Seventeenth Sunday
in Ordinary Time

July 27, 2025

Lord, teach us how to
PRAY

Jesus taught the disciples to understand God as a loving Father who will provide what is good and necessary. We also must be persistent in asking for the gifts of the Holy Spirit, and trust in God's love and care. Saint Luke encourages us to pray always for God's kingdom to come and for his will to be done.

Celebrating the Saints this Week

Tuesday, July 29 is the feast day of Saints Martha, Mary, and Lazarus. These three siblings were friends with Jesus. After Lazarus died, Jesus brought him back to life. Martha would profess her faith in Jesus and the Resurrection. Mary taught us how to be contemplative with Jesus. On Wednesday, July 30, we remember Saint Peter Chrysologus, an Italian bishop who lived in the 5th century and preached with courage and faithfulness. Thursday, July 31, is the feast day of Saint Ignatius of Loyola. In the 16th century he founded the Jesuit Order to be missionaries in non-Christian territories. He also established a university in Rome where Father Freedy and I attended during our seminary days. Friday, August 1, marks the feast day of Saint Alphonsus Liguori, who founded the Redemptorist Order in the 18th century defending the Moral Doctrine of our faith. Two of his priests served here in Pittsburgh – Saint John Neumann and Blessed Francis Seelos.

Parish Family Festival

I am looking forward to seeing everyone at the festival from August 8-10. Special thanks to the army of volunteers who make this possible, and to everyone supporting the raffle. The evening dinners are a great way to enjoy some family time. We have several new thrill rides this year, along with a cornhole tournament and a section reserved for our teens to hang out. Fantastic entertainment is lined up. The festival is truly a family experience. See you there!

Next Weekend's Bulletin

As we have done the past couple of years, the bulletin next week will feature our Parish Family Festival. We will still have the Mass intentions and other important parish information but the rest of the bulletin will highlight festival facts and features including schedules, a map and our sponsors. Remember to bring your bulletin to the festival. We will order extras for our visitors.

Saint Gregory Adoration & Confession

Beginning August 5, Adoration will resume at Saint Gregory Church—moving from Thursdays to Tuesdays. Confessions will also shift from Thursdays to Tuesdays as well starting on August 5.

Getting Ready for School

I encourage students heading off to college to make a good confession so that your semester begins with a clean slate. It's a good idea for our high school students to do the same – we priests understand that summer can create certain temptations and challenges. We are not here to judge but to bring the Mercy of God to you through the Sacrament of Penance.

Saint Gregory School

What a blessing that our parish has an elementary school. Tuition can be an obstacle for many families but the faith formation our students receive is a life-long benefit. It is not too late to consider registration. The first day of school is August 21.

Ellwood City Festival Update

Thanks to all who volunteered for the festival, making, transporting and selling pepperoni puffs and other food. Expenses for rental of the pavilion, food preparations, rental of the van, and start-up funds totaled $14,810. We grossed $58,222. So, our parish made $43,412 from the festival. Again, thank you!

DIVINE GRACE PARISH FINANCIAL REPORT

Sunday Collection total for
July 12-13, 2025 = $29,508
Second Collection = $4,682
(for building upkeep)
Parish Members = 18,742
Parish Households = 7,080

This weekend's second collection is for our Catholic School Contribution.
Thank you for your generosity.

I ask that...prayers, petitions, and thanksgivings be offered for everyone

THE CARPENTERS PROJECT

Volunteers endured heat and dodged thunderstorms to help fix up the exteriors of 33 homes in the Ellwood City area. For the 24th summer, The Carpenters Project, an interfaith effort of 21 churches, mobilized a volunteer workforce for four days.

Leader Steven Miller says about half of their 160 volunteers helped to paint and repair siding, fences and railings, power wash concrete, trim bushes and do other landscape work. The rest served them breakfast, lunch and dinner.

