look to him, and celebrate his amazing love!

"Jesus, I praise you for coming and dispelling the darkness!"
