FINDING OUR TRUE treasure

In Saint Luke's Gospel this Sunday, Jesus tells believers to store up treasures in heaven by selling their possessions and giving to the poor. We are called to seek the eternal riches of the Kingdom rather than the things of this world. This teaching is exemplified by Divine Grace Social Services, which provides food assistance to about 350 families a month in the Ellwood City area, as well as other support. The Gospel reminds us to be good stewards and serve others.

Festival Weekend

Thanks to all of our parishioners who have supported the festival with your purchase of raffle tickets, donations, and visiting the festival this year. There are new attractions as well as favorite dinners and game booths. I also want to thank the army of volunteers who make the festival possible – without them there could be no festival. Special thanks to Judy and Jamie Shearer who have chaired the festival for the last three years. I am grateful for their year-round planning.

Festival Follow-Up Dinner Meeting

All volunteers are invited to a dinner meeting on September 2 at 7:00 pm in Oldenski Hall at which time we will review the outcomes of the festival and make recommendations for next summer.

Solemnity of the Assumption

This Friday, August 15 is a Holy Day of Obligation as the Church celebrates the Assumption of Mary into Heaven. It is a reminder of God's promise of our share in the Resurrection of Jesus through Baptism and the Holy Eucharist. Our Lady is the first to experience the fruits of Jesus' Resurrection with her Assumption since the stain of sin never touched her. There will be vigil Masses on Thursday evening at 7:00 pm at all three churches. Friday morning Masses will remain the same at all three churches. There is an additional noon Mass at Saint Ferdinand. All three churches will have a 7:00 pm Mass on Friday evening. Parish offices will be closed on Friday, August 15.

Thank You, Seminarian Chris

We have been blessed to have Seminarian Chris Baker assigned to us for the past year. His engagement with our youth, young adults, home visits to the homebound, his presentations and preaching, his commitment to prayer and worship, and his overall presence in parish life not only assisted his own formation but also energized many of our ministries and organizations. As he returns to the seminary, please keep him in prayer.

Congratulations Deacon Aspirants

As the diocese calls forth a new class of deacons, three of our parishioners have been accepted into what is called the "propaedeutic phase," which is a year of discernment and initial diaconal formation. Please keep Bill Melphi, Paul Unni, and Adam Welle in prayer. You will come to know them as they become more actively and visibly involved in parish life.

Back to School

Blessings to all students preparing for another school year – from pre-kindergarten through college. May the Lord bless you with a safe and successful year. Remember to attend Mass, stay close to the sacraments, and offer daily prayers.

St. Gregory Adoration and Confession

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament has resumed at Saint Gregory Church on Tuesdays from 1:00 pm to 6:00 pm. Confessions are now heard Tuesdays at Saint Gregory from 5:00 pm to 6:00 pm. Adoration and Confessions no longer take place on Thursdays. Saturday confession is still 10:00 am to 11:00 am.

Did You Get Your Parish Magazine?

Every household in the parish should have received two editions of our monthly parish magazine. If you have not, please email Jason at jgawaldo@divinegracepgh.org so we can update our records.

Join us for some Festival Fun

You are invited to attend and bring friends to the three-day Divine Grace Parish Family Festival, held through Sunday, August 10 at Saint Ferdinand. New this year are thrill rides, a cornhole tournament Saturday evening, and a Teen Zone for young people. Festival co-chairs Jamie and Judy Shearer say the festival, which dates back to the 1960s at Saint Ferdinand, is rooted in the spirit of hospitality. All are welcome to experience fellowship, fun, and community.

We are especially thankful to the many volunteers who have worked countless hours over months planning and preparing for the festival, and to our sponsors who are generously providing support. God bless!

WELCOME

Reaching out to our New Neighbors

New Neighbor Postcards have been mailed to 3,881 families who moved within our parish boundaries in the last year. The postcard welcomes them with a brief message from Fr. Jim, our Mass, Confession, and Adoration schedules, and a QR code to our website. This postcard will be mailed each month to every new home purchased within our parish boundaries as we continue to evangelize.

Father Rudy returns next week to Saint Ferdinand

In 2011, Saint Ferdinand parishioners formed a sister parish relationship with Holy Spirit Parish in San Luis Rio Colorado, Mexico, on the international border with the U.S. Saint Ferdinand has provided financial support and volunteers who have helped build a medical clinic, a church, two chapels, and classrooms for faith formation.

