God's Reign in Heaven and Earth

Piece: The Last Judgment (detail), 1536-1541
Artist: Michelangelo
Location: Sistine Chapel

The trumpeters in the center of the huge Sistine Chapel wall fresco declare the new reign of God, the coming of the new Jerusalem, which was sent from heaven from God Most High. This new heaven and earth is the civilization of love brought about by Christ's passion, death, and resurrection.

It's not an abstract ideal or some faraway lost city. It's a city that exists in heaven around the throne of the Lamb and grows by means of the Church as God's kingdom on earth.

Just as Paul and Barnabas appointed elders and the Church took on a stable, hierarchical structure, we are reminded of the historical growth of this city of love—God's Church on earth. From the beginning it was founded on faith. The apostles prayed, fasted, and commended these elders to the Lord. It was their common faith in Christ that was the foundation of this new kingdom of God.

The glory of this kingdom isn't in church buildings or organizations, but it's the glory that Jesus mentions in today's Gospel. "Now is the Son of Man glorified, and God is glorified in him" (John 13:31). It's the glory that comes from Jesus' faithful love toward the Father and his disciples, leading him to be enthroned on the cross and rule as the Lamb that was slain yet still stands. It is the new commandment of love that is their glory. Thus the bride that is the Church will be great to the degree that it loves like Jesus, its husband and King.

—Fr. Mark Haydu, LC

For Reflection

Do I believe that the essence of real, lasting power is found in love?
Old forms of hate and division are destined to pass away. Am I hastening the arrival of the new kingdom by the love with which I live?

[Jesus said,] "I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another."
John 13:34

Los trompetistas en el centro del gran fresco de la pared de la Capilla Sixtina declaran el nuevo reinado de Dios, la venida de la nueva Jerusalén, que fue enviada desde el cielo desde Dios Altísimo. Este nuevo cielo y la tierra es la civilización del amor producida por la pasión, muerte y resurrección de Cristo. No es un ideal abstracto o una ciudad perdida lejana. Es una ciudad que existe en el cielo alrededor del trono del Cordero y crece por medio de la Iglesia como el reino de Dios en la tierra. Así como Pablo y Bernabé nombraron ancianos y la Iglesia adoptó una estructura jerárquica y estable, se nos recuerda el crecimiento histórico de esta ciudad de amor, la Iglesia de Dios en la tierra. Desde el principio se fundó en la fe. Los apóstoles oraron, ayunaron y encomendaron a estos ancianos al Señor. Fue su fe común en Cristo la que fue la base de este nuevo reino de Dios. La gloria de este reino no está en los edificios u organizaciones de la iglesia, pero es la gloria que Jesús menciona en el Evangelio de hoy. "Ahora es glorificado el Hijo del Hombre, y Dios es glorificado en él" (Juan 13:31). Es la gloria que proviene del amor fiel de Jesús hacia el Padre y sus discípulos, lo que lo lleva a ser entronizado en la cruz y gobierna como el Cordero que fue inmolado aún para el nuevo mandamiento del amor que es su gloria. Así, la novia que es la Iglesia será grande en la medida en que ame como Jesús, su esposo y Rey.

Dear Padre,

Can people with celiac disease take substitutes for the wheat host?

This is becoming an increasingly important pastoral issue. In some cases, food allergies are so toxic that even a bit of the allergen can lead to death.

Attention was drawn to this issue when a bishop refused a mother's request to allow her child to receive first Communion with a wafer made from rice. The bishop suggested the child receive Communion only from the cup. Not satisfied by this recommendation, the entire family joined a Christian denomination that allowed the use of rice wafers.

STOCKCREATIONS/SHUTTERSTOCK

The Vatican has decreed that there must be at least some gluten to make the host valid bread for Communion and that men who have celiac disease shouldn't be admitted to the priesthood because the priest must be able to eat and drink the Body and Blood of Christ.

So how much is some gluten? The Vatican was not specific. A group of US Benedictine nuns took on the challenge of making a wheat host that would contain .01 percent gluten. Their recipe was approved by the Vatican in July 2003. Since that approval, the nuns have been amazed at the number of requests they receive for these low-gluten wafers.

Low-gluten hosts are usually purchased by the parish and consecrated at the same time as the gluten hosts, with the low-gluten hosts placed in a separate container. Communicants who can't tolerate even the low-gluten hosts may choose to share only in the cup of Communion.

A Word from Pope Francis

We must not forget that we celebrate the Eucharist in order to become eucharistic men and women. What does this mean? It means allowing Christ to act within our deeds: that his thoughts may be our thoughts, his feelings our own, his choices our choices too….Doing as Christ did is Christian holiness.

Green Corner

Did you know that eating seasonally helps us eat healthier, more nutritious foods. It?s good for the environment because food grown locally requires less energy and resources to produce & transport. It also helps our local economy!

Goal:

Make a family event out of visiting a local farmer's market in Hayward, Castro Valley &/or in San Leandro. Don't forget to bring your bags!
