June 1, 2025 Seventh Sunday of Easter

Jesus prays to His Father for the unity of his disciples, manifesting God's love (John 17:20-26).
The Church must be a community in faith and love, seeking holiness.

FATHER JIM'S WEEKLY REFLECTIONS

Ordination of Erik Pintar

This Saturday, June 7, at 10:00 am, Erik will be ordained to the Order of Deacon at Saint Alexis Church in Wexford. You are invited – hopefully we can have a good representation. Congratulations, Erik!

Congratulations Christian Mothers

On Monday, June 2, we will induct new members into the Christian Mothers and Ladies Guild with Mass at 5:30 pm at the Holy Redeemer Catholic Center and a light meal to follow. To learn more about the Christian Mothers, please contact the membership chair at christianmothers@divinegracepgh.org

Youth and Family Bonfire Picnic

This Wednesday, June 4, all youth from 7th to 12th grade are invited along with family members for a bonfire, burgers and hotdogs, and to review some of the other youth events over the summer. We will gather at Saint Ferdinand from 6:00-8:00 pm.

Saint Gregory Graduation

Congratulations to the 8th graders graduating this Thurs., June 5, with Mass at 10:00 am and commencement at the end of Mass at Saint Gregory Church. All are invited.

Blessings to Appalachian Mission Trip

This Saturday, June 7, 50 of our youth and adults will gather before their annual mission trip – this year helping with hurricane relief in North Carolina. Your support of the hoagie sales made this mission possible. The group will attend the 4:00 pm Mass in which I will offer a blessing over them.

Welcome Mr. Kevin Johnson

We welcome back Kevin who served for several years as our assistant director of music ministry. I have appointed Kevin as the director with the departure of Jon to Texas. Kevin will have oversight of all our music ministry components including the choirs and cantors.

Welcome Ms. Hannah Repasky

As our youth programs continue to grow, I have appointed Hannah as assistant youth minister with special attention to the youth of the Ellwood City area. She will be working at Holy Redeemer Church; however, her duties are parish-wide assisting our coordinator of youth and young adults, Michael Assaf.

Next Weekend – Pentecost

We celebrate the birth of our Catholic Church established by Jesus Christ in year 33 A.D. with the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon the Blessed Mother, the Apostles and all the disciples. They had gathered in Jerusalem for the Jewish feast of Pentecost which marked the giving of the Ten Commandments to Moses. You might want to consider wearing red at Mass next weekend to signify the fire of the Holy Spirit.

Eucharistic Processions

The Church celebrates the Feast of Corpus Christi (Body and Blood of Jesus) on Sunday, June 22. There will be a Eucharistic Procession after the 10:00 am Mass at Saint Gregory, following the 11:00 am Mass at Holy Redeemer, and after the noon Mass at Saint Ferdinand. All altar servers, liturgical ministers and parishioners are invited. The procession is a reminder of our mission to bring Christ to society and the world.

Family Festival Support

While the festival is not until August, thanks to our volunteers who are already hard at work. Thanks as well for picking up your raffle tickets. If you are interested in becoming a volunteer, please go to: parishfamilyfestival.org.

Safe Summer for Our Young People

With our college students home and those who recently graduated from 8th grade and from high school, we pray that our young people make good decisions, live the Christian life, and have a safe summer.

Helping with Hurricane Recovery

Divine Grace Parish's Appalachia Mission Group is making final preparations for their summer trip to help those in need. Only this year instead of traveling to West Virginia, they are heading to Asheville, North Carolina, still reeling from the impact of Hurricane Helene.

The powerful storm last September caused massive flooding and damage, wiping out homes, businesses, roads, and bridges, cutting power and internet service, and claiming 96 lives. Emergency officials estimate the total damage at $53 billion. The lights are back on, and roads repaired, but much work remains.

"Eight months later, many residents are still not back home," said group leader Mindy Pasquale. "Some are living in campers, tents, and even vehicles."

Lake Lure, NC, filled with debris last fall.

The mission group of 50, about half of whom are young people, is set to depart on Sunday, June 8 after a special Mass the day before and a send-off blessing. Some volunteers are expert carpenters and plumbers, others are simply willing workers ready to help rebuild homes. Government funding mostly covers infrastructure, including government buildings and public areas damaged or destroyed.

In one county alone, there are about 500 piles of debris still to be hauled away.

Thanks to parishioners who supported monthly hoagie sales, the group raised enough money for building materials and food. Each morning will begin with prayer, and after the day's work, the missionaries will return for nightly faith sharing as well as Adoration and Mass in a nearby church. Seminarians Chris Baker and Erik Pintar will be part of the group, which will return June 13.