The parish continues to flourish, according to Saint Ferdinand outreach coordinator Walt Scott. This past Easter Vigil, 22 adults and young people were baptized, and 34 adults were confirmed and received their First Holy Communion. About 200 children participate in Holy Spirit's faith formation program.

Their pastor, Father Rudy Valenzuela, will update Saint Ferdinand parishioners at Masses next weekend and thank them for their continuing support.

Welcoming the Stranger: A Parish Response to Migration

Rooted in the Gospel call to welcome the stranger and the rich tradition of Catholic social teaching, the Diocese of Pittsburgh is convening a meeting for parish leaders to explore how our faith compels us to respond to the realities of migration with compassion and courage.

Jamie Martinez of Casa San Jose will be the speaker at the luncheon meeting. Casa San Jose is a community resource center that supports and empowers immigrant families in southwestern Pennsylvania.

There is no cost to attend. It will be held on Thursday, August 21, from 11:30 am to 2:00 pm in O'Connor Hall, Diocesan Pastoral Center, 2900 Noblestown Rd, Pittsburgh 15205. To learn more and register, visit <https://diopitt.org/welcoming-the-stranger>

Life for Life: Maximilian Kolbe

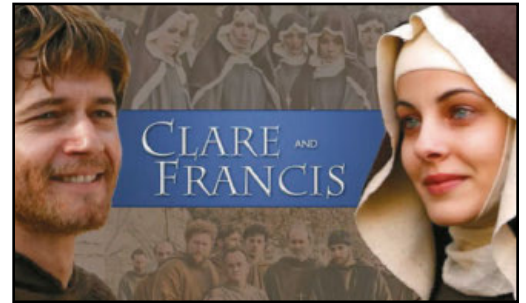

After escaping from Auschwitz, a man hears the tragic news about ten random inmates sentenced by the Nazis to death as a punishment for his escape - one of whom is Father Maximilian Kolbe.

Clare and Francis

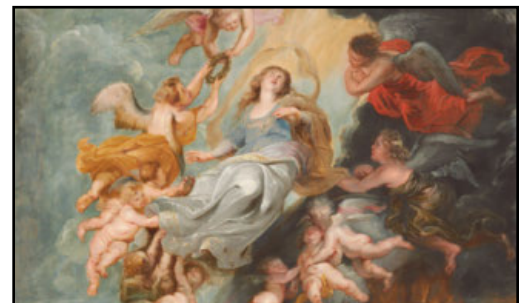

This outstanding movie is unique among films about Saint Francis because of the historical accuracy of the story and its authentic spirit of joy and piety so characteristic of Francis, as well as the major role played by Clare.

Both founded major religious orders, and together they inspired many to follow their radical call to live the Gospel.

The Assumption of Mary

The Assumption of Mary, body and soul in Heavenly glory, highlights the power of God and Christ's victory over sin and death for Mary's soul. Learn about this great mystery in Mysteries of the Rosary.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd - Level I Atrium

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd is a Montessori method of formation that utilizes child-directed activities, hands-on learning, and collaborative work. In the atrium—the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd learning space—children grow in friendship with the Good Shepherd while exploring miniature vessels and vestments from Mass, using interactive maps of the Holy Land, and working with dioramas of Jesus' parables. The atrium provides children with a quiet, reflective space to ponder our faith, deepen their relationship with the Good Shepherd and gain new insights from highly trained Catechists. Our Level I Atrium (for ages 3-6) at Saint Ferdinand opens this fall during the following times:

- Wednesdays, 4:30 pm to 6:00 pm
- Thursdays, 9:30 am to 11:00 am
- Thursdays, 4:30 pm to 6:00 pm

The Search

What are you searching for? The Search leads people to the deepest questions of the human heart, exploring the meaning and purpose of life through a visually stunning, intellectually stimulating approach. The Search explores life's biggest questions:

- What Do You Seek?
- Who Are You?
- Why a God?
- What's Our Story?
- Who Is Jesus?
- Am I Saved?
- Why a Church?

Who in your life do you wish knew Jesus better or was more connected with His Church? Consider inviting them to attend with you. The Search will take place on Wednesdays, September 24 through November 5, 7:30 pm to 9:00 pm in Oldenski Hall at Saint Ferdinand. Sign up at www.divinegracepg.org/thesearch $10 per person; financial assistance available.

