The Parable of the GOOD SAMARITAN

When Jesus was asked, “who is my neighbor,” He told the story of a man beaten by robbers on the road to Jericho. Two passersby didn’t stop to help the victim, but a Samaritan, traditionally seen as an outsider, showed true neighborly love and cared for him. Jesus tells us, “Go and do likewise.” Do we show compassion and mercy to those we may not know, or do we turn away?

coordinates weekly events, email Hannah, our assistant youth coordinator, at hrepasky@divinegracepgh.org.

Ways to Avoid Spiritual Warfare

Do you or your family ever feel you are being attacked by the demonic? To remain in the state of grace, go to confession regularly, attend Sunday Mass, make sure the Crucifix is displayed in your home, bless yourself with holy water each morning, and pray daily. Do not use horoscopes, visit so-called psychics, or purchase spiritual candles, incense, charms, stones, etc., from stores that claim these help your spirituality – all of this can invite the demonic.

Did You Receive Your Parish Magazine?

As was announced on several occasions, we now have our own monthly parish magazine that is mailed to every household in the parish. If you have not received the July 2025 edition, please email Jason Gawaldo, our director for evangelization, at jgawaldo@divinegracepgh.org. If any parishioner or anyone you know who would like to advertise in the magazine please contact Jason.

Unpacking the Word

— Deuteronomy 30:10-14 —

The Book of Deuteronomy is Moses' farewell address to Israel before he died on Mount Nebo and then Israel inherited the Promised Land under Joshua's leadership. The book as a whole is a reminder of God's laws, an intensification of some of them, and a few concessions to Israel's hardened heart. And so it is presented as a new covenant in addition to the covenant sworn at Mount Sinai forty years earlier. Our reading this week comes from the end of the section of Covenant Sanctions found in 27:1-30:20.

In Moses' final appeal for Israel to be faithful, he cuts to the core of Christian morality: God's clear commands. You may recall that in the Garden of Eden, the serpent's primary move was to make God's clear command suddenly blurry: "Did God really say..." (Genesis 3:1). How can we follow God when we can't even be clear on what He said? Our culture today, with its rejection of authority and institutions and absolutes, tempts us with a similar line of reasoning. But Moses speaks with a clarity and simplicity that we need to hear again and again: Following the Lord is not too mysterious; we just have to do it. We have to build up the habit of doing the Lord's will.

All habits take time to form and involve setbacks. The same is true of habitual dispositions to do good, known as virtues. They require returning to the Lord with all your heart and all your soul every time you fail, to build back even stronger moral muscle memory so that it's even easier to do good the next time. None of this is possible by our efforts alone; it requires God's grace. But it's also not possible without our effort. God will not force His grace upon us. He wants us to cooperate with Him. And He reminds us today that it can in fact be as simple as carrying out what He's already told us to do.

Inspiration for the Week

Everyone is our neighbor — those we love and those we can't stand, the people we agree with and the people whose opinions we hate. In today's Gospel, Jesus tells us that we must not only see ourselves in every person we meet — we must see Him, too.

What is LifeTeen?

The goal of LifeTeen is to provide a safe and fun place for youth in grades 7-12 to find a solid Catholic community, get answers to questions, and most importantly, strengthen their relationship with Christ.

We get together for weekly meetings, fun outings, service opportunities, retreats and more. All in grades 7-12 are welcome!

Our regular meetings are held Wednesdays in the summer from 6:00 pm to 8:00 pm at the Saint Ferdinand's field behind the maintenance annex. Meals are provided.

