April 13, 2025 Palm Sunday

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord commemorates Jesus' entry into Jerusalem as adoring crowds greeted him waving palm branches and shouting "Hosanna!"

But those same people soon will be crying, "Crucify Him," urging that His life be traded for that of a criminal. They will mock Jesus. Even his friends will abandon Him.

Palm Sunday is a time for contemplation, preparing for the somber days of Holy Week. During the Triduum, we will reflect on His Passion, death, and Resurrection:

- Holy Thursday – Recalling the Last Supper
- Good Friday – Remembering the crucifixion of Jesus
- Holy Saturday – A day of silence and prayer, leading to the Easter Vigil
- Easter Sunday – Celebrating Jesus rising to new life

Despair on the road to Calvary will give way to the joy of Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord.

FATHER JIM'S WEEKLY REFLECTIONS

All are Welcome

On page 5 is an open letter from me to Catholics who have left the Church, those who have been hurt by Church leadership, and to those who do not worship God at any church. Please carefully cut or copy this letter from the bulletin and give it to a family member, neighbor, or anyone else affected. After 2,000 years, our mission continues to help people know that Jesus wants them to encounter Him in the Holy Eucharist.

Palm Sunday

This weekend we prepare for the great events of our salvation. The Church recalls on Palm Sunday the triumphant entrance of Jesus into Jerusalem. This is where Mary and Joseph brought Jesus to the Temple as a baby. It is the city where Jesus will celebrate the Passover by instituting the Holy Eucharist. It is here where Jesus will be crucified and where he first appears after the Resurrection. We are not spectators of these events. It is through Baptism we become sharers of the very mysteries we celebrate.

The Victory of the Palm

Catholics will take home a blessed palm and display it behind a crucifix or a sacred image. In Jesus' time, palms would be thrown at the feet of military generals after a victory. Jesus engages in the greatest battle of all and defeats Satan. Christians are baptized into life with Jesus; therefore no matter how difficult life can be, the palm signifies our capacity, with God's Divine Grace, to be holy saints.

Holy Week Confessions

Confessions will be offered Mon., April 14 at 7:00 pm at Saint Ferdinand; Tues., April 15 at Holy Redeemer before and after Taize; and Wed., April 16 at 6:00 pm at Saint Gregory.

Monday and Tuesday of Holy Week

We hear in the first readings from the Prophet Isaiah who writes about the Suffering Servant. We also hear from the Gospel of John of Jesus' impending suffering and death.

Spy Wednesday

We hear in the Gospel of Matthew how Judas prepares to betray Jesus. Older people might remember that this day was known as Spy Wednesday. Since we are all sinners, it is a reminder that anytime we sin, we too are betraying Jesus. May we make every effort to repent from sin and believe in the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

The Chrism Mass

All clergy will gather on Holy Thursday at Saint Paul Cathedral to renew our priestly promises. The Bishop will bless the three oils that are used for the sacraments – the oil of the catechumenate (used at baptism), the chrism oil (for baptism, confirmation, and priestly ordination) and the oil of the sick (used for the anointing of the sick and for last rites). Parishioners from Divine Grace Parish will return with the newly blessed oils.

Holy Thursday – Eucharist and Priesthood

Lent concludes with Holy Thursday Mass. The Sacred Triduum consists of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and the Great Vigil of Easter. Thursday we celebrate Jesus instituting the Holy Eucharist as well as the ordained priesthood. These mysteries are at the heart of our Catholic faith. Without the priesthood, there is no Eucharist, and without the Eucharist there is no Church. Our churches will remain open until 11:00 pm to pray before the Holy Eucharist.

Good Friday

This is the only day of the year when Mass is prohibited – not even a funeral Mass. We observe that Jesus is executed with the Roman death penalty of crucifixion. The Passion Liturgy is celebrated, we reverence the Cross, and we do receive Holy Communion which will be consecrated at the Holy Thursday Mass.

Holy Saturday – Easter Basket Blessing

As we prepare our Easter feast, parishioners are invited to bring a basket of food for the clergy to bless. Blessings will take place at all three churches at noon.

The Great Vigil of Easter

The Easter Vigil Mass is a culmination of all that we Catholics profess and believe. We begin outside with the blessing of the Easter Fire and Easter Candle. We hear the Old and New Testament readings. The Great Alleluia is sung. After the homily, we reject Satan and renew our Catholic faith. This Mass is the mother of all liturgies.

DIVINE GRACE PARISH

OFFICE OF THE PASTOR

Holy Week 2025

Dear Friends:

Greetings from Divine Grace Parish. This week, Catholics around the world celebrate the events of our salvation in Jesus Christ. This is often a great time for those who may no longer practice the faith to reestablish a relationship with the Lord through the sacraments of the Church.

I am aware that many people have left because of the clergy scandals and mistrust in Church leadership. There are no words that can describe the evil of abuse and the neglect of leadership.

People also have told me that COVID diminished their practice of attending weekly Mass. Others have stated their disillusion with the parish mergers. I appreciate this honesty.

We are also aware of the impact that secularism is having on our youth and young families where there is no practice of faith or religion.