Living Rosary on August 11

The Knights of Columbus Council 11838 will be reciting the Holy Rosary on Monday, August 11 at 7:00 pm in Saint Ferdinand Church. A 90-foot rosary will be placed down the main aisle of the church and all will be asked to hold a bead as prayers are recited.

Creating a Culture of Vocations

Answering Bishop Eckman's call to promote vocations, the Diocese of Pittsburgh is offering a workshop to help equip lay leaders to form vocation ministries in their parishes. The workshop will be held Saturday, September 6 at the O'Connor Hall at the Diocesan Pastoral Center. To RSVP or for more information, please contact Jennifer at jlivorse@divinegracepgh.org or 724-776-2888 ext. 1210.

Join us for a Jubilee Pilgrimage

Visit the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception during the Jubilee Year of Hope on Saturday, September 13.

The day includes a tour of the basilica, Mass, a Holy Hour, and opportunity for Confession. Bishop Emeritus David Zubik will join the pilgrimage.

The cost is $100 per person and includes a boxed dinner for the ride home. For lunch, the cafeteria will be open for soup, sandwiches, fruit, muffins, coffee etc.

A bus to and from the shrine will be leaving from Saint Alphonsus Church, Saint Aidan Parish (221 Church Road, Wexford, PA 15090) and returning at 10:00 pm.

Save the Date, Help Save Lives

Divine Grace Parish is sponsoring a bus trip to the PA March for Life at the State Capitol in Harrisburg on Monday, September 22. We'd like a strong turnout from our parish. We will depart from Saint Ferdinand following morning Mass, returning 7:00 pm. Questions? Call Bill or Denise at 724-494-1552.

Unpacking the Word

— Wisdom 18:6-9 —

The Book of Wisdom is one of the last Old Testament books to be written, just a few centuries before Jesus' birth. Speaking in the voice of the great philosopher-king Solomon, it presents Jewish piety and theology wedded to Greek philosophy, a marriage that made it a favorite of many early Church Fathers living in a Hellenistic world. The first nine chapters exhort people of power to love wisdom and righteousness to gain eternal life. The final ten chapters describe divine Wisdom's role throughout salvation history, focusing almost exclusively on the plagues during the Exodus. This reading comes almost at the very end of the book, commenting on the Passover and the final plague: the death of the firstborn son.

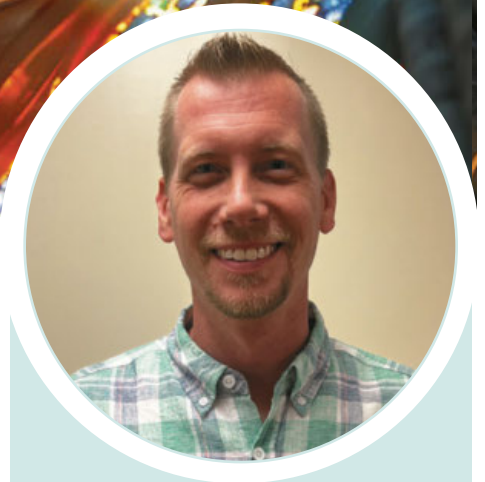

Wisdom points out that the very same thing the Lord used to punish the Egyptians he also used to glorify Israel, only in their case a lamb died in place of each firstborn son. It may not seem obvious, but this same dynamic plays out today. Like the ancient Egyptians, modern spiritual Egyptians put their faith in every manner of false god, be it money, crystals, fitness, etc. Like the ancient Israelites, modern spiritual children of the Lord have a "sure knowledge of the oaths in which they put their faith." The oaths refer to the covenants, the precursors of our sacraments. We ought to have a sure knowledge of the sacraments in which we put our faith so that we can experience blessings and grace in the very things that often plague modern man.

People carry so much guilt, but we can face our guilt and allow it to be taken away in the sacrament of Confession. People are just so busy, but we can busy ourselves by scheduling the sacrifice of the Mass and time spent with the sacrament of the Eucharist into our daily lives. Marriages are stressed, but we can experience grace in sacramental marriage. People are sick, but we can give immense value to the experience in sacramental anointing. The very things that can feel like a punishment can turn out for our glory if we can recognize Jesus Christ Himself coming to us in His sacraments.
