Welcome to Divine Grace Parish for our Family Festival and the beautiful grounds of Saint Ferdinand Church, which has hosted a festival since the parish was established in the 1960s.

The festival is a fundraiser which supports and sustains our many ministries and organizations in our parish. However, it's also an opportunity to celebrate, meet new people, enjoy fun in a safe place, and appreciate our God-given blessings. I hope everyone has a good experience, and invite your family and friends to join us!

Father Jim Wehner

Welcome to the Divine Grace Parish Family Festival! We are delighted and humbled to serve as co-chairs to help bring together friendship, community, faith, and joyful service through our parish.

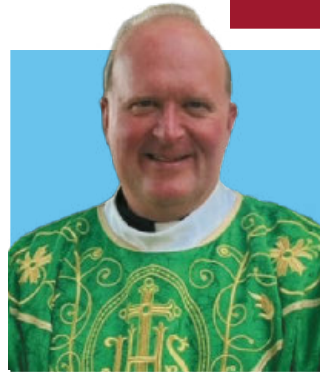

Whether you are a parish member, neighbor, or a first-time visitor, you are an important part of our celebration. Our festival is rooted in the spirit of hospitality—an open invitation to experience fellowship, laughter, and the grace of shared moments.

A big THANK YOU to every volunteer who has dedicated his or her time, talent, and energy to making this festival a success again this year. Your commitment is critical, and your smiles, laughter, determination, and can-do attitude are most appreciated. Your efforts are the living embodiment of Christ's call to service and to love one another.

A special note of thanks to our volunteer leaders who have worked tirelessly to address every detail of the festival.

Again, welcome!
