Protect Life

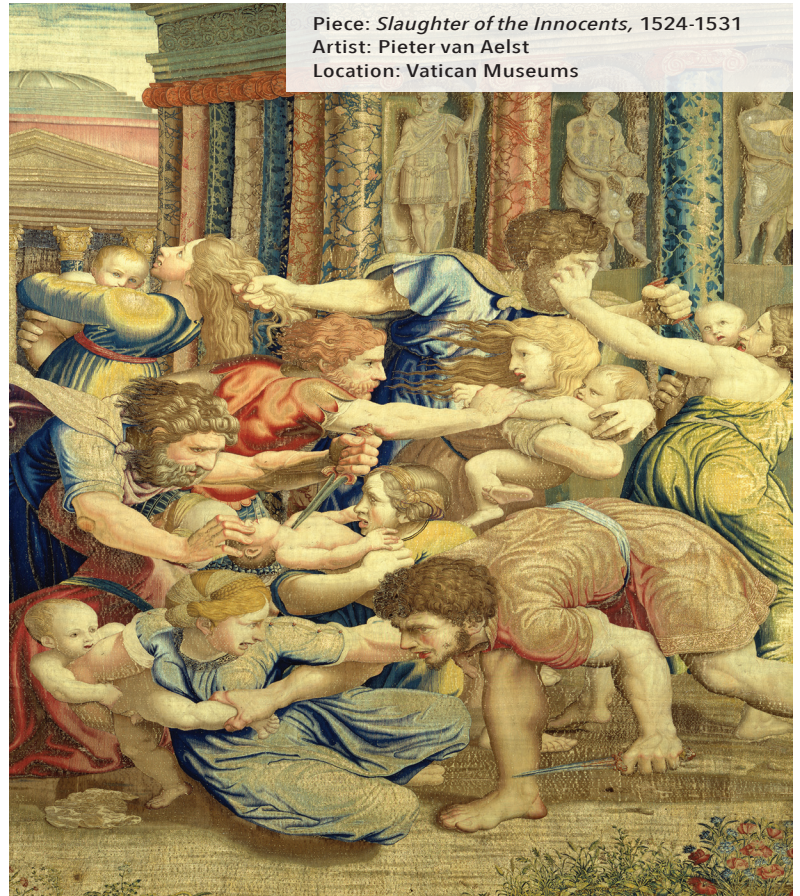

The tapestry scene may not seem to have much to do with the readings, yet it does. Let me explain: This wall-size work of art depicts the murder decreed by Herod of all the children two years and under. It was his desperate effort to extinguish any possibility that the Messiah might eventually contest his throne.

The reading of James could very well be applied to the greedy and avaricious Herod. “You have lived on earth in luxury and pleasure; you have fattened your hearts for the day of [your own] slaughter” (James 5:5). All the wealth, authority, and success he had only led him to be more grasping and insecure. Anyone who sees a threat to his own well-being in the birth of a child reveals his own internal poverty of spirit.

Rather than remove the little ones from our lives, we should do all we can to edify and maintain their faith. Jesus, as well as James, has harsh words for anyone who would lead a little one to sin.

Herod was the first who needed to hear the words of the Messiah he was trying to silence. If anything causes you to sin, even something as precious as a hand or foot, it’s better to cut it off and live physically impaired rather than maintain apparent wholeness while spiritually rotting from within. The life of our souls and that of the little ones is of paramount importance, and no material security should be placed ahead of it.

For Reflection

*Do I protect life as a gift from the Father, from conception to natural death?
How do I help the little ones in my life come to know Jesus?*

[Jesus said,] “It is better for you to enter into life maimed than with two hands to go into Gehenna.”

Mark 9:43

La escena del tapiz puede no parecer tener mucho que ver con las lecturas, pero lo hace. Permítanme explicar: esta obra de arte del tamaño de una pared representa el asesinato decretado por Herodes de todos los niños menores de dos años. Fue su esfuerzo desesperado por extinguir cualquier posibilidad de que el Mesías eventualmente disputara su trono. La lectura de Santiago bien podría aplicarse al codicioso y avaro Herodes. “Has vivido en la tierra con lujo y placer; has engordado tus corazones para el día de [tu] propia matanza” (Santiago 5: 5). Toda la riqueza, autoridad y éxito que solo le había llevado a ser más comprensivo e inseguro. Cualquiera que vea una amenaza para su propio bienestar en el nacimiento de un niño revela su propia pobreza interna de espíritu. En lugar de eliminar a los pequeños de nuestras vidas, debemos hacer todo lo posible para edificar y mantener su fe. Jesús, al igual que Santiago, tiene palabras duras para cualquiera que pueda inducir a un pequeño a pecar. Herodes fue el primero que necesitó escuchar las palabras del Mesías que intentaba silenciar. Si algo te hace pecar, incluso algo tan precioso como una mano o un pie, es mejor cortarlo y vivir físicamente impedido en lugar de mantener una aparente integridad mientras espiritualmente se pudre desde adentro. La vida de nuestras almas y la de los pequeños es de suma importancia, y no se debe colocar ninguna seguridad material delante de ella.

Mk 10:2–16 or

Mk 10:2–12

Dear Padre,

The older I get, the more distracted I become by crying babies at Mass. Sometimes I leave Mass so irritated that I wonder what benefit is gained in going at all.

At the movies, the opera, or some other formal live performance, a crying infant is regarded as persona non grata. But the Eucharist is a family event, not a theatrical one. Children should feel welcomed at Mass. After all, Jesus said, “Let the children come to me; do not prevent them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these” (Mark 10:14).

While small children may belong at Mass, it should also be acknowledged that certain courtesies apply when crowds gather to pray in the house of the Lord.

Parents may consider sitting at the end of a pew for a quick exit to minimize disruption when a child needs immediate attention. When a child is of a certain age, parents may consider taking advantage of parish nurseries or designated cry rooms in churches on a temporary basis, if available.

By the same token, impatient parishioners (and preachers) should be sensitive to the needs of parents, who admirably desire participation in the family celebration and weekly nourishment by Christ’s word and sacrament—temporary toddler temper tantrums notwithstanding. “Be still and know that I am God!” (Psalm 46:11) is a divine invitation to worshipers of all ages.

A Word From Pope Francis

Every child who, rather than being born, is condemned unjustly to being aborted, bears the face of Jesus Christ, ...And every elderly person, even if he is ill or at the end of his days, bears the face of Christ. They cannot be discarded, as the “culture of waste” suggests! They cannot be thrown away!

#3 Reuse/Repurpose/Upcycle

Definitions: Reusing means to use something again in its original state.

Repurposing: means to change something so it can be used for something else.

Upcycle: reuse in a way to create a product of higher quality or value than original.

These options are even better for the environment than recycling.

Goal:

Purchase items of quality that will not have to be replaced i.e. cloth bag over a sturdy plastic/vinyl/paper bag. Cloth can be washed and reused.

Save old jars for storing, knick knacks, left overs or use as a vase.

Please recycle your church bulletin! Thank you.

PARISH PICK OF THE MONTH

In an acclaimed film portrayal, Olivia Hussey illuminates the life story of Mother Teresa of Calcutta, the selfless missionary who brought hope, love, and salvation to the poorest of the poor. The movie examines the fundamental moments of Mother Teresa's life from her childhood in Albania in the 1920s to her first calling as a nun, the decision to leave her order and live with the poorest of the poor, the challenges of founding the Congregation of the Missionaries of Charity, and her great work of service in Calcutta and the rest of the world.
