22824 SECOND STREET, HAYWARD, CA 94541 | 510-581-2570 | www.allsaintshayward.org

Welcome to the All Saints bulletin. I am glad you have chosen to spend a few moments looking around, discovering our Church family. As I describe All Saints to people, I use words 'community' and 'family.'

We are a group of people committed to following Jesus and making him known in Hayward and beyond. That means we pray to him with vigor and joy. That means we encourage a culture of prayer in church and throughout life. That means we work together and develop a culture of teamwork. That means we love people outside the church through generosity, invitation, and compassion. That means we develop a culture of active discipleship.

Our hope is that all people will feel loved and welcomed at All Saints. And once here, we pray that you will meet God and as a result of meeting God, give your lives to Jesus Christ. We want that for you. Come as you are. Check us out, but more importantly, seek the truth of God that can only be known when one knows Jesus.

While you are browsing our website or reading our bulletin, you will learn about our programs and get a glimpse of who we are, but only a glimpse. To fully understand us, come to one of our masses and feel the up-close, in-person fellowship that comes when people share time together at the table of the Lord, listening to his Word and knowing the Holy Spirit is present. Enjoy the bulletin, then come. We'd love to meet you and know you.

Rev. Ramon Gomez, Pastor

Bienvenido al boletín de Todos los Santos. Me alegra que hayas elegido pasar unos momentos mirando a tu alrededor, descubriendo nuestra familia de la Iglesia de Todos los Santos. Cuando describo a Todos los Santos a las personas, uso las palabras "comunidad" y "familia".

Somos un grupo de personas comprometidas con seguir a Jesús y darle a conocer en Hayward y más allá. Eso significa que le rezamos con vigor y alegría. Eso significa que fomentamos una cultura de oración en la iglesia y durante toda la vida. Eso significa que trabajamos juntos y desarrollamos una cultura de trabajo en equipo. Eso significa que amamos a las personas fuera de la iglesia a través de la generosidad, la invitación y la compasión. Eso significa que desarrollamos una cultura de discipulado activo.

Nuestra esperanza es que todas las personas se sientan amadas y bienvenidas en All Saints. Y una vez aquí, oramos para que te encuentres con Dios y, como resultado de conocer a Dios, le des tus vidas a Jesucristo. Queremos eso para ti. Ven tal como eres. Míranos, pero lo más importante, busca la verdad de Dios que solo se puede conocer cuando uno conoce a Jesús.

Mientras navega por nuestro sitio web o lee nuestro boletín, aprenderá acerca de nuestros programas y podrá ver quiénes somos, pero solo un vistazo. Para comprendernos completamente, ven a una de nuestras misas y siente la comunión cercana y en persona que se produce cuando las personas comparten tiempo juntas en la mesa del Señor, escuchando su Palabra y sabiendo que el Espíritu Santo está presente. Disfruta el boletín o el sitio web, luego ven. Nos encantaría conocerte y conocerte.

Hail, Christ Our King

The readings for today's feast create a collage of images that capture different characteristics of Christ's kingship. "Shepherd" assures us his kingly rule is characterized by tenderness. "King of Israel" locates him squarely within human time and space. "Image of the Invisible God" acclaims his divine origin. "Firstborn of all Creation" places him over the entire created world. "Source of all Created Things" acknowledges him as the model after which all things were fashioned. "Head of the Body, the Church" underscores the intimacy and interrelationship between him and all those joined to him through faith and baptism. "Firstborn of the Dead" acclaims his resurrection and guarantees the resurrection of those who will follow him into death.

The Gospel's image of Christ as the crucified king clearly interprets all the other images. He is a shepherd who protects his flock with his life, a king who rules with dedication despite shame and defeat, divine yet accepted death on a cross. He was God who became a vulnerable child of earth, a simple man who offered himself as sacrifice, the one through whom we will all enjoy resurrection from the dead.

In the last words of the Gospel, Jesus opens the gates of his kingdom to a repentant sinner: "Today you will be with me in Paradise." This is what all of us long to hear, words that are empty when coming from one who has no authority, but charged with power when spoken by the one who is king over us all.

Sr. Dianne Bergant, CSA

Editor's note: This is Sr. Dianne Bergant's final reflection for Our Parish Community. She will continue to serve as professor of biblical studies at Catholic Theological Union in Chicago. When a new liturgical cycle begins on November 27, 2022, we will welcome a new reflections writer, Fr. Joseph Jukialis. The people of Liguori Publications thank Sr. Dianne for her three years of insightful reflections. We wish her well.

FOR Reflection

- ✦ Which image of Christ inspires you? Why?
- ✦ What must you do to allow Christ to have sway in your life?

Salve, Cristo nuestro Rey

Las lecturas de la fiesta de hoy crean un collage de imágenes que capturan diferentes características del reinado de Cristo. "Pastor" nos asegura que su reinado real se caracteriza por la ternura. "Rey de Israel" lo ubica directamente dentro del tiempo y espacio humano. "Imagen del Dios Invisible" proclama su origen divino. "Primogénito de toda la Creación" lo coloca sobre todo el mundo creado. La "Fuente de todas las cosas creadas" lo reconoce como el modelo según el cual se formaron todas las cosas. "Cabeza del Cuerpo, la Iglesia" subraya la intimidad y la interrelación entre él y todos los que se unen a él por la fe y el bautismo. "Primogénito de los Muertos" aclama su resurrección y garantiza la resurrección de aquellos que lo seguirán hasta la muerte. La imagen evangélica de Cristo como rey crucificado interpreta claramente todas las demás imágenes. Es un pastor que protege a su rebaño con su vida, un rey que gobierna con entrega a pesar de la vergüenza y la derrota, divino pero aceptado la muerte en una cruz. Él era Dios que se hizo vulnerable hijo de la tierra, un hombre sencillo que se ofreció a sí mismo como sacrificio, aquel a través del cual todos disfrutaremos de la resurrección de entre los muertos. En las últimas palabras del Evangelio, Jesús abre las puertas de su reino a un pecador arrepentido: "Hoy estarás conmigo en el Paraíso". Esto es lo que todos anhelamos oír, palabras vacías cuando provienen de alguien que no tiene autoridad, pero cargadas de poder cuando son pronunciadas por Aquel que es rey sobre todos nosotros.

Dear Padre,

Can all good people go to heaven after they die, even if they haven't been a Christian? My dad is from India and grew up with another religion. The rest of my family is Catholic. I am afraid that we won't see each other again after we die.

Put your mind at ease. A person who is not a Christian can go to heaven. Heaven is not just for Christians, but for everyone who loves God and responds to God's will in his or her life.

We know that God wants all people to be saved, not just Christians. Jesus began a Church to help people achieve salvation. The Church teaches that those who seek "the truth and [do] the will of God in accordance with their understanding of it can be saved" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1260). What we know as Catholics is that God called us into the Church. It is there that we will work out our salvation. "Since Christ died for all, and since all are called to one and the same destiny, which is divine," we must believe that the Holy Spirit makes a way for everyone, a way that only God knows (CCC 1260).

You should pray for your dad and be a faithful Catholic. Perhaps your good example will help him become a Christian. Even if he never becomes a Christian, your prayers will help him work out his salvation without the benefit of the sacraments and a believing community. If he does what is right, God will reward him.

The face of God revealed by Jesus is that of a Father concerned for and close to the poor....We do not find him when and where we want, but see him in the lives of the poor, in their sufferings and needs, in the often inhuman conditions in which they are forced to live.