As the Pastor of our parish, if there is anything I can do to assist Catholics in returning to the Church, I am prepared to meet people where they are at in their journey. My email address is jwehner@diopitt.org.

Jesus instituted the Holy Eucharist, the Priesthood, and the Church nearly 2,000 years ago. The Sacrifice of the Mass, Sacraments, and the many vibrant ministries that serve God's people are all important aspects of our faith.

While each member of the Church is a sinner, it is for this reason that all who seek a relationship with Jesus Christ are invited to Divine Grace Parish and the Catholic Church.

Let me know how I can serve you! Blessings for a great Holy Week and Easter celebration. With every good wish, I am

Sincerely yours in the Lord,

Father James A. Wehner, S.T.D.

Understanding QR Codes

You may have noticed QR codes – a scannable bar code in a unique arrangement of squares – popping up on flyers, in the bulletin and on the web. If you have not used one before, here's how:

1. Open your camera on your smart phone.
2. Hold your phone over the QR code like you are going to take a photo of it.
3. A website address will pop up on your screen.
4. Tap the address and it will take you to the site the QR code was created for.

Try this one to read about the 15 Promises of the Rosary

Sacred Heart of Jesus

There will be a Sacred Heart of Jesus prayer service held on Tuesday, May 6 at 7:00 pm in Saint Gregory Church. The service will feature an icon depicting Jesus, which is on loan from the Knights of Columbus. This reproduction of the 1767 painting by Pompeo Batoni bears the blessing of Pope Francis and is one of about 300 icons being displayed around the world. All are welcome to attend the prayer service.

A Plan for Financial Security

Planning is crucial for financial security. Please join the Saint Gregory Knights of Columbus for a presentation by Christopher R. Gonzalez, FIC, on Mon., April 21 at 7:00 pm in the Blue Room (basement) of Saint Gregory Church. Come and learn some important information and ask questions.

PARISH MINISTRIES

STORIES OF FAITH

Jack D'Ambrosio (left), Fr. Jim, and Justin Pityk, Jack's sponsor and friend

Jack's Journey

Jack D'Ambrosio, 20, was raised in a large nondenominational Christian church. But something was missing in his faith life.

"I was searching for something more but wasn't sure what until a friend invited me to a Catholic Mass a couple of years ago," Jack says. "Then I knew where I wanted to be. It was God's grace."

Jack's friend Justin Pityk accompanied him to that Mass at Saint Paul Cathedral. What really amazed Jack was the reverence for Scripture—in particular, standing for the Gospel reading.

But converting to Catholicism wasn't a simple decision for Jack because his family has deep roots in their church—North Way Christian Community in Pine. His late grandfather, Jay Passavant, founded North Way more than 40 years ago.

"I had to find out more about the Catholic faith," Jack said.

He received formation from priests at the Oratory in Oakland, studied the Catechism, and later reached out to Father Jim Wehner at Divine Grace Parish. On February 9, Jack was baptized, received First Holy Communion and was confirmed.

Jack's family has been supportive of his conversion—after discussions of what it means to be a Catholic. "It's about living out the faith to the fullest, as we all should," Jack says. He's attending daily Mass, praying at Eucharistic Adoration, and sharing the faith with others.

"I feel I can make a difference in someone else's life."

DIVINE MERCY PRAYER GROUPS

On April 27, we will celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday. This feast was extended to the entire Catholic Church by Pope John Paul II on April 30, 2000, the day he canonized Saint Faustina. The Divine Mercy of Jesus Christ was revealed by Christ Himself to St. Maria Faustina Kowalska in a series of revelations in the 1930's.

Our parish is blessed to have Divine Mercy Prayer Groups at all three of our churches. They organize special prayer services each year on Good Friday and Divine Mercy Sunday. They are also involved in promoting and leading the Divine Mercy Novena leading up to Divine Mercy Sunday. Additionally, at Holy Redeemer and Saint Ferdinand, the Divine Mercy Chaplet is prayed on a regular basis.

Please join us at any of our three churches on Good Friday at 3:00 pm to recite the Divine Mercy Chaplet and begin the Divine Mercy Novena. On Divine Mercy Sunday, April 27th at 3:00 pm, we also invite you to Holy Redeemer or Saint Gregory for a Divine Mercy prayer service including the Chaplet and completion of the Novena.

We are always looking for more prayer warriors! Please reach out if you would like to be a part of this beautiful ministry. Contact:

Unpacking the Word

Isaiah 50:4-7

The Prophet Isaiah ministered in the eighth century B.C. He prophesied about the downfall and destruction of Jerusalem and also about a mysterious figure whom he called the Servant of the Lord. The four Servant Songs found in Isaiah 42:1-4, 49:1-6, 50:4-9, and 52:13-53:12 alternate the voice of the narrator so that some are in the voice of the Servant, some are directed to the Servant, and some are about the Servant. Our second reading on this Palm Sunday is a first-person narrative from the mouth of the Servant himself.

