OUR MISSION / NUESTRA MISION:

Inspired by the saints, we aspire to become authentic missionary disciples of Jesus Christ.

Inspirados por los santos, aspiramos a convertirnos en auténticos discípulos misioneros. De Jesucristo.

VISION STATEMENT / NUESTRA VISION:

The Church of All Saints in Hayward is the voice, hands, and feet of Christ, following in the steps of all the Saints. As a community, we answer the call and say YES to God.

La iglesia de Todos los Santos en Hayward es la voz, las manos y los pies de Cristo, siguiendo los pasos de todos los Santos. Como comunidad, respondemos el llamado y decimos SÍ a Dios.

Welcome to the All Saints bulletin. I am glad you have chosen to spend a few moments looking around, discovering our Church family. As I describe All Saints to people, I use words 'community' and 'family.'

We are a group of people committed to following Jesus and making him known in Hayward and beyond. That means we pray to him with vigor and joy. That means we encourage a culture of prayer in church and throughout life. That means we work together and develop a culture of teamwork. That means we love people outside the church through generosity, invitation, and compassion. That means we develop a culture of active discipleship.

Our hope is that all people will feel loved and welcomed at All Saints. And once here, we pray that you will meet God and as a result of meeting God, give your lives to Jesus Christ. We want that for you. Come as you are. Check us out, but more importantly, seek the truth of God that can only be known when one knows Jesus.

While you are browsing our website or reading our bulletin, you will learn about our programs and get a glimpse of who we are, but only a glimpse. To fully understand us, come to one of our masses and feel the up-close, in-person fellowship that comes when people share time together at the table of the Lord, listening to his Word and knowing the Holy Spirit is present. Enjoy the bulletin, then come. We'd love to meet you and know you.

Rev. Ramon Gomez, Pastor

Bienvenido al boletín de Todos los Santos. Me alegra que hayas elegido pasar unos momentos mirando a tu alrededor, descubriendo nuestra familia de la Iglesia de Todos Los Santos. Cuando describo a Todos los Santos a las personas, uso las palabras "comunidad" y "familia".

Somos un grupo de personas comprometidas con seguir a Jesús y darle a conocer en Hayward y más allá. Eso significa que le rezamos con vigor y alegría. Eso significa que fomentamos una cultura de oración en la iglesia y durante toda la vida. Eso significa que trabajamos juntos y desarrollamos una cultura de trabajo en equipo. Eso significa que amamos a las personas fuera de la iglesia a través de la generosidad, la invitación y la compasión. Eso significa que desarrollamos una cultura de discipulado activo.

Nuestra esperanza es que todas las personas se sientan amadas y bienvenidas en All Saints. Y una vez aquí, oramos para que te encuentres con Dios y, como resultado de conocer a Dios, le des tus vidas a Jesucristo. Queremos eso para ti. Ven tal como eres. Míranos, pero lo más importante, busca la verdad de Dios que solo se puede conocer cuando uno conoce a Jesús.

Mientras navega por nuestro sitio web o lee nuestro boletín, aprenderá acerca de nuestros programas y podrá ver quiénes somos, pero solo un vistazo. Para comprendernos completamente, ven a una de nuestras misas y siente la comunión cercana y en persona que se produce cuando las personas comparten tiempo juntas en la mesa del Señor, escuchando su Palabra y sabiendo que el Espíritu Santo está presente. Disfruta el boletín o el sitio web, luego ven. Nos encantaría conocerte y conocerte.

Water for Living, or Living Water?

Water flows through this Sunday's readings. In the passage from Exodus, the Hebrews cry out for the water so necessary for life. In the Gospel, Jesus speaks of living water that provides eternal life.

The exchange between the Hebrews and Moses is straightforward and startling. Physical thirst led them to question the divine care that miraculously delivered them from the hands of Egyptian oppressors. We shouldn't be too quick to shake our fingers at them. How many times have we looked past blessings we take for granted, only to focus on lesser immediate needs? These desert people are our ancestors in more ways than one.

