The Beautiful Beatitudes

To follow Christ is to seek lowliness, humility, mercy, and righteousness. The Ten Commandments summarize God's teaching to his people. Jesus gives us a new law that builds on the old. Before it was "You shall not…"; now it is, "Blessed are you when…" He calls us to greater happiness, greater blessing, but it comes with a challenge. Saint Augustine says that Jesus went up the mountain to preach the Beatitudes because he was preaching a higher moral doctrine: "greater precepts of righteousness."

The new law contradicts what our wounded human nature tends to think and feel. We are challenged to believe blessings can come from tears, meekness, and poverty; that living meekly leads to strength and security. Appreciating these truths requires transforming our minds and hearts. Faith is required. Deeply desiring and living in the right does bring satisfaction. There is consolation in mourning the things that sadden Christ's heart.

If we live by the beatitudes, many will treat us more generously. We know people who are merciful, and we are quick to show them mercy. When our hearts are clean, we can see God more clearly. Those who seek and create peace are considered by all to be children of God. They are not without trials and suffering, but they are blessed and happy.

Christ calls us to store up treasures in heaven, spiritual blessings that cannot be taken away. Even if we experience difficulty, we will still receive the highest and greatest gift: the kingdom of heaven.

—Fr. Mark Haydu, LC

For Reflection

Am I renewing my heart and mind in Christ? How do I live out the beatitudes?

Piece: The Sermon on the Mount, circa 1482
Artist: Cosimo Rosselli
Location: Sistine Chapel

"Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness" (Matthew 5:10).

Seguir a Cristo es buscar la humildad, la misericordia y la justicia. Los Diez Mandamientos resumen la enseñanza de Dios a su pueblo. Jesús nos da una nueva ley que se basa en lo viejo. Antes era "Tú no ..."; Ahora es: "Bendito seas cuando ..." Nos llama a una mayor felicidad, mayor bendición, pero viene con un desafío. San Agustín dice que Jesús subió a la montaña para predicar las Bienaventuranzas porque estaba predicando una doctrina moral superior: "mayores preceptos de justicia". La nueva ley contradice lo que nuestra naturaleza humana herida tiende a pensar y sentir. Nos desafían a creer que las bendiciones pueden venir de lágrimas, mansedumbre y pobreza; Que vivir humildemente conduce a la fuerza ya la seguridad. Apreciar estas verdades requiere transformar nuestras mentes y corazones. La fe es necesaria. Profundamente deseando y viviendo en la derecha trae satisfacción. Hay consolación en el luto de las cosas que entristecen al corazón de Cristo. Si vivimos por las bienaventuranzas, muchos nos tratarán con más generosidad. Conocemos personas que son misericordiosas, y somos rápidos en mostrarles misericordia. Cuando nuestros corazones están limpios, podemos ver a Dios con más claridad. Aquellos que buscan y crean la paz son considerados por todos como hijos de Dios. Ellos no están exentos de sufrimientos, sino que son bendecidos y felices. Cristo nos llama a guardar tesoros en el cielo, bendiciones espirituales que no pueden ser quitados. Incluso si experimentamos dificultades, seguiremos recibiendo el regalo más alto y más grande; El reino de los cielos.

Dear Padre,

I am struggling with our new pastor. He has been in our parish for less than six months, and nothing seems to please him. Everything has to change, and the parishioners have no input. I thought the days of "pray, pay, and obey" were over.

AMERICA365/SHUTTERSTOCK

The Code of Canon Law identifies the pastor as the shepherd of the parish. His duties require him to teach, sanctify, and govern the people entrusted to his care. However, canon law also envisions that he engage in pastoral care "with the assistance of lay members of the Christian faithful" (519). It would be fair to assert that the intention of the law is to encourage the building up of a community using the "knowledge, prudence, and integrity" of every member (228).

Many issues, feelings, and even theologies make up the personalities of a parish. The one constant that needs to be present is the presumption of good will (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 2478). If that is missing, then conflict, hard feelings, and many misunderstandings will result.

Without taking sides, I suggest that everyone takes a deep breath. Then each of you—the pastor included—ask yourself, "Have I attempted to interpret this person or situation favorably? Have I made any rash judgments?" If honest and prayerful reflection reveal less-than-good intentions, now is the time to change your attitude and acknowledge that a new start is needed.

We all know there are 10 Commandments, but how many Precepts of the Catholic Church are there?

According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, there are 5.

II. THE PRECEPTS OF THE CHURCH

2041 The precepts of the Church are set in the context of a moral life bound to and nourished by liturgical life. The obligatory character of these positive laws decreed by the pastoral authorities is meant to guarantee to the faithful the very necessary minimum in the spirit of prayer and moral effort, in the growth in love of God and neighbor:

2042 The first precept ("You shall attend Mass on Sundays and holy days of obligation and rest from servile labor") requires the faithful to sanctify the day commemorating the Resurrection of the Lord as well as the principal liturgical feasts honoring the mysteries of the Lord, the Blessed Virgin Mary, and the saints; in the first place, by participating in the Eucharistic celebration, in which the Christian community is gathered, and by resting from those works and activities which could impede such a sanctification of these days.82

The second precept ("You shall confess your sins at least once a year") ensures preparation for the Eucharist by the reception of the sacrament of reconciliation, which continues Baptism's work of conversion and forgiveness.83

The third precept ("You shall receive the sacrament of the Eucharist at least during the Easter season") guarantees as a minimum the reception of the Lord's Body and Blood in connection with the Paschal feasts, the origin and center of the Christian liturgy.84

2043 The fourth precept ("You shall observe the days of fasting and abstinence established by the Church") ensures the times of ascesis (atonement) and penance, which prepare us for the liturgical feasts and help us acquire mastery over our instincts and freedom of heart.85

The fifth precept ("You shall help to provide for the needs of the Church") means that the faithful are obliged to assist with the material needs of the Church, each according to his own ability.86 The faithful also have the duty of providing for the material needs of the Church, each according to his own abilities.87