This mysterious figure speaks to the weary and teaches “morning after morning,” but he also suffers cruel treatment at the hands of his contemporaries, knowing all along that he will “not be put to shame.” Nothing like this happened in the recorded lifetime of the Prophet Isaiah, and so he cannot be the Servant. Rather, 600 years before God the Son took on flesh, he spoke of his self-sacrificial atonement through the voice of the Prophet Isaiah. Today we hear the Word of God’s own ancient words attest that he will give himself over to beatings and harassment, and yet ultimately he will not be put to shame.

As we begin this Holy Week, the Spirit is reminding us that Jesus Christ always knew what he was about, always knew what he would do to redeem you and me. The betrayals of Holy Thursday and the tortures of Good Friday did not, could not surprise him. In fact, he had been telling us about them for centuries. In the same way that the Apostles didn’t get it until after the Resurrection, only a minority of first-century Jews had the eyes to see and ears to hear what the Lord had told them through a few mysterious prophecies like this one. Jesus Christ always knew what it would take to redeem you, and he still chose to do it. Are you ready to have the eyes to see it?

Triduum: A Spiritual Pilgrimage

Triduum: A Spiritual Pilgrimage cinematically walks through the locations of the Holy Week story, representing the most important days of human history. Immersed in the Holy Land, the pilgrim is brought tangibly nearer to the story, the landscape, and the reality of the Passion, Death, and Resurrection of Jesus Christ.

The Last Days: The Passion and Death of Jesus the Christ w/ Jonathan Roumie

This filmed presentation of the theatrical production movingly recreates the final moments of Jesus' earthly ministry as a teacher through His crucifixion and death. The play has been seen by thousands worldwide, not only as a live performance but also in live streams and televised broadcasts.

SEVEN CHURCHES VISITATION

Seven Churches of Rome – Holy Year of 1575

Divine Grace Parish families are invited to take part in a beautiful Catholic tradition- visiting seven churches following the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday at 7:00 pm. The visitation recalls the final seven places Jesus traveled to between his arrest and death.

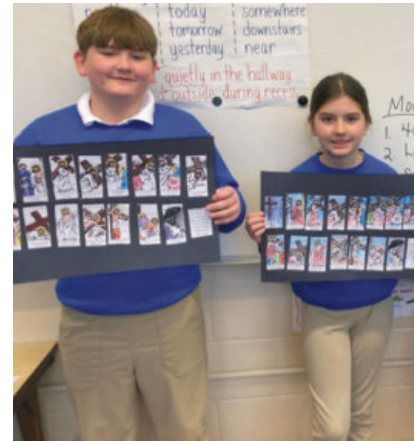

The tradition is believed to have started with Saint Philip Neri who organized pilgrimages to churches around Rome in the 16th century. Today in modern Italy, Catholics visit the seven major basilicas in Rome to seek Christ and spend time with Him.

On Holy Thursday evening at Divine Grace Parish, all three of our churches will remain open for Adoration until 11:00 pm. Below is a church listing and link to a map route that includes all three of our churches. Total travel time to the seven churches is under two hours.

Area Churches Participating: For Map, visit <https://bit.ly/44hbjeW>

- St. Ferdinand (2535 Rochester Rd. Cranberry Twp 16066)- open until 11 pm
- St. Gregory (2 West Beaver St. Zelienople 16063)- until 11 pm
- Holy Redeemer (415 Fourth St. Ellwood City 16117)- until 11 pm
- Ss. Peter & Paul (200 3rd St. Beaver 15009)- until 11 pm
- Ss. John & Paul (2586 Wexford Bayne Rd. Sewickley 15143) – until midnight
- St. Alphonsus (221 Church Rd. Wexford 15090)- until midnight
- St. Killian (7076 Franklin Rd. Cranberry Twp 16066)- until 11 pm

LEARNING ABOUT LENT

Lenten lessons and activities were added over the past couple weeks to help students understand the importance of Lent more clearly.

Our First Graders learned about keeping Jesus in their heart which is like having a friend close by who loves them and wants to be with them; someone they can trust.

Second Grade students colored and assembled beautiful Stations of the Cross booklets that they used during Lent. This is their first year to attend the weekly Stations held every Friday afternoon.

Third Graders also colored Stations of the Cross and put together posters depicting Christ's journey to Calvary.

CATHOLIC CHARITIES CLAY SHOOT

Catholic Charities is hosting their 10th annual Clay Shoot fundraiser on Friday, June 10 at Seven Springs Mountain Resort. For registration and other information visit ccpgh.org/clay-shoot.

SEPARATED OR DIVORCED?

An Evening for the Separated & Divorced will be held via Zoom on Tuesday, April 22 from 7:00 – 8:30 pm.

You will be guided through some of the most common struggles facing those navigating separation or divorce:

- Anger & Forgiveness
- Guilt & Shame
- Our True Identity
- Loneliness
- Fear & Anxiety
- Raising children as a single parent

This evening hosted by the Archdiocese of Atlanta will offer encouragement and practical tools to help you move forward with faith and strength.

Questions? Carolyn@AboundingJoyMinistry.com.

There will be a Q&A at the end. To register:
