The Exaltation of the Holy Cross

On this solemnity we venerate the Cross because it is a sign of Jesus Christ's triumph over sin, evil and death. Through His suffering and sacrifice, Jesus redeemed the world. As our Lord shared His anguish with us, we are called to join our sufferings to His and ultimately share in His glory and resurrection.

For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. – John 3:16

Feast of The Exaltation of the Holy Cross

This weekend we celebrate a double anniversary. In the 4th century, the emperor Constantine erected a church in Jerusalem above the empty tomb of Jesus and a basilica on Calvary where Jesus was crucified. Both buildings would be destroyed twice—by the Persians and then the Muslims. Today's churches were dedicated in the 12th century. We also celebrate the discovery of the true Cross by Constantine's mother, the empress Saint Helena, in 326 A.D.

Our Lady of Sorrows

On Monday, we honor Mary by her title Our Lady of Sorrows which recounts her great suffering as she witnessed the scourging, torture, crucifixion, and death of her Son, Jesus Christ. We also are sorrowful because our sins participate in that suffering from 2,000 years ago.

LifeTeen Kick-Off

On Monday, September 15, we kick off our weekly LifeTeen youth group gatherings at Saint Ferdinand from 6:00 pm to 9:00 pm for students grades 6-12. This Monday we will have a bonfire, a mechanical bull, and lots of food.

Parish Finance Council

I am grateful to the members of the Parish Finance Council who provide me with outstanding counsel on how we fund our parish ministries and serve as careful stewards of generous parishioner financial support. They are: Jamie Shearer (chair), Joe Ennis (vice chair), Kate Maseth-Ready (recording secretary), Amy Behun, Peter Boyer, Jay Cortez, Felicia DiNardo, Daniel Jenkins, Chelsey Knapton, Licia Lentz, Frank Lordi, Frances Tartal, and Andrew Welch. Our next meeting is Wednesday, September 17 at 6:30 pm at Holy Redeemer Catholic Center.

Parish Pastoral Council

The Pastoral Council gives the parish and myself guidance on the facilitation of parish ministries and the day-to-day activities of parish life. They are: Laura Dadey (chair), Judy Shearer (vice chair), Joyce Gaydosz (secretary), Beth Markovitz, Dianne Unni, Shalini Savio, Patrick Savio, Tim Maloney, Angela Maloney, Devin Cortez, Rosina Betz, Valerie Bucek, and Lara Zelch.

First Confession Parent Meetings

We are preparing nearly 100 children to celebrate their first confession with the Sacrament of Penance. We would like to meet with all parents to review how we can work together in preparing the children. Parents can choose one of these meeting dates: Thursday, September 25 at 6:30 pm in Room 205 at Holy Redeemer Catholic Center, or Sunday, September 28, at 9:05 am in Saint Ferdinand's Oldenski Hall.

Children's Liturgy of the Word

Starting this Sunday, we will resume the Children's Liturgy of the Word at the 10:00 am Masses at Saint Ferdinand and Saint Gregory churches. Children under the age of seven are invited to leave Mass after the Opening Prayer to get an explanation of the readings before returning to Mass at the Offertory. If any parent would like to assist, contact Jennifer Livorse (jlivorse@divinegracepgh.org) who will connect you with the leaders.

Oktoberfest at Saint Gregory School

Come and enjoy German food and music on Sunday, September 28 from 3:00 to 6:00 pm in the Bergman Event Center. All proceeds benefit Saint Gregory School.

Eucharistic Rosary Congress

Divine Grace Parish will be offering Spiritual Works of Mercy by participating in the annual Eucharistic Rosary Congress. It is continual Adoration and hourly recitation of the Rosary before the Blessed Sacrament for seven days and nights. Our parish will cover the 24-hour period beginning Monday, October 6 at two churches:

- Saint Gregory Church from 8:00 am Monday until Mass on Tuesday, October 7 at 8:00 am
- Saint Ferdinand Church from 9:30 am Monday until Mass on Tuesday at 8:30 am

Through Adoration and praying the Rosary we bring spiritual renewal to our parish by drawing participants into prayer and silence, in order to grow closer to Jesus and the Blessed Virgin Mary. To sign up as an adorer or to learn more, contact Jennifer at jlivorse@divinegrachpgh.org.

Divine Grace Parishioners at CANONIZATION

Parishioners Hayley and Tony Grese returned to Rome for the canonization of Saint Carlo Acutis and Saint Pier Giorgio Frassati on September 7. "So many young people here (are) on fire with their faith," Hayley said from Saint Peter's Square. Tony added, "It was so much fun to able to share our faith with people from around the world. Such a joyous time."

Parishioner Sam Buchanan, a student at the University of Notre Dame, who is in Rome studying architecture, also attended the canonization with friends. He called it, "an amazing experience."

The Seven Sorrows of the Blessed Virgin Mary

The Seven Sorrows of Mary is a traditional Catholic devotion featuring meditations on sorrowful episodes in the life of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Join us in prayer as we celebrate the feast of Our Lady of Sorrows.

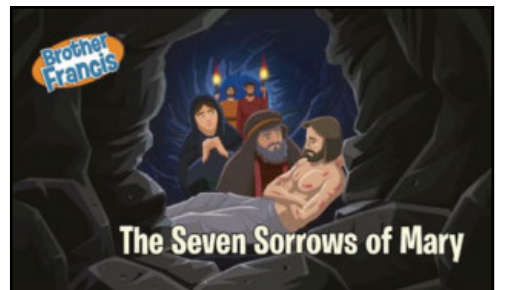

Stations of the Cross by Saint Alphonsus Liguori

The Augustine Institute presents a beautiful meditation on the Stations of the Cross by Saint Alphonsus Liguori, narrated by Dr. Christopher Blum. This prayerful reflection is accompanied by the Schola Cantorum, chanting the traditional Catholic hymn Stabat Mater to aid your prayer.

The Seven Sorrows of Mary | Brother Francis

Join Brother Francis as he prays and explores the Seven Sorrows of Mary Devotion!

Holy Smoke!

We are pleased to welcome former Steelers GM Kevin Colbert for a witness talk during an evening of fellowship and food. Father Joe Freedy again will host our gathering, on Thursday, September 25, beginning at 6:00 pm at Saint Ferdinand. Guys will gather for a pig roast, cigars, and listen to Colbert, a graduate of North Catholic who spent 23 seasons with the Steelers. No cost to attend, courtesy RSVP at <https://divinegracepgh.org/talks>

The Ministry of Angels

Angels in the Bible carry out God's will, they speak for Him, guide nations, protect His people, worship Him, and carry out His judgment.

In this series, George Smiga examines some of the Bible's most fascinating passages about angels, exploring their ministry on God's behalf, and drawing insights for our own spiritual lives. Because angels are mediators of God's presence and action, studying angels is studying God.

Tuesdays, September 30 to November 4, from 7:00 pm to 8:30 pm in the Upper Room, Saint Ferdinand. $15 for a workbook; visit <https://divinegracepgh.org/biblestudy> to register or learn more.

The Search is About to Begin

Who is Jesus? Why a Church? What's our story? Explore life's biggest questions in this engaging series on Wednesdays, September 24 to November 5, from 7:30 pm to 9:00 pm in Oldenski Hall at Saint Ferdinand. $10 per person; financial aid available. Becoming Catholic

Many of us know someone who might be interested in being Catholic or returning to the Church: a spouse, sibling, friend, or neighbor. With Inquirer Classes and Catechumen Classes starting soon, now is a good time to give them a gentle nudge. Every person's walk with the Lord is unique, and we provide formation and an initiation timeline that fit the individual's need.

If you know someone who might want to explore becoming Catholic, have them visit <https://divinegracepgh.org/becomingcatholic> or email

Are You Up for the Challenge?

Our next Hallow Prayer Challenge, A Biblical Walk Through the Mass with Dr. Ed Sri, begins on Monday, September 15. This eight-day prayer challenge will help deepen your appreciation for the Mass. Join on our Hallow app Parish page. Find out more at <https://divinegracepgh.org/hallow>

Our Kids Don't Go to Church— What Should We Do?

Many parents experience frustration, anxiety, and even guilt when their children or other loved one drifts away from practicing the Catholic faith. What can be done? Deacon Don Pepe will lead a meeting to begin a dialogue to help discern if a ministry should be formed at Divine Grace Parish to learn more about this important issue and make an effort to do something about it. The meeting will be held on Sunday, September 21 at 1:00 pm in the Saint Gregory School Library. To learn more or RSVP, visit <http://divinegracepgh.org/fallenaway> or email dpepe@diopitt.org.

An Invitation for Divine Grace Proclaimers

All Proclaimers from our three churches are invited to a retreat on Saturday, September 27 from 9:00 am to noon in Saint Gregory's Blue Room. RSVP to Jennifer at jlivorse@divinegracepgh.org or call 724-776-2888, ext. 1210 or 1107.

Angels and Demons: Theology on Tap

Unpacking the Word

— Numbers 21:4b-9 —

After the Exodus, Israel wandered in the Sinai desert for forty years. This was not God's original plan. Rather, it was the result of repeated rebellion and refusal to follow God's plan. It all came to a head at Kadesh when all of Israel except for Joshua and Caleb decided they would rather go back to Egypt than enter Canaan, forfeiting their chance to enter the Promised Land. They would have to roam the desert for forty years, a highly symbolic number but also a length of time necessary for an entire generation to pass away.

During these forty years, the books of Exodus and Numbers record at least ten different times that Israel complained, often describing it as murmuring, against the Lord. Our reading today represents the tenth such complaint, which just might be the most egregious of the murmuring. Ever since the earliest days of the Exodus, even before they arrived at Mount Sinai, the Lord had been feeding Israel with manna, miraculous bread from heaven. Now nearly four decades later, even the second generation of Israelites begin to complain about "this wretched food." In punishment, the people were plagued by fiery serpents and eventually cried out to God for help.

Notice how the Lord responded. He didn't take away the serpents or their bite. Instead, he allowed the consequence of rebellion to stand, but he also provided a remedy. After a person was bitten, he could look upon a bronze serpent on a pole, still the icon of the medical profession today, and he would live.

God is a good Father, and he will allow us to experience the consequences of our sin and rebellion so that we can learn from our mistakes. But he is also a forgiving Father who would rather die than risk eternity without us. And so centuries later, healing would come not from a serpent lifted on a pole but from a Savior lifted on a cross. Jesus took the consequences of our sinful rebellion upon himself so that we could experience forgiveness. May we never murmur over so great a gift.

Annual Parish Appeal

The campaign funds formation, outreach and pastoral care of parishioners and those in need across our diocese. Additional support last year helped parish youth and young adult ministries, growth in religious education, and upkeep of our properties. To date, 1,277 donations have been received. To give to the 2025 Parish Appeal, please click on <https://bit.ly/4h5LNvW>

Chimbote Dinner Set for October 13

For six decades the Diocese of Pittsburgh has supported the poor in Chimbote, Peru. More than 100,000 children have been born in a maternity hospital, and a health clinic provides medical and spiritual care to hundreds and even thousands of local residents every week. Both were built from donated funds. We hope you can attend the Chimbote Mission Dinner on Monday, October 13, 6:00 pm, at the Sheraton Station Square in support of this worthy cause. To register or donate, visit www.chimbotefoundation.org

Women Discerning Their Vocation

All women 18-40 years old who are discerning their vocation are invited by the Passionist Nuns for a weekend retreat from Friday, October 10, 6:00 pm to Sunday, October 12, 4:00 pm. It is a wonderful opportunity for a weekend away to pray and seek God's will for your life. The schedule includes Mass, Adoration, Liturgy of the Hours, two optional talks, and generous spaces for silence and prayer. There is no cost to attend; private single retreat rooms and all meals will be provided at their community in South Pittsburgh.

Details and registration information is available at <https://www.passionistnunspgh.org/retreat>

New Life After Divorce

If you or someone you know is seeking healing or clarity after a divorce, be sure to attend a diocesan workshop on the annulment process. Topics include Marriage Law, Types of Annulments, and When and How to Begin a Petition.

The session will be held on Thursday, September 25 at 7:00 pm in Saint Ferdinand's Oldenski Hall. To learn more, please visit <https://diopitt.org/annulments>

Golden Wedding Anniversary Mass

Sunday, October 19, 2025, 2:30 PM at Saint Paul Cathedral

Are you celebrating your 50th Wedding Anniversary in 2025?

Come to honor this tremendous milestone and to thank God for the gift of your marriage at the Golden Wedding Anniversary Mass.

Reception to follow.

To register yourself and your spouse, please visit diopitt.org/GWA25 or scan the QR code.

Registration deadline is October 5, 2025.
