Our 267th Pontiff,
the Holy Father
Pope Leo XIV

FATHER JIM'S WEEKLY REFLECTIONS

Day of Prayer for the Church in China

In 2007, Pope Benedict XVI designated May 24 as a World Day of Prayer for the Church in China. This day was chosen because Chinese Catholics venerated Our Lady Help of Christians at the Shrine of Sheshan in Shanghai. Catholics are still persecuted by China's government and we pray for them.

Congratulations Seminarian Chris

This Sunday, May 18, Chris Baker and his classmates will be admitted into the body of candidates preparing for ordination to the diaconate and priesthood. The ceremony is called the Rite of Admission to Candidacy. Bishop Zubik will celebrate the Mass at 11:30 am at Saint Augustine Church in Lawrenceville. I will be there to represent the parish and offer support for Chris. All are welcome.

Congratulations Deacon Ryan

Parishioner Ryan Schmeltzer who is preparing for ordination to the priesthood for the Capuchins was ordained a deacon a few weeks ago. He will preach next Sunday at the 8:00 and 10:00 am Masses at Saint Ferdinand.

Honoring Mary in May

The Church reflects on the motherhood of Mary during the month of May. Last week we held May Crownings that highlight the Queenship of Mary. Consider praying the Rosary this month for special intentions, the Church, and our parish.

Farewell to Jon Zellhart

Jon's last day with us is Saturday, May 31. He will present a farewell concert on Sunday, May 25 at 7:00 pm at Saint Ferdinand Church. Join us for a reception following the concert.

Save The Date

Seminarian Erik Pintar will be ordained to the diaconate on Saturday, June 7 at Saint Alexis Church, Saint Aidan Parish at 10:00 am. In June 2026, he will be ordained a priest. The ordination on June 7th is open to the public.

Pope Leo XIV Makes History

On May 8, the College of Cardinals surprised many Catholics and Vatican observers by electing a pope from the USA. But Pope Leo XIV, age 69, from Chicago, has global experience.

The new pope spent many years in Peru, where he served as a bishop. He most recently led the Vatican office for bishop appointments. Ordained a priest in 1982, the future pope was named a cardinal-bishop in 2023. His inauguration Mass is May 18.

Since the announcement, many of the 1.4 billion Catholics worldwide have expressed strong support for the new pope. We asked several members of Divine Grace Parish for their thoughts:

"I was very surprised by the cardinals. I didn't think our next pope would be an American. I'm hoping Pope Leo will be able to strengthen the Catholic Church in the U.S., with special prayers for an increase in vocations to the priesthood and religious life."

– Mary Anne Mansell

"My reaction to the announcement was surprise, excitement and delight. It will be interesting to see how Pope Leo shapes the mission of the Church and opens the doors to everyone."

– Brian Kutchma

"With his missionary background, Pope Leo might be able to teach us how to evangelize. Younger people seem to relate to him. My granddaughter, who watched the announcement, said 'I love his smile.'"

– Polly McConahy

"I had tears in my eyes watching Pope Leo appear in St. Peter's Square. I never thought I'd see an American pope in my lifetime."

– Tom Streicher, age 99

Our pastor, Fr. Jim Wehner, hopes the great interest in Pope Leo XIV will help rejuvenate the Church in America.

Watch the video here: <https://bit.ly/4dh6N2E>

Pope Leo XIV's Coat of Arms and Motto

The new pope's coat of arms reflects his roots as an Augustinian friar while embodying the values he is expected to promote during his pontificate, especially unity and communion in the Catholic Church.

The shield, divided diagonally into two sections, contains several symbols. The upper half, with the white fleur-de-lis on a blue background, represents the Virgin Mary. The lower part of the shield recalls the Order of Saint Augustine: a book with a heart penetrated by an arrow. This references the conversion experience of Saint Augustine, who described his personal encounter with God through Scripture, writing "You have pierced my heart with your Word."

Pope Leo XIV also has chosen a motto for the heraldic design, In Illo uno unum, which means "In the One, we are one." It comes from Saint Augustine's Exposition on Psalm 127, where he writes that "although we Christians are many, in the one Christ we are one."

PARISH MINISTRIES

Divine Grace Parish Magazine Launches in July

Look for a new monthly parish magazine in July 2025 that will be mailed free of charge to every registered household in Divine Grace Parish (7,000+ homes).

It's a great opportunity to evangelize and tell the story of our parish to all parishioners every month through articles featuring a family from the parish, highlighting a ministry or group, and providing information about liturgical seasons, feasts, and traditions. Long term we plan to distribute the magazine to every Catholic household within our parish boundaries to further grow our parish family.