“Our homeowners, who are mostly older or otherwise unable to do these jobs themselves are incredibly appreciative,” Steven says. “It’s also very fulfilling for our volunteers. They feel good to help people in need. It’s a lot of hard work, but totally worth it.”

New Neighbor Postcards

A few weeks ago, we mailed a New Neighbor Postcard to the 3,881 families who moved into our parish boundaries in the last year. The postcard welcomes them to our neighborhood with a brief message from Fr. Jim, our Mass, Confession, and Adoration schedules, and a QR code to our website. This postcard also will be mailed each month to every new home purchased within our territory. This is just one way that our parish is reaching out to our mission territory.

Update on Sister Parish in San Luis R.C., Mexico

Father Rudy Valenzuela will visit Saint Ferdinand Church next month to give an update on his parish in Mexico and thank parishioners for their support.

In 2011, Saint Ferdinand parishioners formed a sister parish relationship with Holy Spirit Parish in San Luis Rio Colorado, Mexico. On the international border just south of Yuma, Arizona, it is one of the hottest and driest cities in Mexico.

Saint Ferdinand has provided financial support and volunteers who have helped build a medical clinic, a church, two chapels, and classrooms for faith formation. Holy Spirit Parish continues to grow, according to Saint Ferdinand outreach coordinator Walt Scott. This past Easter Vigil, 22 adults and young people were baptized, and 34 adults were confirmed and received their First Holy Communion. About 200 children are in the parish's faith formation program.

Father Rudy will be speaking at Masses at Saint Ferdinand the weekend of August 16-17.

Welcoming the Stranger: A Parish Response to Migration

Rooted in the Gospel call to welcome the stranger and the rich tradition of Catholic social teaching, the Diocese of Pittsburgh is convening a meeting for parish leaders to explore how our faith compels us to respond to the realities of migration with compassion and courage.

Jamie Martinez of Casa San Jose will be the speaker at the luncheon meeting. Casa San Jose is a community resource center that supports and empowers immigrant families in southwestern Pennsylvania.

There is no cost to attend. It will be held on Thursday, August 21, from 11:30 am to 2:00 pm in O'Connor Hall, Diocesan Pastoral Center, 2900 Noblestown Road, Pittsburgh 15205. To learn more and register, visit <https://diopitt.org/welcoming-the-stranger>

Unpacking the Word

— Genesis 18:20-32 —

Our first reading this week presents us with Abraham's barter with God over the destruction of Sodom. Notice the Lord's patience. Abraham is rather annoying in the way he goes about constantly changing his request. Seven different times in this passage he pushes back on the Lord's intention. What bold confidence! The Lord responds with such patience, especially given that he already knows Abraham's next response. It reminds me of Jesus' parable of the persistent widow who nags the unjust judge into vindicating her (see Luke 18:1-8). The Gospel tells us that Jesus told that story to show us that we ought always pray and never lose heart, and with Abraham he shows us exactly why. The Lord is so very patient.

Notice also the Lord's inordinate mercy. He agrees to spare the entire guilty population of Sodom for the sake of just ten innocent people. Perhaps Abraham knows that even ten innocent people in Sodom is a stretch because Genesis never records him attempting to find anyone. After the narrative of our first reading ends, it says that "Abraham returned to his place" (Genesis 18:33) instead of "Abraham went and found ten innocent people." The angels try to save Lot and anyone associated with his household: "Have you anyone else here? Sons-in-law, sons, daughters, or any one you have in the city, bring them out of the place" (Genesis 19:12). Lot attempts to convince his sons-in-law to leave the city, but they assume he must be joking. All that can be mustered is Lot, his wife, and his two daughters, six people short of Abraham's ten. Just six more people would have spared the entire city.

If so few innocent people could have spared an entire guilty city, what blessings can you and your household effect on your neighborhood, our city, our country by pursuing holiness? We are called to go out from our churches, to go out from our homes to spread the Gospel, and yet just simply pursuing holiness in the silent and hidden ways can be enough to save a sick and dying culture. Can we find ten innocent people in our town?
