Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Harvest is Abundant but The Laborers are Few

Luke 10:1-9

*In sending out the 72 disciples, Jesus calls all of us to spread the Gospel.
He emphasizes ministry to the marginalized, and the power of prayer to sustain ourselves and stay connected to God.
Help us to always listen and respond to His call help with the harvest.*

FATHER JIM'S WEEKLY REFLECTIONS

Beginning Our 4th Year

I started my assignment as your Pastor on July 1, 2022, driving from New Orleans after serving for 10 years at Notre Dame Seminary. I arrived on Friday, June 30th and hit the ground running the following day. As I now start my 4th year as Pastor, I do so grateful to Bishop Zubik, the clergy team and staff, and most of all, to you. Please pray that I can be the best shepherd I humanly can be for you. Thank you!

Our Feast Day and Anniversary

Divine Grace Parish will celebrate its third anniversary since being created on July 1, 2022. Our patronal feast will be celebrated on Sat., July 19 at the 5:00 pm Mass at Saint Gregory; July 20 at the 9:00 am Mass at Holy Redeemer, and the noon Mass at Saint Ferdinand. Our Patronal Feast Day is July 23, Our Lady, Mother of Divine Grace.

Life Teen this Wednesday

This Wed., July 9, our young people in grades 7-12 are invited from 6:00- 8:00 pm in the Youth Room at Saint Ferdinand for food, social time, and prayer. These usually occur on Mondays but these gatherings will be hosted on Wednesdays until the end of summer.

Bishop Zubik Mass of Thanksgiving

Bishop Zubik will celebrate Mass on Thurs., July 10, at 7:00 pm at Saint Paul Cathedral in Oakland. The Mass is open to the public, and is celebrated in thanksgiving for his ministry.

Preparing to Welcome Bishop Mark

Evening Prayer will take place at Saint Paul Cathedral, at 4:00 pm on Sun., July 13 and is open to the public. We will offer a holy hour at Holy Redeemer and Saint Ferdinand Church on July 13 from 4:00- 5:00 pm. Please consider praying for our new bishop. The Archbishop of Philadelphia will install Bishop Mark on Mon., July 14 at 2:30 pm. at Saint Paul Cathedral. Congratulations Bishop Mark!

No Confessions on July 10

I will be at the Mass of Thanksgiving this Thursday to represent the parish; therefore no confessions at Saint Gregory this Thursday.

Parish Picnic

We will gather on Saturday, July 26, at 6:15 pm in front of the parish house at Saint Gregory Church. Leading us in pop and country music will be The Wilmett Duo, our own parishioners Mark and Anna. We will have some light refreshments. Bring picnic food and a chair for a relaxed evening of music.

Getting Ready for the Parish Festival

We are about one month away from the Family Festival that will take place from August 8- 10. I am grateful to Jamie and Judy Shearer who are chairing the festival for the third year along with the festival committee and an army of volunteers. Please see page 15 for more information or visit parishfamilyfestival.org

Keeping the Mass a Priority

With vacations, sports, family picnics, and enjoying recreational time, keeping Sunday Mass as a central part of our summer schedule allows the Divine Grace of Our Lord into our lives bringing us a stable, solid foundation so we can really enjoy the peace of recreation. Have a great summer.

Would You Like to be a Cantor or Choir Member?

We have choirs, cantors at each Mass, and instrumentalists – would you like to learn more about these opportunities? Reach out to our music director Kevin at kjohnson@divinegracepgh.org.

New Fiscal Year

The parish finance council has approved the operating budget for 2025-2026. You can review the budget by going to our website at <https://divinegracepgh.org/parish-budget-summary>. I appreciate your financial support that enables us to exercise liturgical, spiritual, and pastoral ministry. Thank you!

Parishioner Feedback on St. Ferdinand Property

Divine Grace parishioners asked questions and provided feedback at a Town Hall regarding a proposal by Cranberry Township to purchase the land where Saint Ferdinand's ballfield is located. The township would like to develop the nine acres for recreational use. The township manager and all five supervisors attended the meeting on June 24, citing a recent study indicating a need for more local recreational opportunities. A number of parishioners said they would like to either keep the land as green space or look at alternate options. The clergy team and finance and pastoral councils have been consulted, and discussions are ongoing. Father Jim will continue to keep parishioners updated.

Bishop Eckman Ordination

Auxiliary bishop Mark Eckman will be ordained the 13th Bishop of Pittsburgh next Monday, July 14. The special Mass will begin at 2:30 pm at Saint Paul Cathedral in Oakland. The ordination is open to the public but seating is limited so arrive early, and carpooling is encouraged. A livestream also will be available at the diocesan website, www.diopitt.org. Bishop Eckman succeeds Bishop David Zubik, who has led the Diocese of Pittsburgh for nearly 18 years.

Staffing Update

With Alena Kucan transitioning into her new position, we welcome two new members to Communications working alongside Bob De Witt beginning in July. Pilar Brown will become our new bulletin designer with more than two decades of experience, including outstanding work designing Catholic parish bulletins. Katerina Deem is an accomplished graphic artist and digital strategist who will be creating designs and illustrations, expanding our social media presence, and editing video and photos. Both Pilar and Katerina will be working part-time and mostly on a remote basis. Welcome to the Divine Grace Parish Family!

Uniting to Provide Support and Hope

The Bereavement Group which meets at Saint Ferdinand and the Seasons of Hope Group that meets at Holy Redeemer came together for an evening of prayer and support. After celebrating Mass together, they shared the names of their loved ones who had gone before them, then took part in a butterfly release on the front lawn of Saint Ferdinand Church. The evening brought hope, healing and support to all in attendance. A special thank you to Father Gallagher for celebrating the Mass, Pauline for organizing the program, and Patti and Luann who facilitate the Seasons of Hope Group. Interested in joining either of these groups? Contact Jennifer at jlivorse@divinegracepgh.org for more information.