Upcoming LifeTeen schedule – Saint Ferdinand Youth Room:
July 16, 23 and 30

Sunday, July 20

PICNIC at the PARK

Noon - 3:00 pm
Ages 21 – 39

Overlook Pavilion
Knob Hill Park

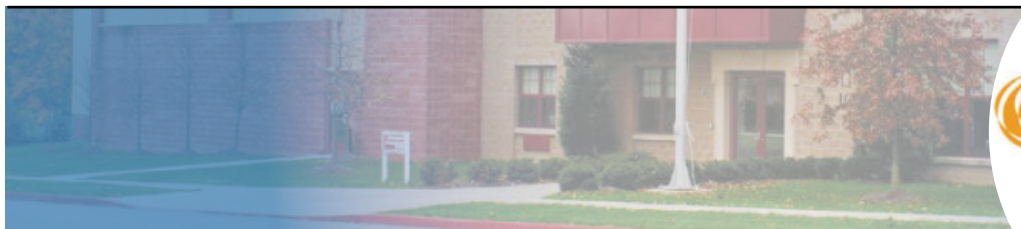

Faith on Fire invites young adults for an afternoon of fellowship, fun, and Catholic trivia. Whether you're new to the group or a regular face, bring your own beverages and a chair for a chance to connect, share laughs, and soak in the summer sun.

Catholic Kennywood Day

This Wednesday, July 16, youth from around the diocese will enjoy a day of fun at Kennywood Park. Youth from 6th to 12th grades are invited. We have a good number of young people from our parish attending.

The special day includes youth activities, confession, praise and worship, music, Mass, community dinner, and bottomless Pepsi fountain drinks.

Benefits of a Catholic Education – Part Two –

6. Gospel values taught in Catholic schools promote respect, compassion, and service.

Students learn of their responsibility to respond to the needs of others because they are members of God's family, called to use their talents and opportunities for the greater good. They may come from different backgrounds, have different experiences and personalities, but are all made in God's image. Students learn to love and respect themselves and others, serving the less fortunate.

7. Schools set and meet high standards for student achievement.

Rigorous academic programs lead to success in higher education, with the goal of developing a lifetime love of learning. Catholic school students earn higher scores than their peers in public schools on standardized tests in every subject area, according to the National Catholic Educational Association. The graduation rate from Catholic high schools is 99 percent, and 86 percent of Catholic high school graduates go on to college, compared with 49 percent of public high school graduates.

8. Emphasis on critical thinking skills, problem-solving, and decision-making.

Catholic schools provide opportunities for students to take upper-level coursework, including Advanced Placement (AP) or dual-credit courses. Young people engage in critical thinking exercises and develop strong analytical and problem-solving abilities.

9. Shared purpose and identity

The shared faith and values of teachers and students create a common purpose and sense of unity, promoting a feeling of belonging. Educators seek Five Marks of Catholic School Identity: Created in the Image of God, Share a Catholic Worldview, Integrate faith in all Learning, Gospel Witness, and Spirit of Community.

10. All learning and activities are focused on the full development of young people, for the welfare of society, and for building up the Kingdom of God.

Catholic school teachers are devoted to helping students understand, accept, and spread God's love. Beyond merely gathering and applying knowledge, students understand they are meant for more than what this earthly life can offer.

In Celebration, In Prayer

As a parish family, we lift up the names and needs of those in our hearts through prayer. If you would like to submit a prayer request or have the sanctuary flowers dedicated in honor or memory of a loved one, please call 724-776-2888. These offerings are a beautiful way to celebrate, remember, and support one another in faith.

Northern Regional Roman Catholic Bible Study

In commemoration of the 1,700th anniversary of the Council of Nicaea, we invite you to join us for our fall study: The Bible and the Church Fathers by the Saint Paul Center. As Christians, we should want to know our family tree—who has gone before us in the faith, where they came from, and what they believed. You'll learn about the early Church Fathers and how they shaped the way we read Scripture. The cost is $21 and includes streaming for six months and a study guide. Virtual or in-person classes are held Thursday mornings 9:30 am to 11:00 am from September 11 to November 20. In-person classes are held at Saint Luke the Evangelist Parish (Saints John & Paul Church) Upper CDC. To register, contact Pam at bakersforlife@gmail.com by August 15.

A Gathering of Faith and Hope

The 17th Gathering of Catholic Men Conference will take place on Saturday, September 13, at the Duquesne University Power Center Ballroom, located at 1015 Forbes Avenue in Pittsburgh. This year's gathering, themed "HOPE," coincides with the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross and features an inspiring lineup of speakers including: Mark Hartfiel, Michael Gormley, Jon Leonetti, and Bishop Waltersheid. Early bird registration is available for $25 per person, with the price increasing to $35 after August 31. Students may attend for $10, and clergy are welcome at no cost. For more details or to register, scan the QR code or visit www.cmfwpa.org.
