Spreading Seeds

The kingdom of God has an inward power, an effervescence with which it is equipped, that makes it a force of growth and multiplication. Jesus compares the kingdom with a seed. You plant it in favorable soil and, you know not how, it springs up into a little plant and then eventually into a full-grown tree. Its life principle is not given by the soil—although that helps it grow—but rather it has power of itself to expand.

The Christian life and the kingdom are very much like this. At baptism we have received supernatural grace in our souls. And if given suitable support, that faith will grow and become the transformative element of our lives. It will drive us toward a life of faith, hope, and love. It will lead us to forgive others, improve society, and transform everything for good.

The same can be said of the Church, Christ's kingdom of love. Christ planted the seed of faith in his apostles and that seed spread and thrived all across Europe. Their faith multiplied and grew until all throughout the world the fruits of their faith are on display as a veritable kingdom of charity: hospitals, universities, soup kitchens, AIDS hospices, shelters for the battered and homeless, retreat centers, chapels, churches, museums, research and rehabilitation centers, religious orders, lay associations, volunteer groups, and the list could and does continue on and on. There is a force in faith and love that cannot be contained!

—Fr. Mark Haydu, LC

For Reflection

Do I let the force of my faith multiply into acts of love and service?

[Jesus said,] "But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants and puts forth large branches."

Mark 4:32

El reino de Dios tiene un poder interno, una efervescencia con la que está equipado, que lo convierte en una fuerza de crecimiento y multiplicación. Jesús compara el reino con una semilla. Usted lo planta en un suelo favorable y, no sabe cómo, brota en una pequeña planta y luego en un árbol adulto. Su principio de vida no está dado por el suelo, aunque eso lo ayuda a crecer, sino que tiene el poder de expandirse por sí mismo. La vida cristiana y el reino son muy parecidos a esto. En el bautismo, hemos recibido gracia sobrenatural en nuestras almas. Y si se les brinda un apoyo adecuado, esa fe crecerá y se convertirá en el elemento transformador de nuestras vidas. Nos conducirá hacia una vida de fe, esperanza y amor. Nos llevará a perdonar a otros, mejorar la sociedad y transformar todo para siempre. Lo mismo puede decirse de la Iglesia, el reino de amor de Cristo. Cristo plantó la semilla de la fe en sus apóstoles y esa semilla se extendió y prosperó por toda Europa. Su fe se multiplicó y creció hasta que en todo el mundo se exhiben los frutos de su fe como un verdadero reino de caridad: hospitales, universidades, comedores populares, hospicios para el SIDA, refugios para los maltratados y desamparados, centros de retiros, capillas, iglesias, museos, centros de investigación y rehabilitación, órdenes religiosas, asociaciones de laicos, grupos de voluntarios, y la lista podría continuar y así sucesivamente. ¡Hay una fuerza en la fe y el amor que no se puede contener!

Dear Padre,

I try to be responsible in my Christian duty to visit the sick. While my visits have good intentions, I often feel they aren't well received. Please advise.

I commend you for your commitment in carrying out your Christian duty. Saint Rose of Lima said, “When we serve the poor and the sick, we serve Jesus” (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 2449). Works of mercy, such as visiting the infirm, “are charitable actions by which we come to the aid of our neighbor in his spiritual and bodily necessities” (CCC 2447). When we perform these works, the primary focus is on the recipient, not on how these acts make me feel good about myself or how I appear before God and others.

My advice for visiting the sick at home or in the hospital is to avoid showing up unannounced, whenever possible. (I offer this advice after my unexpected visit to a patient in the ICU, who never appeared in public without her wig.) Also, observe verbal and nonverbal signs on how long to stay. Some patients may appear bored or lonely and are open to guests; others are in pain or they've been awakened throughout the night and desire rest more than greeting visitors for a prolonged time. Ask yourself: Are the sick being polite in keeping me company? Am I the latest guest asking them to repeat their diagnosis? Do they really feel like praying right now? While the sick appreciate our concern, visiting them is most beneficial when we're acutely sensitive to their needs.

A Word From Pope Francis

Evangelization does not consist in proselytizing, for proselytizing is a caricature of evangelization, but rather evangelizing entails attracting by our witness those who are far off. It means humbly drawing near to those who feel distant from God in the Church, drawing near to those who feel judged and condemned.

Green Corner

It's easy to forget what happens when you toss your garbage in the waste bin but take a minute to read these statistics about how long something lasts in the landfill?

Plastic bags: 20-1000 years to decompose
= Canvas reusable bags

Plastic bottles: 450 years or more
= Refillable water bottle

Styrofoam used in To-Go or coffee cups: It does not biodegrade
= Bring reusable container for left overs &/or mug

Batteries: 100 years
= Choose rechargeable

Goal:

Make a conscience effort to choose items that are compostable & reusable before something recyclable. If your choices are recyclable please be sure they always end up in the correct bin so they won't become more landfill waste.