K of C Living Rosary on July 14

The Knights of Columbus Council 11838 invites all parishioners to join them to pray a Living Rosary at Saint Ferdinand Church on Monday, July 14 at 7:00 pm. A 90-foot rosary will be laid down the main aisle of the church and everyone will be asked to hold a bead and help recite the holy Rosary. Prayer handouts will be available. Families are welcome!

Ministry Spotlight – Divine Grace Parish Social Club

The Divine Grace Parish Social Club is rooted in over 60 years of ministry. Its mission is to bring our parish and community together in a spirit of Christ-led fellowship.

The Social Club sponsors various events throughout the year including the New Year's Eve Bingo and the Children's Christmas Party. They also host a weekly Bingo which draws parishioners and community members alike to our Holy Redeemer Catholic Center. Funds raised go toward sponsoring three generous scholarships for high school seniors, one at each of our church sites.

They also support Saint Gregory School, the Christian Mothers and other Divine Grace ministries. In a spirit of fellowship and sense of community, the group has hosted various social activities including bus trips to Niagara Falls, parks and plays.

If you are interested in joining or learning more about this ministry, we welcome you to email socialclub@divinegracepgh.org or call 724-776-2888 ext. 1210 for more information.

Understanding QR Codes

You may have noticed QR codes - a scannable bar code in a unique arrangement of squares - popping up on flyers, in the bulletin and on the web. If you have not used one before, here's how:

1. Open your camera on your smart phone.
2. Hold your phone over the QR code like you are going to take a photo of it.
3. A website address will pop up on your screen.
4. Tap the address and it will take you to the site the QR code was created for.

Help Divine Grace Parish When You're Away

The busy summer months ahead can affect our ministries at Divine Grace Parish. You can help us! As you finalize your summer travel plans, please prayerfully consider signing up for Faith Direct to help consistently sustain our ministries throughout the summer and all year long.

This is a way for you to simplify your giving and help provide our church with consistent support month after month. FAITH FORMATION

JASON GAWALDO

Director for Evangelization &
Catechetical Ministries

Unpacking the Word

Isaiah 66:10-14c

Isaiah 66 is the final chapter of one of the most important prophetic books in the Bible. Isaiah was used as a catechism of sorts in the Early Church because of his many prophecies of Jesus and of the restoration of the People of God. This final section of the book, beginning in chapter 56, describes the future glorification of God's people after all the persecutions have ceased and the judgment is over. It speaks in terms of comfort, rejoicing, and flourishing.

We are so used to the frequent paternal imagery for God that Isaiah's imagery may be surprising at first. It's worth remembering that the Holy Trinity is not a gendered being, except for the Second Person who took on a fully human nature, including male gender, and retains that nature with its gender eternally. Humanity, male and female together, is made in the image and likeness of God, and so the genius of each gender offers a glimpse into the divine. This week, the Spirit offers us a glimpse of the maternal aspect of God through the voice of Isaiah.

The Lord loves his people in a way that is analogous to a mother's love for her nursing infant. Babies can be a lot of work. They make demands upon your time and freedom. They are at times quite annoying, too. And yet a mother cannot help but love her baby. A smile or a coo is enough to make her forget the annoyances of parenting an infant. That same tenderness is what the Lord feels for his people, for you and for me. If we can bring ourselves to accept his love, we can experience comfort and delight akin to that of a nursing baby. The next time you see a mother with her baby, the next time you look at your own baby or grandbaby, pause a moment to take it in. It's an image of the Lord's desire for us.

We exist to help parents pass on the faith to their kids, and so we offer a variety of options – from fully in-person to fully at-home and even a hybrid option. And we offer modifications for families with special needs. If you have questions about how best to address your family's faith formation needs, please reach out to Jason Gawaldo (jgawaldo@divinegracepgh.org).

Benefits of Catholic Education– Part One

1. Catholic schools are one of the best ways the Church brings young people into a personal relationship with Jesus while preparing them for life.

Students learn that God is present and active in their lives. They see signs of His love all around them and become instruments of His grace through their relationships with family, friends, and teachers.

2. Catholic schools' holistic approach not only addresses a child's cognitive development, but also their spiritual, emotional, social, and physical growth.

Caring for the entire person helps contribute to students' success. They are prepared academically, but also come to understand their inherent worth and dignity, as well as that of others, in an increasingly changing world. They learn to love themselves, each other, and God.

3. Dedicated teachers integrate the Catholic faith into every subject.

Sharing in the Church's mission to evangelize, Catholic educators seek to model Christ the Teacher in incorporating the faith into all subjects to help guide children onto the path to sainthood. They view each student as a unique child of God.

4. We nurture each student's God-given gifts, developing leaders of strong faith, character, and integrity.

Catholic schools teach the Golden Rule from the Gospel of Matthew (7:12): "In everything, do to others what you would have them do to you." This helps give students the strength to say no when necessary, and the courage to stand up for the defenseless.

5. Catholic schools provide spiritual formation that encourages the pursuit of virtue.

Students are taught to strive for moral excellence, bear witness to the Gospel and the Church's teachings, and build healthy relationships. This ongoing process of growth and transformation can inspire others, drawing them closer to God, and lead to a more fulfilling and meaningful life.

Classes begin August 21.

To register, call 724- 452-9731 or email schooloffice@stgregzelie.org.
