Piece: Virgin and Angels Imploring Christ Not to Punish Lust, Avarice and Pride, circa seventeenth century
Artist: Ippolito Scarsella
Location: Pinacoteca, Vatican Museums

A Show of Mercy

One of the most important signs of true strength is the ability to show mercy. The Roman emperors understood this and were praised when they showed clemency toward a criminal. The one who has the power to condemn also has power to forgive.

The artist Ippolito Scarsella—in his painting Virgin and Angels Imploring Christ Not to Punish Lust, Avarice and Pride—depicts this mercy, as it applies to Jesus, in classic allegorical fashion. Mary and the angels are shown pleading with Jesus to hold back his wrath against lust, avarice, and pride. Jesus is rearing back to launch arrows upon them, yet Mary begs him to withhold his judgment.

The Book of Wisdom praises God, for “he is master of might, but governs with lenience.” The fact is, he would be fully justified to reprimand every vice of his creatures, yet he chooses mercy. What a wonderful lesson for all persons in authority!

It’s enough to just look at the Gospel. The weeds are not immediately torn out or burned out of consideration of the wheat. Both are allowed to grow and develop to maturity to insure the harvest. Permitting the good to struggle with evil allows the good to grow in perfection. It also gives the bad a chance to convert.

God gives every grace to those who love him so that we may not succumb to the challenges around us. His mercy gives the sinner every possible chance to repent and be saved. This is the heart we must have for one another and why we should never gloat about our goodness or despair of our weaknesses. While there is life, there is hope.

—Fr. Mark Haydu, LC

For Reflection

Do I more readily imitate God’s judgment, justice, or mercy?
How can I practice all three?

“The Spirit...comes to the aid of our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought...” (Romans 8:26).

Uno de los signos más importantes de la verdadera fuerza es la capacidad de mostrar misericordia. Los emperadores romanos comprendieron esto y fueron alabados cuando mostraron clemencia hacia un criminal. El que tiene el poder de condenar también tiene poder para perdonar. El artista Ippolito Scarsella -en esta pintura Virgen y Ángeles Implorando a Cristo para no castigar la lujuria, la avaricia y el orgullo- representa esta misericordia, como se aplica a Jesús, en la manera alegórica clásica. María y los ángeles son mostrados suplicando a Jesús que retenga su ira contra la lujuria, la avaricia y el orgullo. Jesús está levantando de nuevo para lanzar flechas sobre ellos, pero María le pide que retenga su juicio. El Libro de la Sabiduría alaba a Dios, porque “él es dueño del poder, pero gobierna con indulgencia”. El hecho es que estaría plenamente justificado para reprender cada vicio de sus criaturas, pero escoge misericordia. ¡Qué maravillosa lección para todas las personas en autoridad! Basta con mirar un Evangelio. Las malas hierbas no son inmediatamente arrancadas o quemadas por la consideración del trigo. Ambos se les permite crecer y desarrollarse hasta su madurez para asegurar la cosecha. Permitir el bien para luchar contra el mal permite que el bien crezca en la perfección. También da la mala oportunidad de convertir. Dios da toda gracia a aquellos que lo aman para que no sucumbamos a los desafíos que nos rodean. Su misericordia le da al pecador toda oportunidad posible de arrepentirse y ser salvo. Este es el corazón que debemos tener el uno para el otro y por qué nunca debemos regodear sobre nuestra bondad o desesperación de nuestras debilidades. Mientras hay vida hay esperanza.

Dear Padre,

If I'm late for Mass, can I receive the Eucharist?

There is no hard-and-fast rule on how “late” one can be for Mass and still receive Communion. Holy Communion is offered outside of Mass at times, so theoretically you could come during the Communion rite and still receive Communion.

But there is more to be considered with this question. If you are going to go Mass, you should be there from the beginning to the end. You should be there before the entrance procession begins and you should stay until the last verse of the final song is sung. Things happen, like an unexpected train on the way to Mass or a sick child who needs attention and care. However, if you find yourself always coming late to Mass, you may need to make a change in your routine.

I remember cleaning out a closet of a church I was stationed at, and I found a sign with ropes attached to it. It stated, “Mass has begun, the next Mass begins at...” and there was a place where you could list the time of the next Mass. I was told the ropes were tied across the entrance so you couldn’t come into Mass late.

Those days are gone, though. It’s up to you to follow your conscience. It is important to participate in the entire celebration, but if on the rare occasion you come late to Mass, ask yourself, “Can I prepare myself to worthily receive Communion at this moment?” If you can answer “yes” to that question, then I would say it would be OK to receive Communion.

A Word From Pope Francis

“With our eyes fixed on Jesus and his merciful gaze, we experience the love of the Most Holy Trinity. The mission Jesus received from the Father was that of revealing the mystery of divine love in its fullness. ‘God is love’ (1 John 4:8, 16), John affirms for the first and only time in all of Holy Scripture. This love has now been made visible and tangible in Jesus’ entire life. His person is nothing but love, a love given gratuitously. The relationships he forms with the people who approach him manifest something entirely unique and unrepeatable. The signs he works, especially in favor of sinners, the poor, the marginalized, the sick, and the suffering, are all meant to teach mercy. Everything in him speaks of mercy. Nothing in him is devoid of compassion.”

"It is Jesus that you seek when you dream of happiness; He is waiting for you when nothing else you find satisfies you; He is the beauty to which you are so attracted; it is He who provoked you with that thirst for fullness that will not let you settle for compromise; it is He who urges you to shed the masks of a false life; it is He who reads in your heart your most genuine choices, the choices that others try to stifle."

"It is Jesus who stirs in you the desire to do something great with your lives, the will to follow an ideal, the refusal to allow yourselves to be ground down by mediocrity, the courage to commit yourselves humbly and patiently to improving yourselves and society, making the world more human and more fraternal." — Pope John Paul II