The trip also will be an interfaith experience. "We are a Catholic church group working with Jewish disaster relief team, staying at a Lutheran summer camp," Mindy says. "All of us together using our hands to do God's work."

FAITH FORMATION

JASON GAWALDO

Director for Evangelization &
Catechetical Ministries

“Behold, I see the heavens opened and the Son of Man
standing at the right hand of God.”

Acts 7:56

Unpacking the Word

Acts 7:55–60

A few weeks ago, we heard Paul and Barnabas reminding the new Christians in Lystra and Iconium, “It is necessary for us to undergo many hardships to enter the kingdom of God” (Acts 14:22). Now this week, we see that necessity played out in Stephen, one of the first deacons and the first Christian martyr. His preaching angered some people enough that they brought him before the Sanhedran for preaching that Jesus would destroy the Temple and change the Mosaic customs. Our reading this week picks up the narrative after Stephen gives a lengthy discourse summarizing salvation history and accusing the leaders of opposing the Holy Spirit. As a result, they stone him to death. The whole narrative is strikingly similar to Jesus’ own death: persecuted for preaching, trial before the Sanhedran, forgiveness of the murderers.

Stephen’s witness—the Greek word martyr means just that—is a challenge to each of us. This whole Jesus thing either is true or it’s a giant waste of time. If it’s the same as any other path to God, then what was the point in what Jesus did, in what we hear this week of Stephen doing? If everyone and anyone gets into heaven simply by dying, then why go to Mass, say prayers, and deny yourself certain pleasures in this life? How much must we hate someone else to know the truth about Jesus and His offer of eternal life and not share it with them?

It can be uncomfortable to talk about Jesus with someone who “isn’t religious,” but we probably won’t incite them to stone us to death. If this whole Jesus thing is true, isn’t it worth the risk of someone thinking you’re weird for the chance that you might change their life for eternity? The Church exists to share the saving message of who Jesus Christ is and what He offers. We don’t exist to be a social club or even to provide service to society. Those things are empty if they don’t flow from the core identity of the Church and of each of us as Christians: to tell others about Jesus, even if they choose not to listen.

Mother's Day and Father's Day Celebrations

Our 4-year old Preschool class celebrated Mother's Day and an early Father's Day. They began by attending our Friday School Mass and continued their morning working together on a service project.

The moms helped their children plant flowers in a pot they decorated and handed them out to the school staff along with a handmade card.

Our dads and the children made placemats for the local "Meals on Wheels" Program and for shut-ins from our parish. These small acts of kindness were fun to do and brightened someone's day.

Making New Friends

Recently Miss Porter's 2nd grade class connected with a 3rd grade class from Corpus Christi Catholic School in Chambersburg, PA.

Their teacher, Mrs. Weiland, once taught at St. Gregory's and is a cousin to Miss Porter which made this all the more special.

The students enjoyed learning about each other such as their favorite color, do they have a pet, what type of sports do they like, what do they like to eat and so on.

It was a fun experience that helped with handwriting, spelling, letter writing and making new friends.

A Future Picasso?

Mrs. Garcia, our Art Teacher, has been introducing some of the middle school students to a new type of art known as "Still Life" and "Pointillism".

Still Life is a drawing or painting that focuses on still objects, such as fruits, flowers, or household items. The subject is an item or items that do not move on their own.

Pointillism is a style of art where small, distinct dots of color are applied in patterns to create a picture.

The students really enjoyed trying their hand at these methods and we wanted to share a couple of their "masterpieces". We think they did an amazing job.

Ritzert Hall – Church Alive Funds

As was announced in the bulletin a few weeks ago, the finance council approved putting Ritzert Hall up for sale since we are losing $20,000 a year.

When Saint Matthias was a parish, the parishioners raised $40,000 in Church Alive monies. The funds were to be used on upgrades to Ritzert Hall.

When the parish was merged with Saint Gregory Parish, the funds were not used due to COVID. Then, Saint Gregory Parish merged into what today is Divine Grace Parish. The finance council has approved shifting the $40,000 to support the Saint Gregory Organ Project currently underway.

The Carpenter's Project is accepting requests from homeowners in need of assistance with repairs. To be eligible, applicants must live in the Ellwood City or Riverside school districts, own their home, and live in it.

Projects include painting, small exterior maintenance/repair/carpentry jobs, power washing, shrub trimming, building wheelchair ramps, etc. We cannot accept large repair requests. Priority is given to those who have not been helped in the past five years unless a safety issue is involved. There are no financial requirements.

Donations are gratefully accepted to help us help more people. Homeowners may call Steven Miller at 724-201-0295.

If you would like to volunteer with The Carpenter's Project from July 14 – 18, forms and clearances are due Fri., June 20. Contact Steven for more information.