The new magazine is also a sponsorship opportunity for local businesses. If your company or organization is contacted by Decided Excellence Catholic Media with an offer to reserve space in the magazine, we would appreciate your prayerful consideration. If you'd like to learn more about becoming a sponsor or have a story idea, please contact Jason at jgawaldo@divinegracepgh.org

Our first reading this week is a summary statement at the end of Paul and Barnabas' first missionary journey throughout modern Turkey. It was not the first time the Church had brought gentiles into the family of God; Peter and Philip had done that previously. But it was the first recorded time that Christian missionaries went out into the diaspora, into gentile territory, to bring the gospel directly to non-Jews. It was a remarkably fruitful journey, and also a journey fraught with danger.

“It is necessary for us to undergo many hardships to enter the kingdom of God.” Early Christians were called polytheists for their belief in a Trinity, cannibals for their belief in the Eucharist, treasonous for their allegiance to someone other than Caesar, and fanatics for their protection of social outcasts. Christians today are also labeled as harsh traditionalists or loose liberals, judgmental bigots or accepting to a fault, piously disengaged from the world or delusional about what progress can be achieved in a fallen world. Jesus himself was considered a drunkard, a would-be military leader, a renegade preacher, and of course God-in-flesh. The hardship, the misunderstanding, the judgement cast upon us as believers and followers of Jesus is part of the territory. It is, in fact, necessary. We ought not shy away from it, but rather must find a way to embrace it. Jesus himself called this experience a blessing (see Matthew 5:10).

The hardship is not without reward in this life. On their first missionary journey alone, Paul and Barnabas faced “violent abuse” (Acts 13:45), narrowly escaped stoning (Acts 14:5), and were mistaken for gods (Acts 14:11-13), yet “made a considerable number of disciples.” It is the way of the kingdom. The mustard seed is tiny and insignificant, but it can become a great tree. Wheat must be baked in fire to become bread. Grapes must be crushed and fermented to become wine. Olives must be pressed to produce oil. And you and I must undergo many hardships to enter the kingdom of God. We don't endure them alone; Jesus walks with us. We don't chart our own path; we walk where Jesus already went so that where he is now we may also be one day.

Saint Celestine: The Pope Who Quit

This docu-drama investigates the secrecy of this dramatic time in history and reveals a story that involves deadly dealings, apocalyptic maneuverings, and papal intrigue. It uncovers the riveting and mysterious story of Pope St. Celestine V, the pope who retired from the papacy after a very short reign. At the close of the tumultuous Middle Ages, this future monk and pope seemed destined from birth to save the world.

Saint Rita

St. Rita of Cascia is immortalized in this wonderful, deeply moving film. This story is about the brave woman who married her knight, helped him overcome his dark past and convert to faith, happily bore him two children, and later endures immense pain as she loses everything in her life. Her story and love for Christ will inspire you to great holiness!

LifeTeen Dinner Volunteers

LifeTeen is looking for volunteers to help feed our hungry teens on Monday nights at St. Ferdinand's Youth Room. Sign up using the QR code!

Not able to make a meal, but still want to help out? Sign up to donate drinks or yummy treats. We thank you in advance for your generosity!

Thank you to our Teachers

Another fantastic Teacher Appreciation Week is in the books! We're thankful for all the PTG board members and families who made it so special – from fun dress down days, raffles, games, goodies, meals and so much more! Thanks to the North Regional Schools Office for sending us a delicious luncheon to close out the week. The teachers certainly felt pampered and appreciated.

Papal Surprise

Father Jim and seminarian Chris Baker are joined by seventh and eighth graders who were excited to watch the historic announcement of an American pontiff, Pope Leo XIV.

Thanks for Your Support!

Sincere thanks to all who took part in our 24th annual Social & Auction on May 10th supporting St. Gregory School. It's our largest fundraiser of the year, and we greatly appreciate all who planned and participated in the evening.

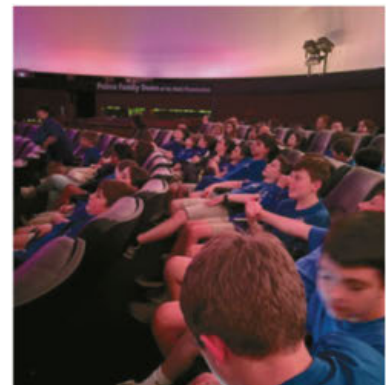

Favorite Field Trip: Carnegie Science Center

The fourth, fifth, and sixth graders recently enjoyed a day at the Carnegie Science Center. There were so many fascinating exhibits it was hard to see them all during our stay. We visited "Mars: The Next Giant Leap" and viewed video and photos of the planet's surface. Did you know that Mars, called the Red Planet, once had a climate similar to Earth? Using a remote control the students were able to drive a miniature Mars Rover, which was very popular.

The BodyWorks display was made up of many interactive sections. The students put together a life-sized skeleton using X-rays. They were able to see what real human lungs look like and viewed different types of cells under a microscope. BodyWorks explained every part of the human body including a "grossology" section where they explored offensive functions of the human body in a fun way.

Many of the students said their favorite experience was the planetarium where they could gaze at galaxies and constellations.

We also enjoyed the miniature railroad, which is always amazing no matter how many times you visit it.