The Gospel of John is most interesting. Jesus is in Samaria, a land hated by the Jews. There he initiates a conversation with an inhabitant of the town of Sychar, someone who is an outcast in three major ways. She is a woman—no self-respecting man would be alone with a woman he didn't know. She is a Samaritan—Jews considered Samaritans unclean. And she is promiscuous—his own honor might be at risk. The woman's questionable social status does not prevent Jesus from engaging her, first in social etiquette ("Give me a drink" [4:7]), then in a theological exchange ("Whoever drinks the water I shall give will never thirst" [4:14]).

The Hebrews experienced God's saving action in their exodus, but they lacked trust. The woman, hated by the Jews, was an outcast of her own people, yet she believed. How do we respond to the water?

—Sr. Dianne Bergant, CSA

FOR Reflection

- Look at the deepest longings of your heart. What might quench your thirst?
- The Samaritan woman may have been the last person we would expect Jesus to engage with. What does this say about us?

El agua fluye a través de las lecturas de este domingo. En el pasaje de Éxodo, los hebreos claman por el agua tan necesaria para la vida. En el Evangelio, Jesús habla de agua viva que provee vida eterna. El intercambio entre los hebreos y Moisés es sencillo y sorprendente. La sed física los llevó a cuestionar el cuidado divino que milagrosamente los libró de las manos de los opresores egipcios. No deberíamos ser demasiado rápidos para sacudirles los dedos. ¿Cuántas veces hemos mirado las bendiciones pasadas que damos por sentado, solo para centrarnos en necesidades inmediatas menores? Estas personas del desierto son nuestros antepasados en más de un sentido. El evangelio de Juan es muy interesante. Jesús está en Samaria, una tierra odiada por los judíos. Allí inicia una conversación con un habitante de la ciudad de Sychar, alguien que es un paria en tres formas principales. Ella es una mujer, ningún hombre que se precie estaría solo con una mujer que no conocía. Ella es una samaritana: los judíos se consideran impuros a los samaritanos. Y ella es promiscua: su propio honor podría estar en riesgo. El cuestionable estatus social de la mujer no impide que Jesús la involucre, primero en la etiqueta social ("Dame un trago" [4: 7]), luego en un intercambio teológico ("El que bebe el agua que daré nunca tendrá sed" [4:14]). Los hebreos experimentaron la acción salvadora de Dios en su éxodo, pero les faltaba confianza. La mujer, odiada por los judíos, era una marginada de su propio pueblo, pero ella creía. ¿Cómo respondemos al agua?

BLESSED BE GOD IN ALL THE SAINTS:
SAINT PROFILE OF THE MONTH: SAINT PATRICK

Feast Day: March 17th

St. Patrick of Ireland is one of the world's most popular saints. He was born in Roman Britain and when he was fourteen or so, he was captured by pirates during a raiding party and taken to Ireland as a slave to herd and tend sheep. At the time, Ireland was a land of Druids and pagans, but Patrick turned to God and wrote his memoir, The Confession. Patrick's captivity lasted until he was twenty, when he escaped after having a dream from God in which he was told to leave Ireland by going to the coast. There he found some sailors who took him back to Britain and he was reunited with his family.

A few years after returning home, Patrick saw a vision he described in his memoir. The vision prompted his studies for the priesthood. He was ordained by St. Germanus, the Bishop of Auxerre, whom he had studied under for years, and was later ordained a bishop and sent to take the Gospel to Ireland.

Patrick arrived in Slane, Ireland on March 25, 433. There, he converted many people - eventually thousands - and he began building churches across the country. Legend has it that he often used shamrocks to explain the Holy Trinity and entire kingdoms were eventually converted to Christianity after hearing Patrick's message.

Patrick preached and converted throughout Ireland for 40 years. He worked many miracles and wrote of his love for God. After years of living in poverty, traveling and enduring much suffering he died March 17, 461 at Saul, where he had built the first Irish church. He is believed to be buried in Down Cathedral, Downpatrick. His grave was marked in 1990 with a granite stone.
